MAKING CAMPAIGN PLANS

Senator Crane Confers With Standard Bearer on Offense
Against Democrats.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Charles Evans Hughes, whiskers, smile and all, is to look every American square in the eye and prove to each that he is not an iceberg.

The movies will be the medium. It became known at the candidate's headquarters in the Astor Hotel today that the national committee is already making arrangements to have pictures of Hughes shown in practically every house in the United States.

It is held that this will dispel the impression that Hughes is a "thinking machine," rather than a "regular fellow."

CRANE TO CONFER.

Plans for the major offensive of Charles Evans Hughes, Republican Presidential candidate, into the enemy's country will probably be made today when W. Murray Crane, one of the Republican "big three," rambles into Hughes' red-tape-entangled receiving-room for "a little talk."

Whether Murray will be accompanied by others of the powers was not known today. It is expected, however, that others may delay their visit until time for formal notification of Hughes that he has been selected Republican standard-bearer. This will occur sometime before next Tuesday. On that day he will go to Brown University, at Providence, to attend the thirty-fifth reunion of his class.

Crane Working Quietly.

Just what Crane has in mind in the way of a campaign is not known. He is still pursuing the tactics of the Chicago convention—working quietly—Roosevelt calls it "pussfooting."

Hughes will not march in the preparedness parade in Washington tomorrow, being too busy here. In lieu of marching he has written William F. Guide of Washington:

"It is the deepest interest in this patriotic movement."

It is not Justice Hughes, or Governor Hughes these days, but Mr. Hughes—plain Mr. Hughes. The candidate has let his preference for the laymen title be known and now "Governor," by which every New Yorker addressed him yesterday, is used only by newcomers. Hughes expects to be busy all day conferring with the political powers and receiving congratulations of personal friends.

Some of the Callers.

J. E. Lutz, of Vernon, Tex., came all the way from home to congratulate Hughes and tell him that Texas would be on the right side.

Herbert Parsons, New York, member of the national committee, assured Hughes that there is "nothing to it."

S. C. Bowen, once a member of Hughes' Sunday school class at the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, was a caller.

A high percentage of the callers are headed men.

Slipping into the crush of persons who thronged headquarters today in strenuous efforts to get good seats on the bandwagon was a messenger boy who brought the candidate forty-eight four-leaf clovers—the gift of William C. Douglas, Delhi, N. Y., where Hughes once taught school and John J. Waters, of Mechanicville, it was in the region of Mechanicville that Hughes in his more sportive days, pursued the festive squirrel to his doom.

Another gift was the cane carried by John C. Fremont, the first Republican Presidential candidate.

A subcommittee of the national committee is to meet in a few days to discuss campaign details.

No provision has been made to receive a call from Colonel Roosevelt, none being expected.

In a telegram received today by Hughes from Oscar S. Straus, Progressive and close friend of Roosevelt, Straus called on the Progressives to support Hughes and pledged his personal support.

The telegram reads:
"In recognition of your splendid public record, and relying upon your unflinching stand for a complete and unalloyed Americanism, with the single devotion to the highest welfare of all our people and the ideals of social justice, I have so endeavored to us the visioned leadership of Theodore Roosevelt, every genuine Progressive should, in my judgment, give you his enthusiastic support. You will certainly have mine."

'UNDILUTED AMERICANISM' IS HUGHES' SLOGAN

NEW YORK, June 13.—"Undiluted Americanism" is to be the slogan of Charles Evans Hughes in his campaign for the Presidency.

He coined the phrase today in his talk with the newspapermen.

In his talk he displayed a "pep" and fire almost Rooseveltian, biting off his words sharply. He said:
"I have stated my position very clearly in my telegram of acceptance to the convention.

"My platform is one of undiluted Americanism—
"Anyone who supports me, supports a thorough going, out-and-out American policy and nothing else."

Stage Set By Tonight For Parade Tomorrow To Urge Preparedness

Roping-off of Pennsylvania Avenue Will Be Final Step of Arrangements for Impressive Pageant.

Thousands to See 75,000 Marchers in Demonstration.

Setting of the stage for what promises to be one of the most singularly impressive demonstrations in the history of the National Capital—the defense pageant, in which 75,000 men, women, and children plan to march through historic Pennsylvania avenue behind the President of the United States, to demonstrate the need of adequate preparedness—will be completed this evening.

The roping of the famous thoroughfare so that the procession may make its way without interruption and that order may be maintained more effectively is the final step to be taken in the preparations. This will be done late today.

