

GRAVES RE-CRATED AT SOLDIERS' HOME

Principal Address of Day Made By Senator Depew.

Impressive ceremonies marked the decoration of the graves this morning in the National Cemetery at the United States Soldiers' Home, under the direction of George Ross, senior vice department commander. The order of exercises began when the parade formed in front of the Scott building at 9:30 o'clock and marched to the cemetery.

In the line of march was the Soldiers' Home band, the committee and officers of the Soldiers' Home, Senator Depew, the Rev. Edward H. Southgate, chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, Dr. Thomas Calver, Samuel B. Donnelly, Henry Wilson Post, G. A. R.; Young Ladies' Memorial Choir, J. J. Astor Command, Spanish War Veterans, residents of the home, guests and visitors.

The assembly was sounded at 9:34 by a Soldiers' Home bugler, followed by the invocation by the Rev. Southgate, chaplain of the home. There was a solo by Miss Noble N. Potts. In the introductory address, George C. Ross, senior vice department commander, lauded the soldiers for their defense of the Union and showed that reverence should be paid those who saved the Union. Mrs. Nellie B. Kelsar sang the "Soldiers' Home Memorial Song." An original poem, "The Veterans' Dream," was read by Dr. Thomas Calver. There was singing by the Young Ladies' Memorial Choir. A solo by Mrs. Ralph H. Barnard, Barbara Fretche Post, was followed by a recitation by Miss Mary Ford. Public Printer Samuel B. Donnelly read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The principal address was by Senator Depew of New York. He said:

Depew's Speech. Senator Depew, in his address at the Soldiers' Home, spoke in part, as follows: "Upon this day, from the lives and the deeds of the men who fell in the great civil war, from the causes for which they died and the results which they achieved, we take our step and learn our lesson of how to preserve and perpetuate the union of these States.

"We are one of the most fortunate of the generations of men. While others have passed their peaceful and eventless lives without incident and without history, this has been the lot of witness some of the mightiest events of all time; to participate in the discussion of the grandest questions which have ever agitated a people, and to take part in the conflict and decide the issue which will determine the destiny of humanity and liberty upon this continent.

"We look back upon the scenes which transpired at the time of the beginning of the struggle with wonder and amazement. When its story is read a hundred years hence, it will be impossible to credit all its details.

Distinctive Feature. "The distinction of the volunteer army (the graves of whose dead we strew today with flowers) over all other armies of all times was its intelligence. Behind every musket was a thinking man. On the march, around the campfire, in the hospital, and in the prison, and in letters to friends at home, these men discussed the issues at stake, and the results which would follow defeat or victory, with as much statesmanship and prophetic force as the representatives in Congress. Of the million volunteer soldiers, thousands were fitted by culture, ability, and character to be Presidents of the United States.

"These men gave way their lives and took with them immortal glory, and the gratitude of endless generations. They may repose in unknown graves south of the Potomac, or sleep beneath the sea, and yet their is a deathless fame. Poetry and eloquence have immortalized their memories and keep ever bright the recollection of their heroic deeds. They belong to the Grand Army of the Republic, who, though they died before the cause had triumphed, yet their blood and sacrifice inspired those following to victory.

Roosevelt's Trip Abroad. "We, as a people, have been profoundly stirred during the past few months by the wonderful receptions which have been accorded in other lands to our fellow-citizen and former president, Theodore Roosevelt. No such greeting has ever been given to a visitor however high his position as a ruler among his own people and none such ever dreamed of for one who, having retired from office, is in private station in his own country. The cordiality extended to Colonel Roosevelt by emperors and kings and queens has been excelled in the enthusiasm and affection of their peoples.

"Every journal in every country is asking: 'Why this demonstration?' The answer is because there was an awakening of the world to the United States and to the possibilities of American liberty in the civil war. The boldness of the conception and the success of the execution of the plan and purpose of Roosevelt while President in bringing about peace between Russia and Japan captured the imagination of the world.

"His remarkable personality became a familiar figure in every household. When he appeared among them, he embodied and represented, as no one ever had before, the aspirations of the common people for the freedom and the distinction and glory of the people of the United States.

Washington and Lincoln. "The revolution of 1776 and the movement to suppress the rebellion of 1861, in their spirit and purpose stand together today, and with choicest garlands we wreath the forms and enshrine the monuments of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. The one, with a majesty of character unequalled in the annals of the race, was father of his country, and left to it the wisest utterances which ever came from an unimpaired pen—the farewell address for its guidance and its preservation.

"The other, in his administration, in his spirit, and in his death, left to us the devotion and sacrifices which preserved all that the first had founded. "With malice toward none and charity for all let those who fought to maintain those who fought to destroy, each seeing that the preservation of this Union is the common glory, the common benefit, and the common heritage of both, in the spirit of Washington, the founder, and of Lincoln, the preserver, pass our institutions in all their beneficent grandeur and beauty to those who come after us."

