

BULL RUN MAGNET FOR BLUE AND GRAY Veterans of Both Sides to Meet at Manassas.

TOWN PREPARES RECEPTION Hundreds at Reunion Saw Service on That Field.

One of the features of the Confederate reunion will be staged at Manassas, Va., tomorrow when members of the Grand Army of the Republic will gather on the historic battlefields of Bull Run with hundreds of Confederate veterans.

A handsome bronze badge is being planned on each veteran as soon as he has registered. The purpose of the badge is to serve as a memento and to possess the soldier's loss their cards. Under the shield and eagle on the badge is inscribed the following words: "We answered the call in '61. We'll gain it if needed."

Smoothed-faced veterans are few and far between. Just as essential as his red hair and whiskers, a veteran seems, is a gray goatee, or some display of mustache or whiskers.

John Dolph, in charge of the registration booth at Union Station, and his corps of more than a score of helpers were pushed to the extent of their abilities during the night and early morning. This booth will be open for some time until the last veteran has started back to his home on June 5. Among those assisting Mr. Dolph are David Caldwell, Thomas W. Bammah, and William J. Neale.

As strict a guard is being kept at the Union Station as was in force during the period of the last reunion. Only persons holding tickets are allowed to traverse the concourse.

In the interest of those veterans who prefer to see the moving pictures of the European battle fronts will be shown at the east front of the Capitol every night during the reunion. The show will start at 8 o'clock. Music will be furnished by a section of the Marine Band.

George K. Armes, son of Col. George A. Armes, formerly a well-known figure in Washington, is here for the reunion. Mr. Armes, who saw service in the Spanish-American war, has not been here since the return of the troops from Cuba in 1898.

The District branch of the National Sons of Confederate Veterans, Inc., is holding a reunion at the Washington Hotel, Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Miss Lucy Burns, of New York, will be the principal speaker.

W. W. Roper, of Sylvester, Ga., has arrived. Sylvester was the flag bearer in Company E, Third Georgia Infantry, under General Sherman. He still carries a wound received while holding the flag of the "Third" on high.

W. W. Gibson, from Elkhart, is another recent arrival at the Union Station. After taking a view of the Capitol, Gibson made straight for the "tent city."

"The Confederate Veteran," the official magazine of the soldiers in gray, received a wide sale today at the numerous newsstands and book stores.

Henry A. Lee, a veteran of the Richmond campaign, and his black bulldog "Rebel" reached town yesterday from Atlanta, Ga.

Late arrivals at the Union Station include G. W. Smithson, Rocky Mount, N. C.; Joel Lee, Camp No. 60, Besley, N. C.; and W. H. Lipscomb, Richmond, Va.

"Bob" France, of the Fortieth Virginia Infantry, Confederate Army, landed in town yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Randolph McKim, chaplain of Camp 171, of the veterans, has announced that a room has been set aside for the use of his comrades in a new hall of the Church of the Epiphany on G street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets northwest.

Major Pullman will augment his police force for the handling of the big Confederate parade on Thursday with 100 men from the police force in Baltimore. Details from all parts of the country have promised to be on hand to aid Inspector Grant's force to protect the visitors and residents of the city from crooks.

Gen. J. Colton Lynes, former adjutant general of the Georgia division, U. S. V., and a member of the staff of Commander in Chief Harrison, is stopping with M. T. Henderson, 1008 Eleventh street northwest.

Announcement is made by A. L. Sinclair, in charge of the registration booth at Union Station, that he will be glad to hear from persons who have rooms they desire to list with him. Numerous complex situations are being occasioned through the sending of aged veterans to quarters already engaged, though no notice of this fact has been transmitted to the committee. The phone number is Main 9052.

Comrade G. M. Agee, of Virginia, declares that the food which is being served in the "tent city" is the "best grub 'tve tasted since the war."

Robert Hall, flag bearer of Camp No. 1462, Reidsville, N. C., accompanied by nineteen other veterans, were among the early morning arrivals.

Scores of comfortable rocking chairs have been placed on the concourse of the Union Station for veterans awaiting their credentials.

A handsome bronze badge is being planned on each veteran as soon as he has registered. The purpose of the badge is to serve as a memento and to possess the soldier's loss their cards.

John Dolph, in charge of the registration booth at Union Station, and his corps of more than a score of helpers were pushed to the extent of their abilities during the night and early morning.

As strict a guard is being kept at the Union Station as was in force during the period of the last reunion. Only persons holding tickets are allowed to traverse the concourse.

In the interest of those veterans who prefer to see the moving pictures of the European battle fronts will be shown at the east front of the Capitol every night during the reunion.