Despite the inability to have Congress pass a bill providing for the cessation of street car traffic during the parade, the Capital Traction Company has voluntarily decided to suspend its service during the pageant, and no hitch in plans faces the committee in charge of the procession.

The curtain will rise on the day of defense demonstration at 9:30 o'clock, when the President and members of the cabinet of the House and Senate, and other high Government officials will assemble in the shadow of the Peace Monument and head the parade for the march to the White House.

Arrived at the Executive Mansion, the President will review the line of march and take his place in the reviewing stand, where he and the members of his cabinet will review the thousands of patriotic citizens in the parade.

When the hour arrives for the flag drill at the Washington Monument, the President will go to the parade grounds.

SOARING GASOLINE PRICES ARE ENDED ORPET IS HELPED BY STATE WITNESS

Fall May Be Looked For, Say
Producers, Before Federal Trade Commission.

The skyrocket movement in the price of gasoline has been ended.

A fall in the price may be looked for at any time. The price in Kansas at the refineries has already fallen from 21 cents to 17 1/2 cents.

A period of overproduction of crude oil, which brought about the low price of gasoline more than a year ago, is about to be experienced again.

These are a few of the statements that started the Federal Trade Commission at the second day of its hearings of the views of the oil producers and jobbers and refiners on the high price of gasoline.

The most of the statements along these lines were made by T. J. James, secretary of the association of Refiners of Kansas and Oklahoma. Most of the testimony taken at the morning session today, like that of yesterday, dealt with the bookkeeping methods and costs of marketing and manufacture. The refiners were examined today as the jobbers had been examined yesterday.

Representatives of most of the independent refineries of the United States were on hand to give their views, and the procedure adopted yesterday of taking up each phase of the question and permitting all present who care to discuss it was followed again today.

Kindred, Man of Mystery,
In Hands of Detectives

NEW YORK, June 13.—Edward C. Kindred, who last August vanished with the $2,000 pay roll of the Fint-O'Rourke company, of which he was assistant cashier, will be brought here by detectives tonight.

The so-called "man of mystery" has been amazing Boston with his lavish entertainments and the glitter of his jewels for several weeks until it was learned that he was the same man who last August disappeared with a check for $23,170.

Knights Templar Leave
For Conclave on Coast

CHICAGO, June 13.—A special train of officers and members of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar left Chicago today for Los Angeles to attend the twenty-third triennial conclave.

The Knights Templar left Chicago over the Chicago Northwestern railroad, and will cover 7,000 miles of Western travel before returning, taking in the conclave at Los Angeles, the San Diego Exposition, and Pacific northwest, returning via the Canadian Rockies. The tour covers twenty-one days.

RUSSIAN ARMY HAMMERS WAY ONTO LEMBERG

AUSTRIANS DEMORALIZED
One Hundred and Twenty Thousand of Routed Troops Are Made Prisoners.

LONDON, June 13.—The prospect of Roumania joining with the allies in the war against the central powers is growing daily with the advance of the Russian armies into Bukovina, according to reports in diplomatic circles here.

PETROGRAD, June 13.—Hurting westward with seemingly superhuman vigor, the Russian armies of General Brusiloff are now hammering their way toward Lemberg, the Galician capital, in giant strides.

The demoralized Austrian defenders are rolling back before them.

It is now estimated that more than one-third of the men in Austrian armies on the east front have been killed, wounded, or taken prisoners since the giant offensive started June 4.

120,000 PRISONERS TAKEN.
Approximately 120,000 men and officers have been imprisoned to date. In actions such as the Russians are engaged the estimate of the conservative critics is two killed or injured for every prisoner. This would mean that a total of 240,000 Austrians have been put out of the fighting since June 4.

The Austrian army on the east front has been variously estimated at from 700,000 to 1,000,000 men.

The new Russian line now makes a deep U into the rich country beyond. It drives the Austrians back and at the same time makes the positions of the Germans on the line toward Riga less tenable.

In the south the armies of the Car are knocking at the gates of Czernowitz, the rich country beyond. Unofficial reports are that Czernowitz has already been taken. This has not been confirmed.

Austrians Abandon Guns.
LONDON, June 13.—So rapid was the advance of the Russian armies in the region of Lutsk that the Austrians in several instances did not even have time to fire the guns they had loaded, according to a Petrograd dispatch today.

In these instances the Russians appropriated the guns where they stood, turned them right about, and poured their deadly hail into the fleeing men.

British Pay Honor

Thousands Stand in Rain at London
Cathedral as Tributes to Great Soldier.