America was sung by the choir and assembly, accompanied by the Soldiers' Home Band. Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Edward Southgate, chaplain of the Soldiers' Home. The ceremonies ended with the sounding of "taps" by the entire band. This was arranged by Prof. Zimmerman, director of the band. The procession marched to the Scott building and at 1:30 o'clock the exercises concluded with the ceremony of raising and saluting the flag.

TURNVEREIN HONORS MEMORY OF HEROES

Plans Considered At Meeting for Clubhouse Costing $25,000.

Members of the Columbia Turnverein today honored their dead who fell during the civil war and lie buried at Prospect Hill Cemetery. The members left their hall at 9:30 o'clock to decorate the graves of the veterans of the Eighth Battalion, who were members of the Turnverein.

The plans announced for the day included a meeting of the society this afternoon and a banquet, with the following speakers: Prof. A. W. Spankhoof, the president of the Verein; Representative Bartholdt of Missouri; Representative Gustav Kuestermann of Wisconsin; William F. Gude, Rudolph De Zapp, and Fred E. Mann. Representative Bartholdt, honorary president of the society, will present life-membership certificates to William Brodt, sr., John Windolph, August H. P. Gude, Adolphus Gude, Henry Aechterkirchen, Andrew Loeffler, John Hanson, and Henry C. Frothingham. A section of the Marine Band will furnish music, and the committee in charge consists of A. G. Reever, E. F. Juergensen, and George Fink.

At a meeting at the turnverein yesterday plans were submitted and discussed for the new clubhouse, which will cost $25,000. The expense will be defrayed by voluntary contributions from the members. A resolution favoring a safe and sane Fourth was passed unanimously.

ENGINEERING CODE TO BE CONSIDERED

Convention of Pennsylvania Society to Be Held In Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 29.—A code governing the practice of engineering in Pennsylvania will be considered this afternoon at the session of the convention of the Pennsylvania engineers, in this city, beginning Wednesday, June 1, and continuing through the remainder of the week.

The convention is held here under the auspices of the Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania, which has headquarters in this city, for the furtherance of the organization of the engineers of the State.

The question of a code to govern the engineers' practice will be taken up early in the session. At the convention a year ago a committee on a code was appointed, consisting of three members from each of the large engineering organizations of the State, and it will submit its report and recommendations for discussion.

The program begins Wednesday with the opening of a large manufacturers' exhibit by E. S. Mather, mayor of Harrisburg. The convention will be called to order an hour later in the hall of the house of representatives, at the Capitol, with an address by Chairman Jackson, and in the afternoon the governor, Edw. S. Stanger, will address the hundreds of engineers that will be present.

Saturday an excursion by special Pennsylvania railroad train will be run to the Pennsylvania Water and Power Company's 125,000-horsepower hydroelectric plant, at McCalls Ferry, on the Susquehanna river.

The engineering exhibit will be unusually interesting. Among the exhibits will be one of the powerful electric locomotives that the Pennsylvania railroad will use in its New York tunnel system.

ALEXANDRIA HONORS MEMORY OF HEROES

G. A. R. Veterans Attend Exercises Held At National Cemetery.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., MAY 29. Memorial Day was observed at the National Cemetery, in Alexandria, this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The exercises were attended by a detachment of the Grand Army of the Republic veterans and the Alexandria Light Infantry. The Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, delivered the address, and W. F. Graves read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The music was furnished by Miss Blanche Rotchford, and the exercises brought to a close with the sounding of taps by Miss Dora Varney.

This evening the Alexandria Light Infantry, under command of Capt. F. L. Slaymaker, will fire three volleys over the graves of the veterans.

The funeral of Samuel Lyles was held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas L. Rishell, in South Washington street, this morning. The Rev. H. M. Canter, of the Washington Street Southern Methodist Church, conducted the funeral services, and the burial was in the Union Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Tibbs MacVeigh will be held at her home, 602 Queen street, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. W. J. Morton, of Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, will conduct the funeral services, and the burial will be in Christ Church Cemetery.

Edgar Warfield, sr., who has been ill at his home with pneumonia, is able to be out again.

A coroner's jury in Alexandria county yesterday evening returned a verdict that John Lyons, colored, was responsible for the death of Daise Blue, the colored man who, as reported in the Sunday Evening Edition of The Washington Times, was shot and killed at Arlington early Sunday morning. The jury was composed of T. Frank Dennis, foreman; Robert Horstman, Henry De Albert, T. R. Stoneburner, J. E. McFadden, and J. F. Siegel.

The delegations from Belle Haven and James W. Jackson Councils, Junior O. U. A. M., today visited the city cemetery and placed flags on the graves of the deceased members of the order.

LATEST INNOVATION IN REDUCTION SALES

Everything In One Department At One Price Is the Keynote.

"Bookkeeping reduced to the metric system."
"Salesmanship made automatic."
"One price to all and everything at one price."
These might be some of the mottoes hung up in connection with the latest innovation among Washington stores and reduction sales.

Everything in one department at one price is the keynote of a sale which S. Kama Sons & Co. will begin tomorrow to continue throughout the week.

