

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

LIEUT. THOMAS WITHERS, commander of the submarine E-1, which broke long-distance records by trip from Key West to New York.

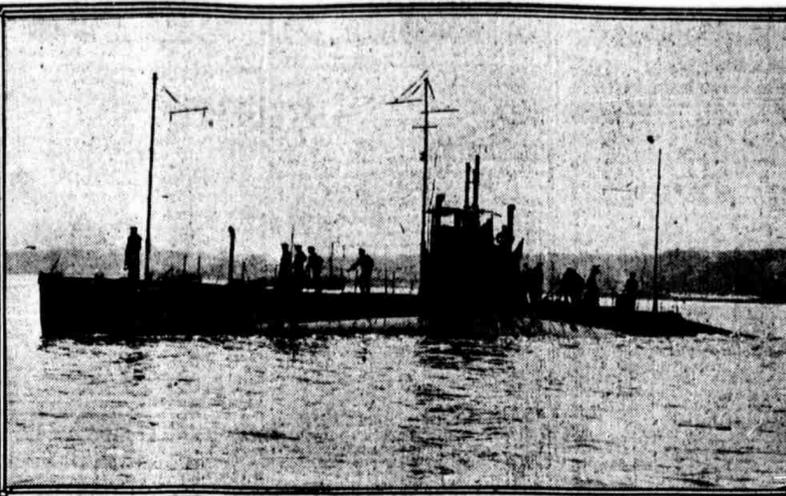

PHOTO BY ROSENFELD

The United States submarine K-1, which made the trip from Key West to New York for the naval review.

MISS MARIE TAILER (at left), whom the Czar's cousin called the most beautiful girl in the world, is soon to wed S. BRYCE WING. At right is MISS MARGARET ANDREWS, sportswoman.

PHOTOS BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

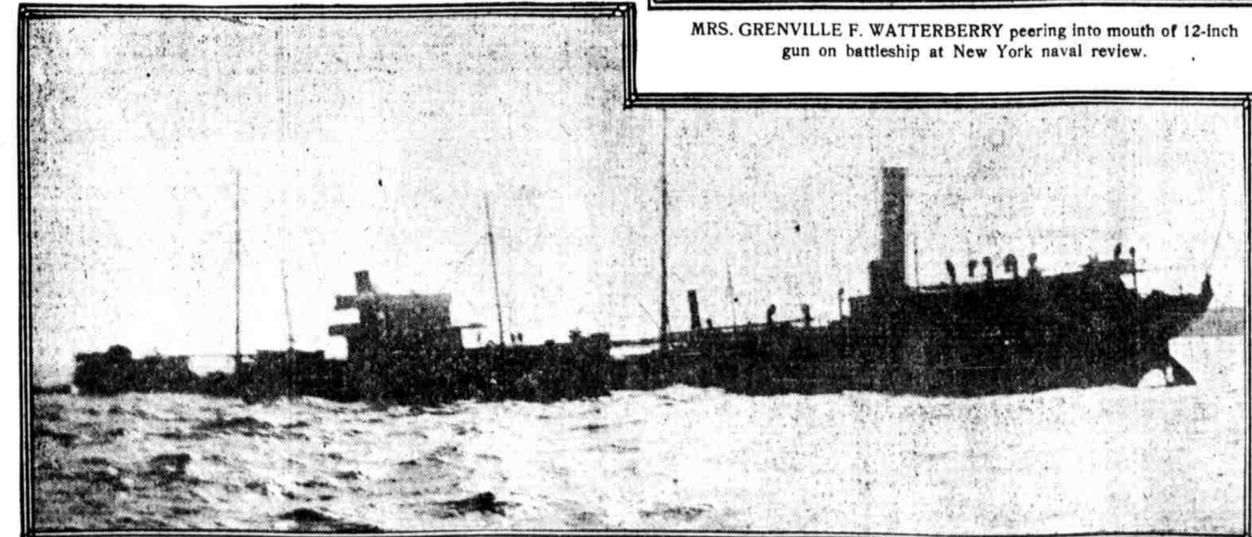

GEN. FRANCHET D'ESPEREY, the "hero of Marne," who has been placed in command of the French at Rheims.

MRS. GRENVILLE F. WATTERBERRY peering into mouth of 12-inch gun on battleship at New York naval review.

CAMILLE SAINT-SAENS, famous French composer, who is now representing the interests of his country at the exposition.

A remarkable picture of the steamer Gulflight, with tank cargo of gasolene and barrels of lubricating oil, as her bows settled after torpedo from German submarine had rent a great hole in her side. The Gulflight was sunk off the Scilly Islands May 1.