TRACK AND TENNIS

START THIS WEEK

High Schools and Colleges Here Plunge Into Campaign With Many Games in Few Days.

GEORGETOWN PLAYS U. VA.

Blue and Gray Also Meets Harvard, While C. U. Tackles Villanova and Seton Hall.

College and School Games For the Week

Tuesday—Tech vs. Episcopal High; Eastern vs. Gonzaga; Business vs. Cardinals, at Alexandria, Va.; Western vs. Georgetown Freshmen.

Wednesday—Maryland Aggies vs. Johns Hopkins; Tech vs. Cathedral; Central vs. Georgetown Preps; Eastern vs. Gallaudet.

Thursday—Georgetown University vs. Harvard; Catholic University vs. Villanova; Tech vs. G. P. O.

Friday—Eastern vs. Business.

Saturday—Gallaudet vs. Mt. Washington; Western vs. Gilman School; Georgetown vs. Virginia, at Charlottesville; Seton Hall vs. Catholic University.

With the opening up of the high school championship baseball series this week, track and tennis will be formally ushered in during the week-end and outdoor work for the athletes is expected to be in full swing by Saturday.

Four of the high schools play on Tuesday, Tech taking on the Episcopal High School at Alexandria in the annual game. The Machinists are getting much practice during the week, having slated three games in preparation for the opening encounter with Western on April 22.

Business and Eastern, who open the high school series on Friday at the American League Park, play Tuesday, the Orange and Black taking on the Cardinals at Alexandria, and Eastern playing Gonzaga at the Rosedale playground.

Western will take on the Georgetown University freshmen, which handed Tech an awful beating last week. Some line of comparison may be drawn on the strength of Tech and Western after the freshmen are played. On Wednesday Tech tackles George Green's Cathedral School team. Cathedral has beaten Eastern in a long-drawn-out game, where many errors were recorded and Tech is looking for a win.

Central Meets Preps. Central gets action with the Georgetown Preps Wednesday, the Preps having defeated Tech by one run in a tight contest a week ago. On the same day Eastern tackles the Gallaudet team at Kendall Green. The high schools are expected to get into the regular season games this year, the Kendall Greeners proving accommodating all spring in the matter of slating games with the school boys.

Georgetown University has a big game on Thursday when Harvard comes down. The Hilltoppers are likely to find the Crimson much more advanced at this late date than either Princeton or Yale, who were met during Easter week. Dr. Frank Sexton is coaching the Harvard team this year, and the players are in excellent condition. The loss of several stars will be apparent in the Crimson nine. Sam Felton, the great football star who pitched here last spring, may again perform. Felton squared against the Red Sox in Boston this year.

Catholic University is meeting Villa Nova at Brookland on Thursday, and the Red and Black is more than anxious to even-up a football score made against them last fall. Villa Nova lined up many substitutes against Catholic University on the gridiron, but the Brooklanders say there will be something else doing on the diamond.

First School Battle. On Friday, when Business and Eastern look up in the first of the games for the inter-high school title. Colliflower has been selected to umpire the series which will be held at the American League Park, with the exception of the games.

On Saturday Gallaudet goes to Mt. Washington, outside of Baltimore, while Western travels to the Monumental City to play the Gilman Country School. The first of the Georgetown-Virginia games will be played at Charlottesville on Saturday. The Blue and Gray team taking the trip Friday morning. Coach Harley will nominate his team later in the week, presumably after the Harvard contest.

On Saturday during the Virginia-Georgetown game the University of Pennsylvania track men will tackle the Virginia runners in the annual dual meet. Pop Lanigan, the veteran trainer of the Virginia team, while not expecting a win, will make the Penn men hustle to win.

Tennis Tackle Meet. At the same time the Georgetown tennis team, led by Captain Evelyn, will tackle the United States Navy Academy racqueters at Annapolis. The tennis team at the Hilltop will be handicapped on account of the fact that rain has interfered with practice.

While the Navy is playing tennis the track men will engage in a dual meet with the Hopkins track team. Jimmy Mulligan, the Georgetown track coach has been engaged to start the meet. Georgetown was to have gone down to the University of Virginia to enter the most recent triennial, but negotiations have been called off.

Seton Hall team from Orange, N. J., and is one of the strongest schoolboy teams in the country. Two years ago Georgetown was defeated in a tough battle by the New Jersey school.

