BINGLES AND BUNTS
By GRANTLAND RICE.
The Closing Trail.

The old boy sticks to the job. And the old boy plays the game. He clouts one a mile when the pitch arrives. As he whirls to the mad acclaim. But the old boy's wise to the kink. He knows where the answer's set. When he misses one by a foot or two That a kid on the bench could get.

Bob Thayer's Sporting Gossip
"EVERY KNOCK IS A BOOST."

Naps are bumped. The confident Napslanders bumped right up against it the first day. They discovered right at the start that the Mackmen have the best team in the circuit. Trimming the Yankees and the bettered world's champions is easier work than walloping the Athletics. Instead, the latter like to engage in the walloping business themselves. The Naps know it now.

Cross Will Meet Rivers Labor Day
To Go Twenty Rounds on Holiday at Promoter McCarey's Vernon Arena.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—Leach Cross and Joe Rivers were matched today to box twenty rounds in McCarey's Vernon arena the afternoon of Labor Day. After much wrangling and talk Promoter McCarey brought the warring managers, Sam Wallace and Joe Rivers, to terms. The winner of this bout stands in line to meet Champion Ritchie here Thanksgiving Day.

What is Fame, Anyway? Asks Big Larry McLean
Has Big Finger of His Left Hand Broken, and Asks Why Nothing Was Printed About It—Would Take Up Aviation to Get Name in Papers.

"What is fame, anyway?" queries Larry McLean, who'd rather win a ball game for the Cardinals than be President of the United States. "I have the little finger of my right hand broken in Boston when we got there July 8, still you fellows never print a line about it."

Western Marksmen Gather at Omaha
OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 5.—Scores of trap-shooting experts gathered at Townsend Park today for the opening of the eighth annual Western handicap tournament of the Interstate Association. The event will continue through Thursday, and will be conducted under the auspices of the Omaha Gun Club. Today's program consisted of ten fifteen-target events and a special event of twenty-five pairs of targets. The Western handicap, 100 single targets each man, will be contested on the last day of the tournament. The winner will receive a substantial cash prize. In addition to the championship trophy offered by the association.

Offered Coaching Job.

AMERICAN TROTTER IS A SMART HORSE

AMERICAN TROTTER IS A SMART HORSE
Its Versatility Has Been Proven Times Beyond Number in Recent Years in This Country, and in Europe, Australia, and South America.

The versatility of the American trotting bred horse has been proved times beyond number in recent years, not only in this country, but in Europe, South America, and Australia, says an expert. Originally a horse used for general purposes of a light nature and largely thoroughbred in and about 1830, when trotting races under saddle were the vogue, later being relegated to speedy work in harness on prepared tracks, the American bred trotter has developed along lines far removed from that of his progenitor, the blood horse, yet compares favorably with the thoroughbred saddle horse under a variety of conditions where stamina and endurance are called for.
