HARRY LATE WANTS TO FORM A LEAGUE OF YOUNG PLAYERS

Would Have Seventeen-Year-Old Baseball Teams Combine in Regular Circuit.

Washington is to have an amateur baseball league for the rest of the season for all boys under seventeen. If the plans of Harry E. Late, formerly of Baltimore, and president of several amateur baseball leagues there, mature, Late will have as his associates Martin White and Fred Evers, both of whom are connected with a local club, in his efforts to organize a boys' league.

All amateur baseball games were called off yesterday owing to the rain. However, all leagues will get into action today. Following is the schedule of the games:

Potomac League—Machinists vs. Hamilton, at Annapolis. Government League—Agriculture vs. Commerce, White Lot. Catholic Church—St. Margaret's vs. Holy Name. Rosedale League—Hilltops vs. Gibraltar. Terminal League—Southern Auditors vs. Southern General Office. East Washington S. S. League—Keller vs. Fifth.

Bill Malone, who since the time of its organization has been manager of the Alexandria County Athletic Association, resigned his position last night at a meeting of the club as leader of the team. J. R. Jones has been selected to fill Malone's shoes for the rest of the season. Jones was connected with War Department of the Departmental League last season and should prove a good successor to Malone.

The team, however, will carry out the schedule made by Malone and will take part in the series for the championship of Northern Virginia. Much credit should be given Malone for the way in which he has managed the team, as he started out with hardly a thing to work on and induced a lot of Washington boys to go up to Alexandria and play.

Some of the players whom Malone started with are now in the minors. Although the passing of Malone will be a great loss to the Alexandria team, it is hoped that Manager Jones will be honored with a victory next Sunday when he leads the Cardinals of Alexandria, at Clarendon.

A. B. Prosser has been elected president for the coming year and William Peet honorary president. Three days of this week will be devoted to practice by the Alexandria team in preparation for the Northern Virginia championship series which will start on Wednesday. The White Sox will use the diamond on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, while the Alexandria Eagles who will be their opponents in the game mentioned above, will have the use of the field on Wednesday and Saturday. The Alfred street diamond will be used by both teams.

The Truxtons have issued a challenge to the Phoenix A. C. in regard to a game on Wednesday, July 12, at 2 P. M. at Florida avenue northeast. The average of the Truxton team is from sixteen to seventeen years and they have a good record this far, having been beat only once by a team in their class.

MT. VERNON AND VERMONT AVE. PLAY

Churchmen's Tennis League Is Staging Good Contests in Its Weekly Matches.

Today the Mount Vernon and Vermont avenue teams are playing off their scheduled match in the Churchmen's Tennis League. Thursday the First Congregational and Union Methodist will meet, while on Saturday the McKendree and New York avenue teams are scheduled to take the court.

The Union Methodist team is new in the league having just come in last week. It is taking the place of the Northminster club which has dropped out. Here is how the teams stand:

WON LOST PCT. Mount Vernon ..... 22 5 .821. Nicholas ..... 14 9 .609. Vermont Avenue ..... 12 12 .500. First Congregational ..... 8 15 .347. Northminster ..... 8 15 .347. New York Avenue ..... 4 13 .231.

DEAD MAN ALONE IN NEW AUTOMOBILE

Curb Kept Machine in Street When the Owner of It Is Stricken.

CARLEIGH, Pa., July 11.—Guided by the high curbing, a new automobile this afternoon carried the dead body of Frank W. Hoffer, a leading butcher, along the block from Carleigh's new Federal building to West street.

OMAHA THINKS THAT BIG BOUT WAS FAKE

"Strangler" Lewis Backed Himself to Last Certain Period Against Stecher.

OMAHA, Neb., July 11.—All Omaha is divided over the Stecher-Lewis wrestling match of July 4 and whether it was up to Stecher to go in and win or up to Lewis to throw the champion. Stecher is coming in for as much censure as Lewis, on the ground that he should have so pushed the fight as to have forced Lewis to the mat. It is generally conceded that Stecher should have been able to get behind Lewis. If he is the wrestler his friends have claimed.

