Cottolene "The Natural Shortening"

Cottolene Pie Crust. Mix one scant level half-teaspoonful salt with 1 cup pastry flour. Chop in with a knife cup of chilled Cottolene. When well cut together, mix in very gradually 3 table-spoonfuls cold water, chopping the mixture and avoiding wet streaks. Do not knead with hands. Flour moulding board and rolling pin and roll dough as usual. It paste is soft, chill in pan on ice before rolling.

Your pies will be delicious whenever you use Cottolene for shortening. It gives just the right crispness and flakiness to the crust and enhances the flavor of the filling.

Be sure to use Cottolene the next time you make pies and notice how nicely it works in with the flour—also how delicious your pies will be.

Cottolene makes foods shortened with or fried in it more healthful as well as more appetizing. Your grocer will supply Cottolene in large or small pails. Ask him to deliver it regularly.

The Oddest Love Story of the Year TAMSIE of the TOWER

A weird and fascinating tale that will hold the attention of the reader from its opening paragraph to its last line.

By Nalbro Bartley, Author of "The Savage and the Savant" and "The Sleeping Sickness."

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE. "Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, in their origin, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in mental energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starch, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bluerated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. I know of nothing better than plain bluerated magnesia as a food corrective and antacid. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bluerated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bluerated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right."—Adv.

Instant Hair Stain Better Than Slow "Restorers"

Some folks would have you believe that they have discovered some new and valuable combination that will "restore" the color to gray, streaked, or faded hair without staining it. No such thing has ever been discovered. There is only one preparation so far as known, that is entirely free from sulphur, lead, silver, mercury, zinc, aniline, coal tar products or their derivatives. That preparation is called "Brownstone." It is so easy and safe to apply that the wonder is that anyone ever uses anything else. "Brownstone" instantly tints the hair to any shade of brown (or black) that may be desired. If the gray shows on your temples or is streaking your hair—if the ends of your hair are lighter than the balance, or if for any reason you wish to stain all or part of your hair—use "Brownstone." It will be sent you (from manufacturers only) upon receipt of the mention shade desired. All of the leading drug stores sell "Brownstone." Two sizes, 25c and $1.00. Insist on "Brownstone" at your hair-dresser's. Prepared by The Kenon Pharmaceutical Co., 619 E. Pike St., Covington, Ky. For sale in Washington by O'Donnell's Drug Store, People's Drug Store and other leading dealers.—Adv.