Among the offerings will be all-wool tailored suits, tailored coat suits of Russian linen, one-piece dresses of all-silk potpourri, and men-tailored coat suits of striped Panama.

TEN-DOLLAR BILL SWALLOWED BY DOG

LOGANSPORT, Ind., May 29.—Because his bull terrier swallowed a ten-dollar bill which was dropped by a local man in a cafe here, Chris Pantton, who runs a tailoring establishment in this city, is threatened with a law suit. The man has made a demand on Pantton for $10 in place of the one which the dog destroyed and the tailor has refused. However, he offered to give the owner of the $10 the dog, but this was refused.

The man says if he doesn't receive $10 he will sue and Pantton says that he can have the dog, but that he will hot give up a "ten spot."

DRYDOCK'S VALVES FOUND UNOPENED

Conspirators Against United States Held Responsible for Sinking Dewey.

MANILA, May 29.—The floating drydock Dewey was sunk at her berth in Subig bay by conspirators against the United States, according to a report current here as to the partial results of the investigation into her submergence.

The valves were found to have been unopened, but it is believed a big hole will be found when the dock is completely raised.

Had all the valves been opened the drydock could not have sunk as quickly as she did.

Considerable comment has been aroused by the fact that a number of Japanese have been employed around the dock.

WEDDINGS AT HOME CALLED TOO GLOOMY

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 29.—"Home weddings are too much like funerals, so we ran away to Cincinnati to get married," is the reason Charles F. Garten, thirty-two, professor in the Jackson, Ohio Business College, gives for the ceremony performed in Cincinnati which made him and Miss Maggie M. Martin, twenty-one, one. The bride's home is in Kriee, W. Va., where her wealthy parents reside. They arrived in Cincinnati last night, and were married at the home of the Rev. Gervaise Roughten.

CARY HOME FOR BLIND.

CINCINNATI, May 29.—It has been announced that William Cooper Procter, of this city, has presented a large sum of money to the home for the blind, at Cleveland, Ohio. An additional house will be erected with the money. The Cleveland building is the old home of Alice and Phoebe Cary. It is said the gift will exceed $50,000.

ELEPHANT TAKES ENGAGEMENT RING

Now Chappaqua Girl Wonders How She Will Explain to Fiance.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Miss Elizabeth Morell of Chappaqua, N. Y., cannot understand how the biggest elephant in the New York Zoological Gardens, with his wise-looking eyes and sensitive trunk, could mistake her diamond engagement ring for a peanut.

Perhaps the elephant did not make a mistake, but merely wanted a change of diet. At any rate, the elephant has the ring tucked away somewhere inside, and Miss Morell is wondering how she will ever explain the tragedy to the Chappaqua young man, who paid $150 for it.

Miss Morell is fond of elephants, or, rather, she was fond of them until yesterday. They have no zoo in Chappaqua, and when Miss Morell comes to New York she spends some of her time in the Bronx, in front of the elephant pens.

She went there yesterday afternoon and began feeding them peanuts by the proverbial peck. Then a greedy old jascal of an elephant snatched a handful of peanuts in the young woman's sparkling token of engagement.

WOMEN TO HELP SISTERS IN SLAVERY

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 29.—Prominent society women will visit and try to convert the women inmates of the "red light" district in the crusade against white slavery in the investigation being carried on in this city.

This was the declaration of Dr. Robert Watson, of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, today. Dr. Watson, president of the organization, recently formed to fight the traffic, said today:

"I have just returned from Atlanta, and so far as I can see we have already secured some definite information. Dr. Watson stated that the financing of the campaign would be taken up Monday morning by a committee of fifteen wealthy men of the city."

She went there yesterday afternoon and began feeding them peanuts by the proverbial peck. Then a greedy old jascal of an elephant snatched a handful of peanuts in the young woman's sparkling token of engagement.

WESTERN COAL MEN READY FOR MERGER

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 29.—After having been under consideration for a year, and after the plans have been worked out satisfactory to all concerned, the organization of the coal men of Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana will be effected in this city tomorrow.

It will be a merger of the present Ohio Coal Dealers' Association, with the old Indiana Michigan Coal Dealers' Association. Toledo will undoubtedly be selected as the headquarters of the new organization.

The merger, which has been approved by the executive boards of the two associations, will be ratified at a convention of the coal dealers of the three States, but the promoter believes that its advantages will attract the greater portion of those who are not now affiliated.

CONSTITIATION MUNYON'S PAW-PAW PILLS

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They do not grip; they do not weaken; but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that expels these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. In my opinion constipation is responsible for most ailments. There are thirty-two feet of human bowels which is really a sewer pipe. When this pipe becomes clogged, the whole system becomes poisoned, causing biliousness, indigestion and impaired blood, which in turn produces rheum stism and kidney ailments. No woman who suffers with constipation or any liver complaint can expect to have a clear complexion, or enjoy good health.

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weakening; they enrich the blood instead of impoverishing it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that it put into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physic. Price 25 cents.
