THE SHOOTING OF MAYOR GAYNOR OF NEW YORK.

News of the shooting of Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York has shocked the whole country.

Some hope is held out for the recovery of Mayor Gaynor, though the nature of the wound is such that the chances at best are against him.

TRIUMPHANT VICTORY FOR PIE AND PIE-EATING.

The pie has added another triumph to its long list of victories.

Things looked black for Roesch, but the Navy Department consulted the authorities and held that Roesch had not been guilty of hazing.

SITUATION IN SPAIN LOOKS THREATENING.

Latest advices from Spain have an ugly look. They portend nothing less than civil war.

On a broad campaign "in defense of Catholicism" and will use all efforts to spread the propaganda through Spain.

The authorities are suspicious that the Catholics and Carlists are working hand in hand.

On the whole, conditions are such in both Spain and Portugal that both nations can easily be set aflame and Spain in particular plunged into a deadly civil conflict.

CONSOLATION IN THE LATEST CROP REPORT.

The latest government crop report, when carefully studied, is calculated to chase away pessimism.

This means that the railroads of the country have before them a greater freight tonnage from the moving of crops than they had last year.

As an illustration of the spread of the commission form of government, the city of Birmingham, Ala., is taking steps to adopt it.

Colonel Roosevelt may be out of politics, but naturally lays himself open to some suspicion when he talks of the vote in Georgia.

That story from Hagerstown about the grasshoppers stopping the cars seems to call for the intervention of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The experience of "Big Bill" Edwards with Gallagher, the man who shot Mayor Gaynor, demonstrates conclusively the value of football training.

MEN EXPECTED TO VISIT NEWPORT

Sandy Spring's Resources and Desires.

Maryland village enjoys wealth derived from Quaker thrift.

Farmers have kept soil fertile by individual conservation.

Bank deposits index industry of community.

Village seeks railroad or electric line service.

People are dependent on ten-mile stage line.

Town is weary of late mails and turnpike freight.

People would be content with electric line that would haul freight.

Discussion of projects give hope of overcoming isolation.

Another project, interesting to Sandy Spring, is that an extension of the Kensington electric road through to this town.

Among the substantial citizens here who will encourage such a movement are: Mrs. Elizabeth Rose, Mrs. Moore, Allan Farquhar, Joseph T. Moore, Allan G. Thomas, Charles F. Moore, John C. Bentley, John Thomas, Frank J. Downey, C. W. Brown, H. H. Miller, R. D. Palmer, A. P. Frazier, according to present plans, will be consummated.

When the railroad comes, and Washington is doing the same thing.

Sandy Spring people promise to do their part toward securing a railroad.

There are said to be more than 200 families of this type in the Sandy Spring section, and all of them are Washington's neighbors.

Patronize Washington.

Since its organization the insurance company has had two treasurers.

Many Fine Homes.

A few hundred yards beyond the village stands the old Quaker meeting house.

Want a Railroad.

"Tell the people of Washington that we want a railroad. We want to be in closer touch with the National Capital and the great country beyond it."

BABIES' LIVES SAVED BY NEW TREATMENT

Ravages of Infantile Paralysis in Burlington, New Jersey, Is Halted.

tematic blood treatment are the new method of four of the five cases in Burlington.

Miss Balz and Dr. Mulford are in charge of four of the five cases in Burlington.

"I really don't know what to say," she said to a representative of The Washington Times.

"I did not know that all this publicity was to be given to the treatment which we are using. Really, I didn't."

Again Learning To Walk.

Dr. Mulford was found at the home of one of his patients.

"Some of the neighbors had been put into a panic because they had seen the child's legs," said Mrs. Johnson.

"We are going to bring him around without braces."

With modesty becoming the professional ethics in the case, Dr. Mulford declared that he and Miss Balz had demonstrated that massage is of the greatest benefit in the treatment of infantile paralysis.

Electric Bath Used.

Dr. Mulford declared that no particular form of the massage treatment is used.

Burlington, which feared a general epidemic of the strange disease, has taken on fresh hope.

Mr. and Mrs. John Alden are spending the summer at Albany Park.

LOOK at the clothes of those two clerks," said the Business Doctor.

"One of them is dressed like he was going to the circus, and the other is dressed like he was going to a job."

"The clerk who expects to get along in the business world cannot afford to save money by wearing old or cheap clothes."

"The thing that is most needed in the business world is sure to happen."

A few years ago in Chicago, seven large banks were merged into one.

"Did you ever pause to wonder what your clothes make you appear?"

"You may think these are trifles for devotees of fashion to quibble over, but they are laws as well recognized by a large majority of the public."

Advertising is like trying to kiss a girl in a hammock.

Business, after all, is a very human institution.

Methods Successfully Used to Check Disease

Deadly ravages of infantile paralysis stopped in Burlington, N. J.

Miss Lillian Balz, nurse, and Dr. E. R. Mulford, general practitioner, discover efficacy of massage and blood tonic.

Methods applied to four out of the five cases of disease in Burlington; these four babies are on the way to recovery.

Dr. Mulford directs that—Massaging be not attempted until the legs of the afflicted child are free from pain.

Means of checking threatened epidemic will be brought to attention of New Jersey Medical Society.

soon as the subject of her success was mentioned.

The manner, in which the disease has attacked its victims here is just as in Washington.

Burlington physicians will bring the new manner of treatment to the attention of the New Jersey medical society.
