The Washington Times, Friday, June 4, 1915.

Many Events Arranged for Washington Today

Meetings and Entertainments to Be Held in Every Section of City by Various Organizations.

Today

STANLEY RESERVIST,
ACQUISITIONS?

Author of Ludlam Affidavits Reported to Be Close to German Consul in N. Y.

MAIL BAG

(Mailed From The Times Readers)

Concerts Today

By U. S. Engineer Board, Standard Grauds.

WASHINGTON, June 4.--Captain Shenck, of the U. S. Engineer Board, announced plans for the presentation of various entertainments to be held during the week and in the immediate vicinity of the city.

CLERGYMAN, 30, A German Spy

New Angle Is Given to See America's First Idea

By A. A. C., New York.

The author of 'The New Angle' has given a new and interesting interpretation to the idea of 'See America First.' The book, which has been a great success in America, is now being published in England, and is expected to create a sensation here. The author is a well-known journalist and writer, and his views are expected to be widely discussed.

John D. Jr., and Morgan See Coal Lands Together

WASHINGTON, June 4.--John D. Jr., and Morgan, the well-known mining magnates, have agreed to work together in the coal mining industry. They have purchased a large tract of land in the western part of the country, and are planning to erect a huge mining facility. The project is expected to create many jobs and to boost the economy of the area.

G. A. R. Picnic Postponed

WASHINGTON, June 4.--The Grand Army of the Republic has postponed its annual picnic, which was to have been held on the Fourth of July. The decision was made due to the current economic situation and the uncertainty of the future. The picnic is expected to be rescheduled for a later date.

The Washington Times, Friday, June 4, 1915.