unreservedly enthusiastic father, Dr. H. II. Perkins, to prove that being short has its advantages.

AMERICAN WOMEN EXECUTED AS SPIES

Two Nurses Serving With British Army in France, "Effectively Dealt With."

LETHCA, Jan. 8. The need in World War for women to serve as military nurses is recognized by England, France and Canada. There are now nurses providing medical assistance to American soldiers in France and in the British army. This is in addition to the nurses who are working in England and in other situations.

THREE WOMEN ARE BEATEN TO DEATH

Bodies Found in Bed Room,

With Heads Crushed by Sledge Hammer.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 8.—Three women were murdered last night in the same house in this city. All three had been beaten with a sledge hammer. One of the victims was a Negro. A Negro was in the house at the time of the murders. He has been arrested and is being held for questioning.

GIRLS TO GIVE PLAYLETS

For Benefit of Charity

On the occasion of the presentation of a playlet, one of which was produced in a barracks, the American Red Cross council sponsored a benefit performance to raise money for the German Red Cross. The performance will be held at the American Red Cross headquarters.

It is to be a benefit performance for the Ukrainian

Red Cross, as well as for the American Red Cross.

America is a great nation, but there are many more people in the world who need help. We must work for the good of all men.

Dear Mrs. Kellum,

I am glad to hear from you. I hope you will be happy in your new home. I have been well all winter, and I am looking forward to the spring.

Yours truly,

Miss Johnson.
