H. W. Johnson Is Nominated for Governor, With Increasing Plurality.

GENERAL PRIMARY FIRST IN THE STATE

Two Insurgent Republicans Are Named for Congress, After Bitter Campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—Hiram W. Johnson, insurgent, nominated by the Republicans for governor.

Two insurgent Republicans nominated for Congress.

John D. Works probably endorsed by Republicans for United States senator.

Theodore A. Bell nominated for governor by Democrats.

This is the general result of the first State-wide primaries in California's history, marking one of the most sweeping victories for insurgency in its brief existence.

Opponents Weak.

Johnson's strength was greatest in the northern and central counties.

Everywhere the voters appear to have rallied to Johnson's support.

Work of Pinchot.

This is the district in which Gifford Pinchot campaigned for insurgency.

Not only has Johnson been nominated, but he has also probably carried to victory the entire insurgent State ticket.

PROUD WOMAN STARVES RATHER THAN BEG FOOD

Falls Unconscious in Street After Being Three Days Without a Meal—Tells Story of Cruel Husband and Her Misery.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Too weak from hunger to work, too proud to beg, Mrs. Katie Roberts, twenty-two, wandered the streets of New York for three days without a morsel of food.

Early today she staggered and fell unconscious at the Washington Heights Hospital, where she is being treated, the physicians say she may live.

The little woman bears every mark of refinement, and her hands are cut and bleeding from scrubbing floors, to which she was not used.

"I left my husband because he was brutal to me," she gasped. "I tried to get work—any kind. I scrubbed floors. I did odd jobs of housecleaning."

"Yesterday I stood outside the Polo Grounds and saw men and women come out and ride away in their automobiles, to supper parties. I hadn't the heart to ask them for money. "I just starved."

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Dr. H. H. POOR CLERK FINDS $50,000 IN BEDPOST

Sick Man Accidentally Opens Cavity Uncle Used as Bank.

WAVERLY, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Edward Powers, a poor young dry goods clerk of this hamlet, had the unique experience of finding a fortune of $50,000 while trying to arise from his bed, to which he had been confined for some weeks.

This fortune, which was composed mainly of stocks and bonds, had been hidden away by Powers' eccentric uncle, Willard Martin, and when the uncle died ten years ago, his nephew searched in vain for the hiding place.

He took hold of the old-fashioned bedpost, when suddenly his fingers slipped into a secret cavity that his crafty uncle had built into it. Powers called his sister, Helen, with whom he occupied the house, and she found the fortune.

As soon as Powers is strong enough a trip around the world will be undertaken by the pair.
