

DOINGS AND GOSSIP OF CAPITAL SOCIETY

Interesting Record of the Activities of the City's Smart Set.

LENTEN SEASON OBSERVED

Formal Events Generally Being Dispensed With During the Forty-Day Period.

A pretty Lenten wedding was that of Miss Elizabeth Palmer Harlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maynard Harlan, and granddaughter of the late Justice John M. Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, and Roger Alden Derby, of Jackson Springs, N. C., which took place at the bride's home in N street, late yesterday.

Canadian Minister Officializes

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Law, of Toronto, Canada, at the home of the bride's parents, at 4:30 o'clock, and a reception for the relatives and a few intimate friends followed at 5 o'clock.

A green and white decoration prevailed throughout the house, and a stringed quartet played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sisters, Miss Janet Harlan and Miss Edith Harlan, as bridesmaids.

Benjamin Joy, of Boston, acted as best man and the ushers were John Marshall Harlan, brother of the bride, and her cousin, Charles Marshall Butler, of Yorkers, N. Y.

Mr. Derby and his bride left late in the afternoon for their wedding trip. They will reside at Jackson Springs, N. C.

Miss Agnes Hart Wilson was hostess yesterday at a large buffet luncheon given in compliment to Miss Grace Gromna, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Asa J. Gromna, whose marriage to Carl W. Lewis will take place Wednesday.

An effective decoration of pink and white carnations was in place in the drawing room, and in the dining room the table was adorned with a centerpiece of Aaron Ward roses and pink and white sweetpeas.

List of Guests.

The guests invited to meet Miss Gromna included Mrs. Joseph A. Herbert, Miss Amy Gromna, Miss Dorothy Bennett, Miss Edith Benham, Miss Rutter, Mrs. Joe H. Eagle, Miss Natalie Dulles, Miss Jane Gregory, Miss Clara May Brooks, Miss Ira Hawley, Mrs. John B. Denmore, Miss Denmore, Miss Alice Page, Miss Hardy, Mrs. James Pryor Tarvin, Miss Mattie Marshall Curd, Miss Margaret Trimble, Miss Mary Webb, Mrs. Sumner Curtis, Mrs. Frank Henton, Mrs. Jane Austin, Miss Sybil Hayes, Miss Laura Volstead, Mrs. Hugh L. Kerwin, Mrs. J. A. B. Smith, Mrs. Emmet C. Judger, Mrs. Edith Hopwood, Mrs. W. B. Sadgert, Miss Marguerite Frear, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Frank Henton, Mrs. E. J. Heaton, Mrs. Alfred Hampton, Miss Lillian Helgeson, Miss Gladys Helgeson, Mrs. Frank B. Lord, Mrs. Jerry Mathews, and Miss Polly Parker, of Boston, Mass., who is the house guest of Miss May Wilson.

Hostess At Luncheon.

Mrs. James A. Reed, wife of Senator Reed, gave a beautiful luncheon yesterday at her residence in Blittmore street to meet her house guest, Miss Dorothy Browne, of Kansas City, Mo.

Pink roses and white lilies formed the table decoration and there were bouquets of pink sweet peas at each place. The guests were Mrs. C. H. T. Lowndes, Mrs. Charles Bayly, Mrs. Charles Nelson Riker, Miss Maebel Stone, Miss Amy Bennett, Miss Dorothy Shuey, Miss Pauline Stone, Miss Helen Claxton, Miss Josephine G. Gleeskinf and Miss Hildegarde Hurley.

Will Be At Home Tomorrow.

Mrs. George Barnett will be at home tomorrow, February 26, the last time during Lent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Sachs, of 1612 Sixth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anna Dorothy Sachs, to Abe Louis Kline.

Will Be At Home Tomorrow.

Mrs. George Barnett will be at home tomorrow, February 26, the last time during Lent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Sachs, of 1612 Sixth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anna Dorothy Sachs, to Abe Louis Kline.

Mr. John Miller Horton will give a large reception on Tuesday afternoon from 5 to 7 at the New Willard for the national officers, regents, and other chapter officers.

Tomie Festivities End.

The annual George Washington Birthday festivities at Tomie School ended last night when the curtain lowered for the last time on "The Magic Lamp," a delightful one-act musical comedy presented by twenty-four of the students, including a chorus of sixteen.

The book is by Chauncey L. Parsons, head of the English department, and the score by Thomas Moss, the musical director. The cast included Greer McIlwain, John Harper Moore, George Francis Kelley, Milward Lee Simpson, and Gwynn W. Rust, of Washington. In the chorus were Hamilton C. Albaugh, Robert F. Bradford, John Brook Buckley, George W. Gleason, Marshall E. Fridmore, Earl Brantley Fridmore, William Robert Dey, John Gordon Bassett, Edwin Hanson Webster, James Starr Nicholson, Frank Stanley McCauley, Ira Miles Appel, Donald C. Brock, Frederick Lee Hardesty, Elias F. Buckley, and Edward V. Rawlings. Earlier in the evening the real drama of the play presented George Bernard Shaw's "The Man of Destiny." The four characters were George Warren Brewster, Earnshaw Cook, Russell Luckow, and George Marshall.

