

TENTATIVE PLAN OF LIQUOR CONTROL IS TOPIC OF OFFICIALS

Transfer to Municipal Judges With Life Tenure Is Approved.

Much interest attaches to the personnel of the new Excise Board. If the transfer of duties were to be made immediately, the control of the liquor traffic in the District would rest in the hands of Judge Alexander R. Mallowney and Judge James L. Pugh, of the Police Court, and Judge William H. De Lacy, of the Juvenile Court.

Congressional action is necessary for such a change, however, and before this can be obtained the term of one of the Police Court judges will have expired. Under the present system the judges of the Police and Juvenile Courts are appointed for a term of six years, the appointments being made by the President. The term of Judge Mallowney will end December 12 and that of Judge De Lacy June 30. Judge Pugh was appointed March 30, 1910, and has nearly five years to serve.

The prevailing opinion among attorneys and officials of the Police Court is that Judge Mallowney will be reappointed.

"Speaking broadly, the transfer of the duties of the Excise Board to a judicial body is to be commended," said Judge De Lacy today. "In a number of States the excise matters are under the control of the judges and the system has worked well."

Giving a new board a life tenure of office is a feature of the bill approved generally by the District officials.

Provision will be made under the new law for a clerk to the Excise Board. If the influence of the Commission prevails, Roger Williams, the present incumbent, will be appointed. Commissioner Rudolph referred to Mr. Williams today in the highest terms, praising him as a faithful, efficient and capable official.

MIGHTY HUNTERS IN DANGER OF CLASH

Duel of Words or Something Worse If Oyster Meets Judson.

When Commissioner W. V. Judson, armed with a gun, meets Capt. James F. Oyster, with a gun and a chip on his shoulder? what will happen?

Will there be a duel of words or worse? Will the two eye each other coldly and pass by with their respective dogs, unseeing or will they sit down on adjacent stumps and argue it out.

Friends of the Commissioner and the head of the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Education will be worried until this pair returns from a hunting expedition through the same territory in Virginia. They are not exactly afraid of either, but it is feared that the captain's aim and steadiness of nerve might be spoiled for a whole day if he should encounter the major in such advantageous circumstances and could not shoot.

They are drawing mental pictures of these portly gentlemen, clad in hunting dogs, arguing certain school matters and civic improvements to a frazzle and a finish in some lone spot without any parliamentary restraint. And they fear the outcome.

Commissioner Judson went directly to the country place of Surveyor Hazen, Captain Oyster's gongs and the company he is in are shrouded by deepest mystery. He said he borrowed the dogs from a friend and wouldn't tell whom he was going with.

His plans are rather undefined, being merely to skirt along the Rappahannock river, and perhaps tramp through Rapidan county. All of which is dangerously near Nokesville.

Municipal Architect Snowden Ashford is not a member of either party. If he and friends of the captain would organize a rescue expedition at once to prevent a scene of carnage on the Rappahannock battleground.

Mrs. Danenhower Passes Eighty-Eighth Birthday

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Danenhower, surrounded by her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, is quietly celebrating her eighty-eighth birthday today at her apartments in the Melwood, 1717 U street northwest.

Born in Philadelphia in 1823, this active, venerable old gentleman, who still retains her active mind, and her interest in the affairs of the world about her, is today receiving congratulations from numerous friends on the attainment of a far beyond the scriptural allotment.

At the age of seventeen years Mrs. Danenhower was married to William W. Danenhower, for many years the Danenhowers lived in the old chain building, now the Fredonia Hotel, later removing to Twelfth and G streets northwest, where they lived many more years. The favorite game of Mrs. Danenhower, and one she plays by the hour, is the old-fashioned backgammon. She is no fad and says she intends to live a simple, happy life until the end.

No Trace of Robbers Obtained by Police

WORK WROUGHT BY MOUNTAIN CHILDREN ON EXHIBITION HERE

Their Handiwork Being Shown on Third Floor of New Southern Building.

Education of children of poor Southern mountaineers, isolated and almost neglected in their native hills, is being illustrated in an exhibition of the children's handiwork opened this afternoon on the third floor of the new Southern Building.

