tion of what he did with the $1,100 known to be missing from the Szabo estate.

Much Expert Testimony.

The opening address of the defense was given in the afternoon by Charles Goldstar, associate counsel with Elder Goldstar.

The trial yesterday was marked with dramatic incidents. The most striking of the body when it was placed in the Ferncliffe bathhouse.

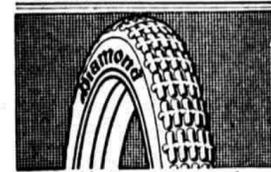

Gibson and Wife Affected.

The jury and the lawyers for the prosecution gathered around the witness as he moved the prone detective's head and arms.

WISE CONFERS WITH WICKERSHAM OVER NEW HAVEN MATTER

Department Doubts Ability Successfully to Attack Roads in Court.

Attorney General Wickersham, Assistant Attorney General Adams, and District Attorney Wise, of New York, were in conference today at the Department of Justice over the New Haven Railroad situation.

It was stated at the department that Mr. Wise had not come here primarily on account of the New Haven matter, but because he was anxious to obtain more money with which to run his office.

While the officials of the New Haven and the Grand Trunk have expressed willingness to open the books of the roads to the special agents of the department, this does not exactly touch the question of sufficient duration they leave a furnished house.