Grade Teachers Meet.

The Grade Teachers' Association of Washington held its first social meeting of the Home Club, in Jackson place, on Saturday evening.

Invitations were issued to all the other school organizations, and a representative crowd of 250 teachers attended the meeting.

Brief addresses were made by the Rev. John Van Shalk, Jr., president of the Board of Education, and by Superintendent of Schools Ernest L. Thurston. Miss Clara Stutz, president of the association, presented the speakers.

A delightful musical program was interspersed throughout the evening. Mrs. Jesse W. Rawlings gave several numbers on the piano.

Miss Elizabeth Wilbur gave the following numbers on the violin with rare skill and harm. Le Cygne, Saint-Saens; Lieberleid, Fritz Kreisler; Serenade; Pierre; Viennese Popular Song; Fritz Kreisler; Traumer, Schumann.

The hall room, in which the meeting was held, was artistically decorated with hanging evergreens interspersed with electric lights, giving the room a tropical air.

Food was served in the dining room by Miss Edna Crump, Miss Hilda Kohr, Miss Annie Meyers, and Miss K. I. Noonan.

The evening's entertainment was under the direction of Miss Anne Walker, assisted by the other members of the committee, including Miss Lucy Lynch, Miss Mary Droney and Miss Scammell.

The Grade Teachers' Association, which was formally organized in October, 1916, now includes a membership of over 400 teachers.

Married Last Sunday.

The marriage of Miss Lena Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, of this city, to Joseph G. Lovins, of Philadelphia, was solemnized at Carroll Institute last Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, the Rabbi Silverstone officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Mollie Lewis as maid of honor. The bride's gown was of white satin with silver bodice, elaborately trimmed with pearls, and the court train was of silver cloth. Her tulle veil was carried in a basket of pink roses. The bride's mother's gown was of black crepe meteer and georgette crepe.

The bridesmaids were Miss Marion T. Leven, Miss Anna E. Lewis, Miss Lena Ludde, Miss Ruth Cohen, Miss Lucille Chester, and Miss Beatie Clayman. Oswald Levin, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the following acted as ushers: Morris Tolstoid, Harry Levin, Samuel Hinkel, David Levin, Samuel Clayman, and Louis Rosen.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Richter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Levin, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cohen, Mrs. Mary Bloom, Harry Levin, grandfather of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosenthal, Mr. and Mrs. M. Deitch, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Levin, David Zeff, I. Hersch, and M. H. Levin, father of the groom, all of Philadelphia; Sol Abelson, Miss Ida Abelson, Mrs. P. Ludde, Miss Beatie Clayman, of Altoona, Pa.; Miss Lucille Cluster and Miss Dorothy Cheaterman, of Baltimore, Md.

The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon trip which will spend at the Bermuda Islands and West Indies. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Levin will be at home about the second week in March, and will reside in Philadelphia.

TEUTONS' BAZAAR IS OFF

Benefit for Central Power War Sufferers indefinitely postponed.

The bazaar for the relief of war sufferers in the central nations of Europe, which was to have been held in Convention Hall February 5 and to continue one week, is "a thing of the past." Martin Wiegand, in charge of preparations for the bazaar, said today that, although a benefit may be held in the future, original plans for the bazaar have been abandoned.

With Convention Hall hung in banners and flags of the United States and the countries of central Europe, and a crew of carpenters putting final touches in preparations for the bazaar, the work came to a sudden stop February 3, when diplomatic relations with Germany were severed.

Mme. von Bernstorff was chief patroness.

It was hoped the bazaar might be held later as a benefit for the American Red Cross, but convention Hall could not be retained indefinitely, and the difficulties met seemed to make this an impracticable plan. Thousands of dollars expended in preparation for the bazaar have been lost.

Mr. Wiegand, asked what might determine the managers to give the bazaar at a later date, said it "all depends on what the times will bring."

TO HEAD CHILDREN'S AID.

William Knowles Cooper, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., elected to succeed Dr. Percival Hall as president of the Board of Children's Guardians in an announcement just made. Other officers elected are vice president, the Rev. Dr. Louis Stern; secretary, Mrs. Walter S. Ufford; and agent, Lawrence Solly. The resignation of Dr. Hall was accepted because of a lack of work as president of Gallaudet College. Mr. Cooper has been a member of the board for several years. Dr. Stern has been a member of the board for eighteen years.

CITY TO BE IN GALA ARRAY WEDNESDAY

Court of Honor Will Be Finished By That Time and All Plans Completed.

FINAL REPORTS PREPARED

Committees and Subcommittees to Wind Up Preliminary Work This Week.

Washington will be completely in inaugural dress by Wednesday of this week. The magnificent court of honor in front of the White House; the State courts in Pennsylvania avenue; and all arrangements for the pageant marking the second inauguration of President Wilson will be completed.

This assurance was given today by Col. R. N. Harper, chairman of the inaugural committee, and Alvin G. Belt, secretary of the committee, who were closeted in inaugural headquarters all day, adding the finishing touches to the vast task of superintending the elaborate arrangements.

Full Meeting Wednesday.