The Southern Industrial Education Association, which has headquarters here, is holding an exhibition and bazaar to show what work is being done among the children and to sell the articles made by them.

Weaving, embroidery, basketry and manual training products comprise the exhibit, which is considered artistic and splendidly executed.

Five rooms, donated and equipped by the Southern Building Company, are used for the exhibit, which opened at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and which will remain open until 10 o'clock tonight. Ice cream, cake, home-made candy and other refreshments will be sold. Tonight there will be music and dancing.

Mrs. Martha S. Glew, founder and manager of the Southern Industrial Education Association, is in charge of the exhibit. Assisting her are Mrs. Lee Robinson, Mrs. Daniel White, Mrs. Augusta Stone and young women members of the Junior auxiliary.

Prominent among the exhibits is that from the Page School, at Beaver Dam, Va., endowed by Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, which is showing some beautiful embroidery and lingerie work.

Boys of the Christ School of Industries, at Arden, N. C., are exhibiting Galax and mission furniture, hand-carved, and other industrial work. The Alstead School, of Asheville, N. C., and the Florsie Industries, of Knott county, Kentucky, are other exhibitors.

Accused of Disorderly Conduct—Body of Unidentified Man Buried.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Nov. 7.—On charges of disorderly conduct at Sandy Spring, Marion Thomas, Archie Bellows, Beverly Hackett and Harrison Hackett, all colored boys, are in jail awaiting trial. They will be arraigned before Judge Reading in the police court tomorrow. On similar charges, Caleb Pumphrey, Caleb Boston, and Garfield Dorsey colored, will also be tried by Judge Reading tomorrow.

Judge Edward C. Peter has drawn the following as jurors for the November term of the circuit court, which meets next Monday: Timothy Caton, William V. Dove, J. Herbert Clessel, and Charles M. Clark.

Andrew J. Moran, aged seventy-nine years, died at the home of his nephew, William Gray, near Coleville. He was unmarried, and had lived in this county all his life. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the Methodist Church at Coleville.

The body of the unidentified white man, which was found in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, near Cabin John Bridge, last Saturday evening, was taken to a Rockville undertaker, and was yesterday afternoon buried in the almshouse cemetery.

Many Shippers Ask Refund From Roads

With thirteen complaining shippers demanding refunds, ranging from $24 to $341.32, from various railroads, the Interstate Commerce Commission's complaint docket today resembled the records of a freight claim agent. The Standard Oil Company alleging an overcharge by the Pennsylvania railroad and its connection on shipments of steel tanks from Leetsdale, Pa., to Superior, Wis. filed one of the largest claims.

ARCHITECTS' CLUB TO ARGUE QUESTION OF QUITTING LEAGUE

Lively Debate Predicted When Proposal Comes Up at Meeting Tonight.

The outlook is excellent for a lively debate tonight at the regular meeting of the Washington Architectural Club at its rooms, 1517 H street northwest. The question of withdrawal from the American Architectural League will come before the business meeting, which will precede a speaker.

The American Institute of Architects and the American Architectural League are both planning a series of educational lectures throughout the country, and many members of the Washington Architectural Club who are also members of the local chapter of the American Institute prefer that their support shall be given to the institute rather than to the league.

But the league will not be without its supporters, it is declared, and there will be a division when the vote comes.

Chairman Harding heads a committee which is to report on the proposed plans of standardization of Government buildings throughout the country.

Great divergence of opinion exists among the architects the country over as to the desirability of the plan, and this divergence of opinion exists also among the members of the Washington Architectural Club and is sure to be brought forth on the floor when Mr. Harding's committee makes its report.

Members of the club have been especially urged to attend tonight's meeting by President Leisenring and Secretary Blakeslee.

MOST CERTAIN WAY TO END A SEVERE COLD

Surely Breaks the Most Stubborn Cold and Ends Grip Misery in Just a Few Hours.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

You distinctly feel the cold breaking up and the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving after the very first dose. It promptly ends the most miserable headache, dizziness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe. Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 2-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.
