

ITEMS OF INTEREST IN AND ABOUT TOWN

Happenings of the Day In Various Parts of the Nation's Capital.

Irish wit made a deep impression this morning on one of the strike breaking conductors. "This is a bad morning for the celebration," remarked a passenger. "It is that," came the reply, "but it seems to be raining green things."

"Washington is strong for St. Patrick," said the Irishman. "I'm glad to hear it," answered the conductor, "they're not so thoughtful where I come from."

After a second's thought he remarked, rather sarcastically, "Why, they even run green cars here."

"Worse than that," flashed the Irishman; "worse than that. They're even using green motorbuses and green conductors."

Knife On Corns Causes Lockjaw Tells how to loosen a tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezeone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers. It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply shrivel the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.—Adv.

"Damned to Everlasting Fame!"

are the words used by the Chicago Herald to condemn the Senators who filibustered the Armed Neutrality Bill to death. Other papers throughout the country are scarcely less harsh in expressing their feelings.

There can be little doubt that this vigorous phrase represents in a measure the wave of anger that swept the country and aroused the majority of the Senators themselves to make a change in the Senate rules, to make filibustering tactics in the face of a great international crisis impossible.

Whatever may have been the motives of the filibusters, their action evokes much enthusiasm in the German press abroad. The Frankfurter Zeitung hails them as "fine Americans who remain uncontaminated by Wilson's blind devotion to England."

In our own country the Emergency Peace Federation bestows its admiration upon the filibusters and says that "we believe you represent a vast, the unknown, part of the Americans whose earnest desire it is that this country should not be drawn into war directly or indirectly."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 17th, every phase of the controversy raging over the Senate's action, is covered from every angle. Not only public opinion in America is shown, but that of Germany and England.

Other articles of supreme interest at the present time are:

Foreign Testimony to the News-Value of The Digest

In a recent letter to the editor of THE LITERARY DIGEST a European reader of this uniquely serviceable news-magazine makes the statement that the news in THE DIGEST is two weeks old when it reaches him, it is nevertheless so well presented and so impartially comprehensive in its scope that he is able to get a better idea of what is going on in Europe than by reading the press of that day in his own country, now at war. This piece of testimony is very much to the point, as it makes clear the fact that only the unbiased observer can accurately assemble and present the facts regarding any great issue, be it war, politics, or religion, and that no partisan periodical can afford a fair or wholly reliable view of them. THE DIGEST is such an observer, analyzing, comparing, recording all news of interest, holding a brief for no party and for no school. It gives you the undistorted facts. Read it and be convinced.
