

FOUR THOUSAND IN BALDWIN ENGINE WORKS ON STRIKE

Largest Locomotive Plant In World Faces Complete Tie-Up.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—More than 4,000 men, including 2,300 boiler-makers, and their entire force in the engine and tank departments, laid down their tools today at the Baldwin Locomotive Works and went out on strike.

Hourly additions are being made to the ranks of the strikers, and the officials of the largest locomotive building plant in the world are facing a probable complete tie-up within the next twenty-four hours.

Sympathetic Strike of Hundreds of Workers in Eddystone Plant

CHESTER, Pa., June 8.—Between 400 and 500 men employed in the erecting and boiler shops at the Eddystone plant of the Baldwin Locomotive Works went out today on sympathetic strike.

HAVANA, June 8.—President Gomez has bought a large site on the Prado upon which he will build a big house in which he will live with his married and single children when he retires from the Presidency.

GRAND JURY INDICTS NINE HUSBANDS FOR ABANDONING WIVES

Patent Attorney Among Those Charged With Non-support.

An epidemic of wife abandonment prevalent in Washington is evidenced today by the return of nine indictments charging that crime against as many husbands by the District grand jury.

Arthur W. Harrison, a patent attorney at Providence, R. I., is among those indicted for alleged non-support of his wife and children. Mrs. Mary F. Harrison, 828 Twelfth street, is the complainant against Harrison. She says they were married in Washington by the Rev. Van Schaick, July 11, 1901, and that she secured a limited divorce in March, 1909, with $40 monthly alimony.

CHARITIES WORKERS LARGE REFORMS IN PUNISHING CRIME

Rational Treatment of Law-breakers Advocated at Boston Meeting.

BOSTON, June 8.—Rational treatment of criminals was pleaded in addresses made today before the National Conference of Charities and Corrections by men prominent as authorities on penal problems. Among these were the Rev. Frank Moore, superintendent of the Rahway, N. J., reformatory; Dr. William Healy, director of the Juvenile Psychopathic Institute, of Chicago, and Ernest C. Coulter, clerk of the children's court, New York.

The meeting was opened in Tremont Temple last night by Governor Foss. Addresses were made by Dr. Charles W. Eliot, whose subject was the suppression of moral delinquency; Orlando F. Lewis, secretary New York Prison Association, and Frederick Howard Winslow, Illinois. Dr. Eliot pleaded strongly for more prison instruction, incessant war on the resorts of the vicious, and eternal vigilance to prevent the propagation of their kind by the morally defective.

Co-Ed Aged Eighty.

MADISON, Wis., June 8.—Eighty years is the age of a co-ed at the Ohio State University, Mrs. A. D. Winship, of Racine. She is completing her second year in the arts school, and will return to college next fall.