George K. Armes, son of Col. George A. Armes, formerly a well-known figure in Washington, is here for the reunion.

The District branch of the National Sons of Confederate Veterans, Inc., is holding a reunion at the Washington Hotel, Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

W. W. Roper, of Sylvester, Ga., has arrived. Sylvester was the flag bearer in Company E, Third Georgia Infantry, under General Sherman.

Henry A. Lee, a veteran of the Richmond campaign, and his black bulldog "Rebel" reached town yesterday from Atlanta, Ga.

Late arrivals at the Union Station include G. W. Smithson, Rocky Mount, N. C.; Joel Lee, Camp No. 60, Besley, N. C.; and W. H. Lipscomb, Richmond, Va.

"Bob" France, of the Fortieth Virginia Infantry, Confederate Army, landed in town yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Randolph McKim, chaplain of Camp 171, of the veterans, has announced that a room has been set aside for the use of his comrades in a new hall of the Church of the Epiphany on G street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets northwest.

Major Pullman will augment his police force for the handling of the big Confederate parade on Thursday with 100 men from the police force in Baltimore.

Gen. J. Colton Lynes, former adjutant general of the Georgia division, U. S. V., and a member of the staff of Commander in Chief Harrison, is stopping with M. T. Henderson, 1008 Eleventh street northwest.

Somehow in Washington is a Confederate veteran who, though eighty-five years of age, is today bowed by grief, not by his years.

The special committee named by the North Carolina Society to arrange for the entertainment of visiting veterans is composed of Dr. Wade H. Atkinson, chairman; Mrs. M. M. Mosley, Mrs. E. C. Bryant, L. Roy Price, Peter M. Wilson, Thomas M. Robertson, Senator George B. McLeod, Samuel L. Rogers, Whitehead Klutts, W. W. Scott, Dr. Thomas Linville, and Col. Robert W. Linsler.

S. C. V. CONVENTION TO START REUNION National Encampment Opens at Arcade This Evening.

500 DELEGATES ARE IN CITY Young Men Will Act While Seniors Are Resting.

While their fathers are "easing up" after the fatigue of their journey, the Sons of Confederate Veterans will this evening come to the fore when they formally convene at the Arcade, Northwest street and Park road, Northwest. There is to be no ball during Reunion Week as the daughters of Confederate Veterans, too, will stage some of their various activities.

The headquarters of the Sons of Confederate Veterans are in the Raleigh Hotel and they bustle with the same activity as those of their fathers. It is estimated that about 500 delegates are in the city.

Registration Delays Governors. Disappointment is being felt by some of the sections because the governors from some of the most Southern States will not be able to get up for the opening of the reunion on account of tomorrow being registration day in their States.

The convention this evening will be held to order by W. E. Brockman, commander of the District Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Music will be furnished by the Marine Band. There will be several numbers rendered by the United Confederate Chords of America.

Mayor Mitchell Chief Speaker. Claude M. Bennett, chairman of the citizens' entertainment committee, will also make an address of welcome.

From 8:30 until 10 p. m. this evening there will be motion pictures of the European battle fronts at the east front of the Capitol.

McADOO AGAIN TOURS FOR LIBERTY BONDS Will Range From Boston to New Orleans on Trip.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo left Washington today for New York, where he will begin his second speaking campaign for the Liberty loan.

Probably the most picturesque of the veterans at Union Station was J. P. Dowling, First Infantry, Atlanta, Ga. He wore a complete Confederate uniform, spotless and pressed.

L. H. Mason, of Terrell, Tex., removes his gray felt hat and exhibits a bald head and points out a scar.

Sir John Wootton Ends Life in Rooming House. PITTSBURGH, June 4.—"Suicide" probably arsenic poisoning, is the memorandum on a recent sheet at the life story of Sir John James Bassett Wootton, Ph. D., till recently organist at the Sixth Presbyterian Church here, an English baronet and holder of Diplomas from the Royal College of Music, London; Oxford University, and the Royal Conservatory, Leipzig.

RED CROSS PLANS BIG JUNE DRIVE Week Beginning May 18th Makes Special Call.

CAPITAL SURE TO RESPOND Over $200,000 Already Subscribed Here, Says Macfarland.

The finance committee of the District Chapter of the Red Cross began to lay its plans today for a mammoth drive for subscriptions during Red Cross week, which begins June 18.

It was regarded today as certain by Chairman Henry E. F. Macfarland, of the District finance committee, that Washington will give its quota of $200,000 for the duration of the war.

Renewed talk of ending the session by July 1 found little to back it up at the Capitol today.

