

WILSON CHATS AT HARRISBURG STOP

Greet Those on Station Platform—Is Pleased With Indianapolis Reception.

By ROBERT J. BENDER. ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S TRAIN, HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 12.—President Wilson swung homeward through Republican Pennsylvania today well-pleased over his Indiana reception.

Stopping here this forenoon, he alighted from his private car, paced the platform, shook hands with a number of people, and chatted informally with them.

Democratic leaders still feel Indiana is an uncertain quantity, but that in the two addresses which the President made yesterday he carried home the two points:

That the President is contemptuous of such issues as sectionalism and other contentions raised by his Republican opponents and is determined to carry on his campaign to make his adversaries as he says "put up or shut up" on what he regards the real issues.

For the first time he has explained exhaustively to the farmers of the country what the Democratic Congress has done for them by passing the rural credits Federal reserve bank and other acts.

On the later point, his lieutenants feel he now has this idea well before the country. They feel the one big issue upon which the campaign rests is whether the people endorse the President's foreign policy. They point to the enthusiasm accorded his every utterance on peace yesterday, as strong evidence of approval.

The President himself hinted in one of his addresses that the "friendly look of people who lined the streets" encouraged him in the belief that they believed in his expansion of the Democratic party. Hence they feel Indiana will come into line on the issue: "Peace with Wilson."

Tomorrow the President will "talk turkey" to a big delegation of Pennsylvania Democrats who are going to Shadow Lawn, in the third of his speeches from the veranda of his home.

HUGHES IS CONFIDENT OF WINNING MISSOURI

Has Red-Hot Speeches for Springfield Late This Afternoon and Joplin Tonight.

As the Democratic administration of Louisville provided only two police officers—absolutely hopeless against the mob which jammed the hall—to afford protection to the Governor and Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Hughes' rest from her husband in the mob, and those with her had literally to fight their way to the platform, shielding her as much as possible from the enormous crowd.

Expects to Rest. Hughes expects to rest much today, having plenty of time between speeches. Yesterday's program in Kentucky nearly fagged him. Tomorrow, in Nebraska, Hughes faces a program of half a dozen talks.

Hughes Tells Heckler 'What He'd Have Done'

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—Charles Evans Hughes has answered the Democratic cry: "What would you have done?"

In the case of the Lusitania he would have broken off relations with Germany, if he had not been able to prevent the sinking of the ship in the first place.

Mr. Hughes' statement, his first unequivocal stand on German-American relations, was made before a huge crowd here last night, in answer to a question from a heckler who had been plowed in the audience.

It would have had the state Department, at the very beginning of the Administration, so equipped as to command the respect of the world, and next I would have conducted affairs in Mexico as to show that our words meant peace and good will, to the protection, at all events, of the lives and property of American citizens.

And next when I said "strict accountability" every nation would have known that that was meant, and further, when notice was published with respect to the action (some time ago) I would have made it known, in terms unequivocal and unmistakable, that we should not tolerate a continuation of friendly relations through the ordinary diplomatic channels if that action were taken, and the Lusitania would never have sunk.

Here is an exact transcript of the incident: A voice: "Justice Hughes, just a moment; please permit a respectful interruption. What would you have done—(Cries of "Put him out!")

"Please permit the question to be asked," said Mr. Hughes. "I do not want any one shut off from a courteous question. Go on, sir. Please ask your question." (Cries of "Go on, you boob!")

A voice: "I ask, I trust respectfully—(Cries of "Put him out!") Please let the question be asked!"

"I will answer this now. Permit me to answer it, permit me to answer it!" shouted Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes then made his reply as quoted. The crowd was on its feet like a flash, howling a demand that the heckler be put out of the building.

There was a tumult of cheering for Mr. Hughes and shouts of "You're right!" and "That's what we would have done!" Mr. Hughes waved his hands high above his head to quiet the crowd, but it was some time before he could continue.

It was one of the most dramatic scenes of the entire campaign. It was evident that Mr. Hughes was thoroughly stirred by the attitude of the heckler.

Mr. Hughes had been stirred earlier in the evening, when a man in the throng shouted, "How about the 2-cent case?" He answered, "I voted that, sir, because it was legislation passed without obtaining the facts."