LONDON, June 13.—The late Earl Kitchener, Great Britain's premier soldier, lost when the cruiser Hampshire was mined near the Orkney Islands, today was paid a tribute as great as England ever has given her departed heroes.

The service was in St. Paul's Cathedral. The King and Queen, persons attached to the royal house, many peers, soldiers, and statesmen attended, according to the Times, and the doors, while thousands stood outside in the rain, with heads bared.

Streets in every direction from the cathedral were jammed so tightly that progress of the automobiles was impeded. Thousands of mourners—men and women drenched to the skin—lined the royal route and bowed their heads in memory of "K of K."

Many were in deep mourning, expressing the loss as personal.

RUSS LOSSES HEAVY,
BERLIN ANNOUNCES

Germans Report Minor Victories
at Several Points.

BERLIN (via Sayville wireless) June 13.—Reporting minor victories at several points in the fight to stop the powerful Russian offensive, the Austrian official war office report received here today declares Russian losses "correspond to the results of a series of massed marches by the Russians."

On the heights east of Wisniowczyk Russian attacks were broken down this morning by the light and powerful Russian offensive, the Austrian official war office report, covering yesterday's fighting.

East of Kovel Austrian scout detachments captured a Russian advance post. Northwest of Tarnopol violent fighting continues. Positions near Vorkla have several times changed hands.

West of Koiiki yesterday Austro-Hungarian repulsed a Russian attempt to cross the Hercecs.

WILSON AND MARSHALL TO LEAD DEMOCRATS; TICKET NOW ASSURED

WILSON POINTS OUT
DUTY OF AMERICA

President Tells West Point Graduates U. S. Must Be Able to Back Up Words.

"OFFICERS CITIZENS FIRST"
Pledges United States to Uphold
Monroe Doctrine and Work for World Justice.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 13.—"The world is going to know that when America speaks she means what she says," President Wilson told the Military Academy graduating class today.

A moment before he had said: "Undoubtedly, gentlemen, it is the duty of America to be prepared."

President Wilson promised in behalf of the United States to uphold the Monroe doctrine. He promised, too, what he did not promise when he made the recent Peace League speech, that when the time comes, America will be ready to join the other nations to see that "that kind of justice prevails everywhere that we believe in."

Military Not Militaristic.
To be military does not mean being militaristic, the President said. He asked the West Point men not to forget that they are citizens first.

When the "small number" who love their country more than the country of their adoption, he said: "Nobody who doesn't put America first can consort with us."

The President said: "I look upon this body of men who are graduating today with a peculiar interest. I feel like congratulating them that they are living in a day not only so interesting, because fraught with change, but also because so responsible. Days of responsibility are the only days that count in time, because they are the only days that give quality. They are the only days when manhood and purpose is tried out as if by fire."

Not Ordinary Graduates.
"I need not tell you young gentlemen that you are not like an ordinary graduating class of one of our universities. The men in those classes look forward to the life which they are to lead after graduating with a great many questions in their mind."

Most of them do not know exactly what their lives are going to develop into. Some of them do not know what occupations they are going to follow. All of them are wondering what will be the line of duty and advancement and the ultimate goal of success for them.

"There is one thing for you. You have enlisted in something that does not stop when you leave the Academy, for you then only begin to realize it, which then only begins to be filled with the full richness of its meaning, and you can look forward with absolute certainty to the sort of thing that you will be obliged to do."

Compliments General Scott.
"Sometimes men like the present chief of staff, for example, could fill their lives with the interest of really knowing and understanding the Indians of the Western plains, knowing what was going on inside of their minds and being able to be the intermediary between them and those who dealt with them by speaking their sign language, could be a great thing."

Dr. Jordan Enlists Missourians to Influence Senator Stone for Pension Plan.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 13.—Dr. Llewellyn Jordan, of the National Civil Service Retirement Association, who is here to appear before the resolutions committee and urge a pension and retirement plan, has taken steps to enlist the backing of all the civil service employees in St. Louis in using influence with Senator Stone, who will be chairman of the resolutions committee.

Dr. Jordan had a conference with President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, today. Mr. Gompers, who will urge the same comprehensive labor plan which he urged on the Republicans, will emphasize the need of a pension and retirement system.

Congressman Admitted
To District Bar Practice

Congressman Thomas D. Schall, of Minnesota; Alfred Lucking, of Detroit; and John W. Keener, 1314 Emerson street northwest, were admitted to the District bar today by the District Supreme Court in general term.

Their admission was moved by William Henry Dennis, representing the examining board of the Bar Association. Justices Gould, Stafford and Siddons presided.