The food regulation measure, is also expected to cause lengthy and bitter debate in the House.

Donor of Statue Keeps Name Secret Memorial to Hamilton is Gift of New York Woman.

A statue of Alexander Hamilton, first Secretary of the Treasury, and one of the founders of the Republic, is to be erected on the plaza south of the Treasury Department.

The statue is a gift from a New York woman, an admirer of the General of Hamilton, who asked that her name be kept secret.

ZION LUTHERAN HAS JUBILEE THIS WEEK Church Celebrates Fiftieth Anniversary of Its Organization.

The Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, founded in 1867, by thirty-three families and their pastor, the Rev. W. A. Frey, who withdrew from the old St. John's Church on the South Side, is celebrating its fiftieth anniversary this week.

RELIGION BEST LAW POWER So Declares Rev. Dudley to Law College Graduates.

"Religion is best to enforce laws," so said the Rev. F. Dudley, yesterday in his baccalaureate sermon to the Washington College of Law at St. Stephen's Church.

To Those Who Want the Best HESS SHOES Most Strongly Appeal

The surpassing skill of master shoemakers— together with the finest materials obtainable— contributes to the perfection of HESS SHOES. Men who look for both quality and style in footwear find full measure of both in the masterfully designed shoes created by the house of Hess.

THE SHOPPING CENTER The PALAIS ROYAL

Two Columns of Tuesday Economies

THE ANNUAL JUNE SALE UNDERMUSLINS AT ECONOMY PRICES

Literally thousands of new Summer Undergarments—and all at unusual economy prices, for three days. Tomorrow—Tuesday—will be the second day of these special prices—39c to $3.75 lingerie at 19c to $2.98.

The New Lingerie 255 Styles at 89c

The finish and fit of this Underwear has to be judged personally. The new features include red-tinge and marcella combinations, carnival stitch embroidery gowns, wicker and Windsor Crepe Gowns, sunproof and elastic top.

Our Bargain Basement

A permanent place for thrift and husbandry—but rarely so much so as promised for tomorrow. Hundreds of Suits, Dresses, and Coats are to be grouped into lots and re-priced so as to give eloquent expression to our slogan: Tuesday Economies.

CLOTH SUITS—That constitute $10.00 to $15.00 lots and re-priced for choice, $6.50

NAVY SUITS—These cloth suits, the season's best selling lots, at $12.50 to $15.00, re-priced at $8.98

SILK DRESSES—The special sizes and styles for misses and petite women. Were $13.00 to $17.50. Re-priced for to-morrow at $13.75

Tuesday's Economies On Basement Tables

These tables are an important feature of this "Bargain Basement." The "buyers" promise unusual Economies for this Tuesday, summarized below.

DRESS GOODS 9c Values to 35c

MIDDY BLOUSES 39c Of Good Galatea

RUSSIA CRASH 14c 1,115 yards at

WINDSOR NAINSOOK 12-yard pieces $1.49

DAINTY VOILES 15c 1,500 yards on sale

VOILE WAISTS 43c You'll judge worth 75c

SPORT SUITINGS 21c Wanted and scarce

BRITISH BARONET IS DEAD BY OWN HAND

Sir John Wootton Ends Life in Rooming House.

PITTSBURGH, June 4.—"Suicide" probably arsenic poisoning, is the memorandum on a recent sheet at the life story of Sir John James Bassett Wootton, Ph. D., till recently organist at the Sixth Presbyterian Church here, an English baronet and holder of Diplomas from the Royal College of Music, London; Oxford University, and the Royal Conservatory, Leipzig.

REAL contentment don't take up much room. You can find it in the smallest cottage or in a pipe of Velvet.

HERE is the contentment smokers find in Velvet. A cool, slow-burning mellowness that can be only in one kind of tobacco. And that is the best Kentucky Burley age-mellowed two years in Nature's way—Velvet!

It's time that you tried Velvet.

Over sixty models of Hess Oxfords at five to ten dollars the pair.

N. Hess' Sons, 931 Pa. Ave. You'll be correctly fitted at Hess'

BASEMENT STORE. VARIOUS RUGS Washable and Sanitary $1.59

WINDOW SHADES 29c Seconds of 55c grade

WINDOW SHADES 39c Standard at 60c

BASEMENT STORE. SUMMER CURTAINS Usually $2.25

BASEMENT STORE. GUEST TOWELS Size 22x14 inches 9c

BASEMENT STORE. TABLE DAMASK 72 inches wide, yard 49c

BASEMENT STORE. COTTON PONGEE 11c White and colors, at