THE GREATER PALAIS ROYAL

A. LISNER Hours, 9:00 to 6:00 G STREET

A Misses' Shop
Specialty Shop—Third Floor

College girls know—and they are the most enthusiastic patrons of this "Misses' Shop." "Opening" the summer season tomorrow with

Wash Suits $8.75
Exactly as Pictured

Pure Linen and Ramie Suits, oyster white and natural. Dainty little women not less than girls of 14 to 20 years can be accurately fitted.

Let the picture tell you of the chic pockets, the loose belt, the man-tailored fit at neck and shoulders. Learn that best pearl buttons are only used. Also note the full flare skirt.

Third Floor—6 elevators.

Bring Him Tomorrow

This Suit 59c Many Others

The Vestee, New Middy, Jumper Blouse, English Eton and other styles—of madras, rep, galatea, linen, etc. It's the tailoring, style and fit that make these Suits so superior at the price.

Sizes 2½ to 6 years.

And note the price—59c—is least on record for suits tailored to fit and launder like these do.

Bring the little fellows tomorrow to this New Boys' Shop.

Second Floor of New Building.

Kimonos

Summer Styles

79c

Standard at $1

Real economy—real $1.00 Kimonos at 79c. Go to Basement Store for these filmy crepe garments. Be early—and find some satin trimmed, worth more than $1.00.

Enter the elevator on street floor and order the conductor to the Basement Store—Only a journey of 4 seconds.

Enough for a Day

$1 Lingerie 69c $1 Lingerie

The monster table on Street Floor—facing elevator—will be filled tomorrow with broken lots of $1.00 Lingerie reduced to 69c for choice.

Come Early For First Prizes

Some of the gowns are very elaborately trimmed with fine laces and embroideries. The combination drawers and skirt and the envelope chemises will also be first to go. The skirts with panel trimmings are also unusually attractive. The corset covers with sleeves are only too few and too good. And hurry for the various garments with embroidery medallions outlined in laces.

Corsets $1.50 and Brassieres 50c

Broken lots bunched on street floor tables—rear of elevators. $1.50 for corsets that were $5.00. Brassieres 50c instead of 75c.

See This Morning's Star—Page 4—For Home Needs

The Basement Store

The daily visitor to this "Economy Basement" will save hundreds of dollars annually. Real economy is associated with this "Basement" because however little the prices—and prices here are always less than regular—the quality and style are always to be depended upon. Come tomorrow—see the "specials" told of below.

Waists Bunched at 49c
—Including Many Worth $1

Quantity counts—when the makers find "a buyer" willing to "take the entire lot" they begin "to figure a price." The waists to be offered tomorrow include every garment made to retail at $1.00—some few worth more and some few worth less.

Man-Tailored Skirts 98c

Ratine Skirts.
Pique Skirts.
Repp Skirts.
Ramie Skirts.
In All Sizes

Man tailoring assures permanently graceful lines after continued washing. The details—such as the pockets—show the superiority of these skirts. Then, too, the great variety of styles and sizes means a satisfactory selection. Such skirts—at 98c—are only possible in Washington in this Palais Royal Economy Basement. Six seconds from the street floor—by 6 elevators. Tell the conductor: "Basement Floor."

Children's Dresses 49c
Including Samples Worth More

Another illustration of "a big purchase" creating real bargains—real economy. Examine the quality of the wash materials—and note the needlework. And are they not $1.00 styles. All sizes from 3 to 14 years.

Adults' "North Shore" Dresses

These Tub Dresses are known—and so are the prices of them. At $1.49 tomorrow—in this Basement Store.

All Suits $8.85
Were to $25.00

This Basement Store is preparing for the season of Summer Wash Suits—and thus the finally reduced price of $8.85 for all Cloth Suits. Tomorrow's early visitors will find $25 suits—those who come late must be content with $12.50 suits. All are cleverly tailored, of all-wool cloths in plain colors, mixtures, and check.

Panama Cloth Suits $5.00

This Basement Store will be quoted again and again—for the best wash suits at $5.00. Note the two pockets in skirt and the patch pocket in the belted coats. And the tailoring!

Stranger Than Fiction

50c and $1.00

Values Are Up to $10.00 Each

The third and last consignment of these elaborate hair ornaments on sale tomorrow morning, street floor, center. Those remaining from the last lot—sold at $1.00—are to be reduced to 50c for choice. The new lot—at $1.00 each—includes Combs, Barrettes and Hairpins, closely studded with rhinestones or combined with other imitations of precious stones. Others are strikingly effective with jet and rhinestones combined. A few are inlaid with gold or silver. Others are carved. All are exquisite.

Suggesting Presents for Girl Graduates

Just the Combs the chic girl is sighing for—French Twist Combs, Sans Gene Combs, Geraldine Farrar Combs, Eternal Question Combs, besides all the new Hairpins and Barrettes. Choice of demi-amber, amber, shell, crystal, and black. Note the "jewels" and how they are "set"—and understand why some are worth $10.

Basement

Bargains here tomorrow morning—and gone before closing. Think of only 37c for silk-like Petticoats, in black and colors.

Silk-Like 37c

Suggestion—Go direct to this Basement Floor, and do your shopping upstairs later.

Special 49c

Basement Floor

The Envelope Chemise and other combinations, the gowns and petticoats temporarily here at 49c will be object lessons—proving this a real "Economy Basement."