Woman Who Stole For Children Goes Free

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Judge William H. Wadhams, in general sessions yesterday, refused to pass sentence upon Mrs. Rebecca Schuhr, thirty-five years old, who pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary. Mrs. Schuhr asserted that she stole to gain bread for her six children.

CHANGES MADE IN ALEXANDRIA SCHOOLS

Gilbert J. Cox is Clerk of Board, and George W. Zachary is Superintendent.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 12.—Gilbert J. Cox, a member of the city school board from the first ward, was last night elected to the position of clerk of the school board. Superintendent Swane's name was not placed in nomination, as had been expected, for the reason that the commonwealth's attorney submitted an opinion in which he held that the superintendent was not eligible to the office.

Prof. W. T. Hodges, superintendent of schools of Alexandria county, has resigned his position, and George W. Zachary, a member of the county school board, has been appointed in his place temporarily. Prof. Hodges has been appointed as assistant state superintendent of public instruction for the rural districts at a salary of $2,500 per year.

The will of the late Mrs. Babette Eicher was admitted to probate yesterday in the circuit court. Louis Eicher, her executor, The testatrix left her property to her children and grandchildren.

Miss Fannie Carter was yesterday elected superintendent of Alexandria Hospital in place of Miss Bertha Stultz, whose resignation will take effect. November 1. Miss Carter is a native of Virginia, and for ten years was superintendent of nurses in the Emergency Hospital at Washington.

The Virginia Feed and Milling Corporation has just been granted a charter by the state corporation commission, with a capital stock of $50,000, with a par value of $100 per share. The officers are: Alvin C. Beck, of Washington, president; George H. Beucher, of Alexandria, secretary and treasurer.

The new concern will begin operations about the first of the year, and will engage in the manufacture of stock and poultry feeds of various kinds, and will occupy the Fortner Brewing Company's buildings.

HUGHES' TRAIN MISSES WRECK BY FEW YARDS

Broken Rail Ahead; Special Flagged, Stops With Jolt.

LOUISA, Ky., Oct. 12.—The six-car special train bearing Charles E. Hughes came dangerously near being wrecked a few miles beyond Paintsville.

A rail on a curve had broken in two parts and a piece about seven inches long had been torn from one edge. The train was flagged within a few yards of the spot, and came to a jolt that tossed the passengers about in their seats.

Immediately there were reports that an effort had been made to derail the train, and the reports were given some color by the remarks of one railroad man, who said that in his opinion some one must have used a heavy hammer on the rail to cause such a break.

Later the railroad officials explained that the break was due to a chilled rail, imperfect in manufacture, which had given way under the weight of a heavy freight train which had just passed by. The version was generally accepted.

Sons of Jonadab Plan To Extend Their Work

The Independent Order Sons of Jonadab, which is now confining its work to the District of Columbia, plans to extend its work, according to Grand Chief John C. Daly.

Capt. John C. Daly has been grand chief of the organization since its founding, in 1902, was re-elected to that office at the concluding session of the annual convention of the organization, held in the hall of Capitol Harmony Council, No. 5, 24 B street southwest, last night.

G. A. R. POST KEEPS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

J. B. Royce, Only Surviving Charter Member of John A. Rawlins Post, Attends.

With Department Commander A. J. Hutton and staff as guests, and a number of representatives of various veterans organizations present, John A. Rawlins Post No. 1, Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., celebrated its golden anniversary at G. A. R. Hall last night.

The occasion brought together many members and ex-members of the post who have not seen each other for years, and in addition to the speechmaking there were many reunions of men who have left the post to form other organizations in the G. A. R. James B. Royce, the only surviving charter member of the post now living in the city, was the recipient of much attention.

Department Commander Samuel R. Stratton presided, sketched the history of the organization.

SUES TO RECOVER NEEDHAM INSURANCE

Asserts Aeroplane Fall Did Not Invalidate Policy.

Mary M. Needham, widow of Henry Beech Needham, newspaper writer, who was killed when an aeroplane fell on her, has brought suit in the District Supreme Court to recover $4,000.00 on a life insurance policy held by Needham.

The Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company is the defendant. The plaintiff asserts the policy was taken out January 17, 1911, by her husband. The policy is declared not to have contained any provision that prevented the insured from making an aerial flight after the first year.

Mr. Needham died June 17, 1915. The suit was filed by Attorneys J. J. Darlington and W. C. Sullivan.
