

WRIT FOR CRIPPEN BROUGHT TO QUEBEC

English Police Officer Muz- zled by Inspector Dew Upon Arrival.

QUEBEC, Que., Aug. 14.—The C. P. R. steamer Lake Manitoba, which arrived at 6 o'clock this morning, brought Inspector Sergeant Mitchell and the two wardresses from Holloway jail, who will take back Dr. Crrippen and Miss Leneve.

Inspector Dew met them at Father Point. When The Times' representative asked Mitchell, who is young and good looking, for a statement, Dew interrupted with:

"Mr. Mitchell is under my orders, and I have forbidden him to say a word."

Mitchell smiled cynically at this. The two wardresses are tall, good-looking women, between twenty-five and thirty years of age, and became popular among the passengers with whom they made friends.

Mitchell will present his papers to Judge Panet Anvers tomorrow, and after midnight Monday he will be enabled to remove the prisoners from the jail. Dew absolutely refused to say when they will sail.

Crippen and Miss Leneve both attended church in prison today. The doctor attended the Catholic service, and she worshipped with the Protestants. Although neither talks much, they seem to be glad that the time is drawing near for them to go back to England.

Several letters of sympathy addressed to Miss Leneve have been received by the warden of the prison, but he has not communicated them to her. They are nearly all from the United States. Most of them are unsigned, as they are all from women.

breakers in the employ of the Columbus Railway and Light Company, and not by the strikers or their sympathizers.

Despite the presence of two policemen on practically every car, people today seemed afraid to ride, and hundreds of persons, who dared venture on the streets, walked to church. Uncertain car service exists. Persons are not patronizing the cars, last night's violence making them afraid.

Twenty-five arrests were made last night, but the police do not seem able to check the mob spirit.

All is practically calm today, but further rioting and bloodshed is looked for after sundown, as the strikers and their sympathizers are impatient over the delay in reaching a settlement, and the action of Mayor Marshall in calling upon citizens to do police duty.

Violence has been increasing daily since the withdrawal of the 3,000 troops a week ago. The mutiny among the police has also increased in the meantime.

It is believed that the only thing to restore law and order will be the return of the troops.

May Call Troops Again.

Troops may be called out again by the governor before night.

Fifty-three members of the police department within twenty-four hours have rebelled against the orders of Mayor Marshall to ride on street cars, twenty of them being employed to perform strike duty. The twenty specials, unlike the thirty-three regulars, however, were told that they were removed from the service.

STRIKE IS STARTED ON COUNTRY LINES

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Aug. 14.—The carmen on the Columbus-Dayton division of the Ohio electric line went on strike at 2:30 this morning.

At midnight the employees of the company located Vice President Lina Stevens, of the Ohio electric lines, and gave him an ultimatum that unless he reinstated the men discharged recently they would walk out.

LOVES A STAGE BEAUTY, SO WEDS ON 'BIG BLUFF'

Philadelphia Youth Jailed by Bride Whom He Wins by Saying He Is a Physician With a Large Income.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—Invited into marrying a stage door "Johnny" whom she believed to be a young physician with an income aside from a lucrative practice, Anille Denham, who appeared at Keith's Theater two months ago, looked upon her husband, Sydney Klein, an English youth, in Magistrate Scott's court this morning with a mingled feeling of scorn and contempt.

She did not have this feeling for him, because she had been duped into her marriage, for, as she told the magistrate, she wed Klein not for money, but because she loved him. His love, however, for the little dancer grew cold after two brief months, and he deserted her, leaving an unpaid hotel bill, for which the proprietor held her trunks.

Gave Bad Checks.

Klein's disappearance from the hotel in Girard avenue, in which they resided, happened at the same time several checks he had given out were returned marked "No account."

Detectives Doyle and Sullivan were sent out to find Klein, and located him in a boarding house in North Ninth street. He was arrested on several charges, including desertion and non-support and passing worthless checks.

Mrs. Klein appeared in police court this morning accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Denham, of England, who had come to America in response to a cablegram which their daughter sent them upon her marriage to Klein, asking them to come and live with her.

