Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

The Vice President and Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall, who have arrived in Washington, have given up the apartment at the Shoreham which they have occupied for the past two years, and have leased an apartment at the Willard. They are stopping at the latter hotel for a few days to superintend the extensive remodeling and redecorating which their new quarters are undergoing. They have selected a most attractive apartment, which is arranged to admit of entertaining on an elaborate scale. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall expect to return to Indianapolis shortly to remain until Congress is convened.

Vice President and Mrs. Marshall have enjoyed a summer of varied interest. They spent some time at their Indianapolis home, visited the Panama-Pacific and the San Diego expositions, and were the guests of Mrs. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kimsey, at their home in Phoenix, for a month. Later Mr. Marshall completed a Chautauque circuit in the middle West, accompanied by Mrs. Marshall, and recently they have been attending a convention of thirty-third degree Masons of the Scottish Rites Temple in Boston.

Madame Carbo, widow of the minister from Ecuador, will entertain a house party for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Carbo, to William H. Roscoe Jones, of Baltimore, which will take place at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Among their guests will be Mrs. S. M. Jones and Mrs. Vernon Albert Ward, mother and sister of Mr. Jones, who will come to Washington next Tuesday from their home in North Carolina.

VIRGINIA ELECTION FIGHT BEGINS TODAY

Judge Thornton Hears Plea of Claude W. Wiley for Recount at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 24.—Judge J. B. Thornton, of the circuit court of the sixteenth judicial circuit, is today hearing the arguments of attorneys in the contested election case of Claude W. Wiley against F. L. Huddleston, involving the nomination for the county treasurer of Fairfax county. Mr. Huddleston won the nomination by four votes. Mr. Wiley was represented today by Amos C. Crouse and R. A. Hutchison, attorneys, and Samuel G. Brent, commonwealth attorney of this city. E. L. Garrett represents Dr. Huddleston.

Counsel for Dr. Huddleston was sustained by the court in his motion to strike out all of the grounds of contest except the one charging that certain parties, who were not qualified to vote, were allowed to do so, and that certain other parties, who were qualified, were prohibited from voting, specific charges having been made in these instances. Judge Thornton announced that he would permit the ballots to be recounted, provided they had been sealed and preserved as the law provided.