Many thousands of dollars changed hands on the outcome, the former friends of Stecher in Dodge county being the heaviest losers. The Lewis money was all put up as "time" bets, mostly on odds that more than forty-five minutes would be required to put his shoulders to the floor twice. After the match Tuesday night Stecher went to his home on the special train which had brought his former admirers from his county. Lewis had dinner and then went to a dance, where he danced until midnight.

Catch Man Robbing To Pay For Marriage

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 11.—While his expectant bride awaited his coming in Philadelphia, to lead her to the altar James Davis, a resident of this city, "rabbid" several residences in order to get the necessary money for the wedding. A silver service and other booty valued at $500 were taken. Just as Davis was about to leave for Philadelphia he was held up by the police. He at once confessed and is now in jail.

CLARKE WON'T BUY INTEREST IN CLUB

PITTSBURGH, July 11.—Arriving in Pittsburgh on business affecting his oil interests in Kansas, ex-Manager Fred Clarke, of the Pirates, witnessed the performance of his former charges against the Giants at Forbes Field during the afternoon. When asked concerning the rumor which floated around the country some time ago that he was trying to buy into the Pittsburgh club, he said: "Nothing to it. I am through with baseball for all time. Following this he said jokingly 'I see where Mr. Dreyfuss has offered $50,000 for a .300 hitter. Maybe I'll try for that money.' Then, in a more serious mood, he said: 'I witnessed a game in Chicago on Friday, and if the pitching in the National League isn't any better than it was in that game I'll bet I will hit .500 for the remainder of the season.'"

Joe Brooks Will Coach Williams Eleven in Fall

NEW YORK, July 11.—Joe Brooks, former Colgate University star, and one of the greatest tackles who ever wore the Maroon, will be head coach of the Williams College eleven next fall. He formerly played on Williams' teams, and was assistant coach there last year.

WASHINGTONIANS TO SEE TONIGHT'S BOUT

Frankie Brown and Bill Fitzsimmons Meet in Lengthy Mill in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, July 11.—Judging from the flood of reservations, all lovers of boxing in Washington will be at the ring-side tonight when Frankie Brown and Billy Fitzsimmons, both of New York, hook up in their fifteen-round bout at the Monumental Theater. Sports from the Capital, many of whom are in attendance at the big Elks' convention there, are greatly interested in boxing, and they will all be there, both at tonight's bout and at Thursday's bigger show, the scrap between Jack Dillon and Battling Levinsky.

Harvard Heavyweight May Enter Ring Game

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 11.—Oran U. Kirkpatrick, heavyweight boxing champion at Harvard, has finished his college course in three years, and is now in Denver conferring with his father on whether he will accept the proposition put to him by John L. Sullivan, former world's heavyweight champion, to turn to the ring for a livelihood.

WHITE WON'T DELAY CHANCE FOR TITLE

Chicago Lightweight Will Try to Put Freddie Welsh Away on July 21.

There's a chance, and a mighty good one at that, that Charlie White, the Chicago lightweight, who was beaten by Johnny Griffiths, of Akron, in a twelve round bout at Canton Tuesday, will be selected as Freddie Welsh's opponent in a fifteen-round decision bout at Denver, Labor Day.

Football Will Be Ladylike Pastime

Several changes will be made in the football rules when the committee meets this fall, according to E. K. Hall, chairman of the rules committee. "Side-line coaching, talking to your opponents, talking to officials, beating the ball and holding should be branded as unworthy of college players," said Hall. "The officials will be given more power in the future to punish offenders."

Columbia Is Seeking At Least Half of Ball

NEW YORK, July 11.—Columbia University wants at least half of the baseball, which was used in the annual game with Pennsylvania on Franklin Field this year. For years the winning nine has hung the ball in its trophy room, but this year darkness brought the contest to an end in the fifteenth inning with the score tied. The Penn team retained possession of the ball despite protests, and Harry Fisher, graduate manager of athletics at Columbia, has written to the Quaker athletic authorities suggesting that the sphere be cleared through the center, and that each team hold one-half.

Hoyt Signs Contract With New York Giants

NEW YORK, July 11.—Waite Hoyt "the most envied boy in America," who though only seventeen, has been carried by the Giants for two years as mascot, has been signed to a regular contract by McGraw, and will soon be farmed out to some International League club. Hoyt gave promise of so much natural ability, and pitched so much like Christy Mathewson, that the Giants have kept an option on his services.