"I was introduced to Klein," she said, "the first night that we were at Keith's. He asked me, if I would go out for a little supper after the show. We went to a cafe, and it was awfully pleasant, and he asked if he might see me the next evening."

Says She Loved Him.

"I saw him every day and as our engagement was drawing to a close he asked me to marry him. I told him that when I left the stage and married it would have to be some one who could take care of me, as I did not intend to go back on the stage after I was wed."

"That's all right, girlie," he said. "I'm a practicing physician and also have an income from an estate, so that I don't have to worry about money. I never cared much for the stage, and, as he was such a likable chap, I told him that I would marry him right away. We did, and went to live in a hotel on Girard avenue."

The day after we were married I learned that he was never a physician, and I asked him about it.

"I was just stringing you, kid," he replied. "I'm not a doctor, and I haven't any income. In fact, I've got about $10 and that's all I've got in the world. But I liked you and I wanted to marry you, so I put over a big bluff."

"Well I was some taken aback, but I

NEW YORK POLICE MUST OBEY LAW

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Orders that the police of New York shall themselves obey the law, as well as enforce it, is the keynote of a letter written by Acting Mayor John Purroy Mitchell to Police Commissioner Baker.

The letter from the Republican president of the Board of Aldermen is in exact keeping with the previous orders of Mayor Gaynor, himself a Democrat.

The acting mayor directs the police to be neutral in the present strike of the 99,999 garment makers, ordering that the strikers be given all the liberty allowed them by the law, and that they shall not be molested without cause.

wrought in the cities and towns of the Honda lowlands. From Takasaki and Karaiswa on the north, bordering the swollen river Tonegawa, to Shidzuoka on the south, the sea has reached out and claimed the land, destroying lives, wiping out homes, and impoverishing the peasantry.

The total number of dead cannot be obtained until communication with the interior is restored.

The most conservative estimate is 2,000. Of these a few Europeans are said to have perished. Rain continues to fall in torrents.

The latest reports today were that the inhabitants of Karaiswa, the leading summer resort patronized by

DENTIST A BOLD KISSER COMELY WOMAN SWEARS

BALTIMORE, Aug. 14.—"I went to his office to have my teeth fixed, judge, and, would you believe it, he hugged and kissed me."

Mrs. Wilhelmina Loney, a comely young matron of about twenty-eight, stood before the rail of justice at the Western police station today and filed this bitter accusation against Dr. Walter R. Merriam, aged thirty-four, a dentist, residing at 65 Columbia avenue. Everybody concerned was indignant.

At Mrs. Loney's side stood her husband, fully as indignant as she. At Dr. Merriam's side stood his wife, fully as indignant as he.

"It happened on July 28," said the indignant Mrs. Loney. I went to have my teeth fixed. The doctor did some fixing and then called me 'sweetheart.' Then he kissed me. I pushed him away, but he caught me about the waist and hugged and kissed me again. My hair got all mussed up and I started to scream, but he told me I would alarm the neighborhood, and so I didn't, for I didn't want to make a rumpus.

"He told me if my teeth hurt me to come back in two days. I wanted my mother to go with me, but she was sick, so I had to go back alone. On this visit he kissed me again. I told him that his wife would hear him, but he said his wife was down town.

"I told my husband about it, and he got real mad. He wanted me to have the doctor arrested, but I didn't want the notoriety and he put to all the trouble. But my husband worried about it until I was afraid he would get sick. He said every time he passed that doctor's house he had a hard time to keep himself from doing something desperate. So at last to satisfy him and relieve his mind I got him the warrant."

Dr. Merriam, however indignantly denied the accusation of Mrs. Loney. He said he had not laid hands on her except in the necessary performance of the various offices consequent upon the fixing of her teeth. He said that while he was attending to the teeth of his patient his wife was in the room.

Mrs. Merriam indignantly denied that her husband must have loved to Mrs. Loney. She said that she was in the room while the teeth fixing process was in progress.

Justice Loden released the doctor on his recognizance for court.