Attorney Lucking was admitted in order to be qualified to appear as one of the counsel for Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, in the damage suit brought against him by the Navy League.

MOOSE CHIEF ASKED TO JOIN DEMOCRATS

McCombs Wires Invitation to Colby, Who Nominated T. R.
Step in Kidnaping Plan.

By LOWELL MELLETT.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 13.—Democratic National Chairman William F. McCombs today wired Bainbridge Colby, of New York, an invitation to join the Democratic party.

His action was based on Colby's repudiation of Roosevelt, for whom he had made the nominating speech in the Progressive convention at Chicago Saturday.

McCombs' action was the most striking development to date of the Democratic leaders' efforts to find a way to kidnap the 4,000,000 million votes of the Progressive party, which they consider orphaned by Roosevelt's decision not to be their candidate, as outlined by the United Press yesterday.

The telegram read:
"Bainbridge Colby,
"22 Nassau street, New York.
"I have read your statement. It appears that Colonel Roosevelt has attempted to send his former enthusiastic followers stumbling along to destruction by Chairman McCombs and others to bring the leaders of the Progressive convention from Chicago to St. Louis immediately."

The matter was too important for instant decision, Taggart said, and won several others to his view that the platform should be drafted before the Progressives were invited.

Urging that the Progressives should be asked here to offer suggestions before the platform is completed, the initiators of the kidnaping scheme went ahead lining up support today.

Kentucky Wreck Injures Democrats

State Delegation Is Shaken Up
When Two Pullmans Leave the Rails at Owensboro.

OWENSBORO, Ky., June 13.—Kentucky Democrats bound for the national convention in St. Louis were injured when the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis train No. 14 was wrecked here early today.

Two Pullmans left the rails and another overturned. Many passengers were injured, and some of them were rushed to hospitals where none was found to be in a serious condition.

Mayor John H. Rueschmeyer, of Louisville, was thrown from an upper berth and badly bruised.

Included in the party of Democrats were Gov. A. C. Stanley, former Gov. James B. McCreary, Gen. W. B. Hildebrand, Lieutenant Governor Blaine H. Hildebrand, and others.

By JUDSON C. WELLIVER.
ST. LOUIS, June 13.—It will be the old ticket, Wilson and Marshall. This may be accepted as settled in spite of diversity of booms for the Vice Presidency.

For a few fleeting hours a disturbance was caused by reports that Secretary of War Newton D. Baker was to be the man. Henry Morgenthau, of New York, former ambassador to Turkey, gave out a statement in which he said party leaders seemed to favor Baker.

Many jumped to the conclusion that the nomination of Baker had the approval of the White House.

TAGGART ASSURED.
Thomas Taggart of Indiana, however, with the interest of the Vice President at heart, proceeded to call up the White House by phone. He was advised there was nothing to the Baker story and that the President was for the old ticket.

Not only that but Secretary Baker wired a friend here that he was not a candidate and Marshall was the Administration selection.

It appeared plain that Mr. Morgenthau spoke without authority, and was either acting with the knowledge of the President or was putting out a feeler.

Those on the inside know well there has been opposition to Marshall in high Administration quarters for months. That the President and his advisers would have been glad to see some one else named has been no secret.

Has Been Independent.
The fact is, Vice President Marshall has been fairly independent, and as presiding officer of the Senate, has applied the rules as he believed they should be construed and not as sometimes best calculated to force through Administration legislation. This is one reason why he has many friends who would raise the roof if he were not nominated that the plans to defeat him will be dropped, barring most unexpected developments. The Roger Sullivan boom, the Governor Major boom, and others will not materialize.

Friday Without Terror for Wilson
President Won't Decline Renomination Because of Day on Which It Is Scheduled.

The fact that the program of the Democratic convention at St. Louis calls for the renomination of President Wilson on a Friday has no terrors for President Wilson or the untiring Democracy behind him.

On Friday, the administration declares that the selection of Friday was purely an accident, but just the same they claim it will be a lucky accident.

"Friday," said Secretary Tumulty today, "is our lucky day."

Friends of the President have long contended that thirteen is the President's lucky number, and for that reason many of them would have liked to see his renomination scheduled for today.

Tom Taggart Declares He Is Not a Candidate.

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—Tom Taggart, disappointed reports that Roger Sullivan would be an active candidate for Vice President with Taggart backing.

"You may say for me that I am for Marshall. Marshall will be renominated and Roger Sullivan will be for Marshall, too," Taggart said.
