Miss Margaret Wilson will be a guest at the reception at Little Hungary, one of New York's most flourishing social settlements, which will be given in three years of the center's existence.

Paymaster John Harrison Knapp, U. S. N., Mrs. Knapp, and their small son, John Marshall Knapp, expect to leave Washington about September 1 for a month's visit to Paymaster Knapp's parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. J. Knapp, at the Philadelphia navy yard.

Very simple and charming was the marriage ceremony at noon today of Miss Evelyn Rees Norcross to Robert Clay Sherrill, of Athens, Ala.

Only a small party were present at the marriage, which took place at the residence of the bride's brother, Dr. Alfred C. Norcross, in Potomac, and which was performed by another brother of the bride, the Rev. Wilbur H. Norcross, of Baltimore.

John Norcross, small nephew of the bride, was ringbearer and the only attendant. A breakfast followed the ceremony, and the bride and groom and bridesmaids left town for a Western wedding trip. They will be at home after September 10 at Athens.

Invitations have been received in Washington for the marriage of Miss Emmakate Ennamore, daughter of Daniel Amorous, to Carl Gustaf Vretman, which will take place on Saturday evening, September 11, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride in Forest avenue, Atlanta, Ga.