Frank A. Ruth, winner of The Times-News marathon Saturday, is likely to enter the B. A. A. classic next Saturday. He will make his final decision today. If he goes, he will leave Baltimore for Boston Thursday night, thus giving him a day to recover from his long ride. The Boston race is over the twenty-six-mile course from Ashland to the B. A. A. clubhouse in the city, and has many long grades.

Greeks Are Backing Poulos on the Mat

Many of the Greek residents of Washington are centering their hopes on clean-up a little pot of money when Jim Poulos, the Greek middleweight, goes on with Joe Turner at the Gayety next Friday night. Poulos has been in Washington for some time trying to get an engagement with the Washington boy. Turner has had so many challenges, however, that until now it has been impossible to book Poulos.

Mat Fans Await Dr. Roller's Coming

The announcement that Dr. Roller, the Seattle physician, who meets Franz Beck at the Lyceum Theater Thursday night, is to perform here has created considerable stir among wrestling fans. This is to be a final match and there seems to be no doubt but that every minute of the three falls will be fast and exciting.

Havre de Grace Track Is in Fast Condition

Edward Burke, general manager of the Harford County Racing Association, today announced that the new track at Havre de Grace, Md., which will open for a twelve days' meeting next Friday, has been made nighttime fast, and that the stake program has proved attractive to many horsemen unable to procure stable room.

Teams averaging fourteen years of age and in one of the strongest schoolboy teams in the country. Two years ago Georgetown was defeated in a tough battle by the New Jersey school.

BOB THAYER'S Sporting Gossip

"Every Knock Is a Boost."

Too many postponements. There are too many postponements this spring for the good of the game in the major leagues. Fourteen out of twenty-seven scheduled games have thus far been played, the others going over to some future date.

May come back. The Climbers are likely to have three of their 1913 crop of rookies return next year for another trial. Billy Allen, Rebel Williams, and Bill Morley, failing to break into the charmed circle this spring, look almost certain to get another chance in 1914.

Time to get busy. Amateur baseball managers are to meet tonight at Spalding's and plan for the coming campaign on the sandlots of the Capital. The season is almost at hand and it behooves the amateurs to get busy.

Manager Griffith is fortunate that he did not have to play his team at Back River park, Baltimore, yesterday. Even in good weather that field is a joke.

McCarthy vs. Flynn. Wednesday night Luther McCarthy, the white heavyweight champion, and "Firman" Jim Flynn are to meet in a six-round bout in Philadelphia.

Wolgaiz in ring. The best bout of the week is that between Ad Wolgaiz and "Harlem Tommy" Murphy in San Francisco.

Ruth may enter. Frank Ruth, the dapper little distance runner, who galloped over the mark ahead of the leg field in the Times-News marathon here Saturday, is thinking of entering the Boston marathon next Saturday.

NEW YORK OARSMEN TO ENTER PROTEST

NEW YORK, April 14.—Harlem river oarsmen will have a special meeting in the New York A. C. tonight to protest against permitting the American Rowing Association to stage the American Henley in Philadelphia on May 31. The Philadelphians at the annual meeting of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen in the New York A. C. a few weeks ago requested that May 31 be set aside for the American Henley, but after much protesting by representatives of local clubs the sanction was temporarily withheld.

Three Bouts Attract Attention of Fans. NEW YORK, April 14.—A six-round bout between Luther McCarthy and Jim Flynn scheduled for Wednesday night in Philadelphia and two twenty-round fights on the coast the present week will bring to a climax the season's fight attractions before baseball forces the ring followers to take second place in the sport of the country.

Great interest was shown here today in the McCarthy-Flynn match, although McCarthy easily whipped Ad Falzer, who previously had disposed of the "Puerto Firman."

Knockout! Brown will meet Bud Anderson in a twenty-round bout at Vernon, Cal., tomorrow. The first fight between the two boys resulted in a draw. At Daly City, near San Francisco, former Champion Ad Wolgaiz, will attempt to "come back" in a twenty-round bout with Tommy Murphy, of New York.

To Choose Officers On Wednesday Night. The annual election of officers of the Potomac Boat Club will be held Wednesday night at the clubhouse. Vice-President William C. McKimney, who has been holding down the president's duties since the retirement of Charles G. Warden, is expected to be elected president of the organization.