Wednesday the full inaugural committee will meet in the red room of the New Willard to apply the stamp of approval on all plans for the demonstration of Monday next.

Final reports of committee chairmen and subcommittee heads will be made then, and barges and decorations, denoting the specific portion of the committee to which each member is attached, will be distributed.

It was decided today by Chairman George R. Linkins, chairman of the committee on civic organizations, and Melvin C. Hazen, chief of staff of the division, that Gov. Richard L. Manning and his staff, of South Carolina, would be the first State organization in the civic division.

Divided into Five Brigades.

The division will be divided into five brigades, and the organizations will be given precedence in the line of march by the age of the States from which they come. Five governors and their staffs will be allotted space in the civic division and the marching organizations of each State will be placed immediately behind the governors.

Governors accompanied by military organizations will be assigned to space in the military division of the pageant.

Mrs. W. M. Stoner, in charge of the women's division of the parade, announced today that the Women's Trade Union League, of Baltimore, with 150 members in street attire and carrying flags, would participate.

Marylanders in Line.

Chairman Harper was informed today that the Maryland State troops to march would include the First and Fourth regiments and Troop A, in addition to Governor Harrington and staff. The members of the Fifth Maryland, not desiring to ask for longer time off from their occupations in civil life, have decided not to participate.

In order to prevent congestion at Union Station, admission to the building will be confined to those "on business only" from midnight March 3 to noon of March 5. This rule will apply to the concourse and the general waiting room.

The only portion of the building to be excepted will be the ticket lobby where transportation may be purchased and parcels checked. The center front and the east door of the building will be used solely for exits, and entrance will be gained only through the west door.

G. A. R. and Boy Scouts.

The G. A. R. division in the inaugural parade will be led by the Boy Scout Band, according to an announcement by A. H. Frear, department commander. It is the desire of the commander of the division and the department commander that as many members as possible shall march. Those who do not feel able to march from Four-and-a-half street and Pennsylvania avenue, where the division is to assemble, are requested to join the division at Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

Junior Vice Commander H. B. Snyder will be in charge of the contingent assembling at Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

The following staff officers of the department have been appointed: Assistant adjutant general, O. H. Oldroyd; assistant quartermaster general, Walter Hilton; judge advocate, E. W. Whitaker; chief recruiting officer, George M. Rowe; inspector, E. D. Godfrey; assistant patriotic instructor, Charles R. Douglas; chief of staff, R. E. Harlow, and color bearer, Briscoe Goodhart.

Other appointments recently made are: Council of administration—Archibald Burgess, C. N. Robinson, Convis Parker, Alfred Shaw, and E. D. Godfrey. Representatives to National Encampment—Abram Myers, Theodore H. Brown, R. F. Davis, Alfred Shaw, and I. D. Williamson.

Alternates to the National Encampment—Jeremiah Will, F. R. Sparks, Lucius D. Alden, Nelson J. Hooker, and H. F. Hayden.

MRS. ANNA R. PARSONS DEAD.

Mrs. Anna R. Parsons, widow of the Rev. W. K. Parsons, who for many years was connected with the Lutheran Church of the Reformation in this city, is dead in Cambridge, Mass. Mrs. Parsons was prominent in musical circles and was an active church worker. She is survived by six sons.

Last Week's Winners

Washington, D. C., February 14, 1917. To the Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—I take a great pleasure in reading The Times advertisements. Last August I purchased a hemp hat and had not worn it very long before it became yellow. I came to the conclusion that it would be better to lay it away until towards spring. About two weeks ago I took my hat to the Vienna Hat Co., 45 11th st. N. W., to have it dyed and I called on the latest spring style. When I called for my hat I could scarcely realize that it was the same one I had taken there. It certainly was beautiful. I cannot speak too highly in recommending their work to all those who read The Times.

EMILY MYERS, 1717 Pennsylvania ave. N. W.

Washington, D. C., February 15, 1917. The Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—Being a diligent reader of your paper I notice the ad. of the Ladies' Hat Factory, which I had the pleasure of visiting. I look my hat in the hat to the above place and they remedied it in the latest style, which was very satisfactory to me. Their work is of the "highest class" and their prices reasonable. If you give them a trial you will be fully convinced with their work. Yours truly, M. E. BEYER, 612 D St. S. W.

Washington, D. C., February 17, 1917. Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—In reading over your advertisements in last Sunday's Times, I would be pleased to recommend anyone who needs a hat reblocked or new hat frames to Galbraith's. I have bought several frames there and had one reblocked which was very satisfactory. I think any one trying them once will be pleased with their work. Respectfully, MRS. B.

Washington, D. C., February 18, 1917. Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—My teeth were bad and also my health. My friend recommended me to see Dr. Waldo. Painless Dentistry, 14th and U Sts. N. W., and I am glad to state that after a few visits brought such good results that I soon looked and felt like a new person. I wish to recommend those with bad teeth to give Dr. Waldo a trial and have a lot of happiness. Bad teeth cause bad health. Any dental work done in Dr. Waldo's way is the only and safest way. Prices are low and all work guaranteed and painless. Yours most respectfully, MRS. BERTHA BATTIS, 1214 2nd St. S. E.
