

The Social Side of Washington; Personal Notes of Interest

Mrs. Wilson Entertains Baron Moncheur of Belgian Mission and Accompanying Guests at an Afternoon Tea.

Baron Ludovic Moncheur, head of the Belgian mission, accompanied by General Leclercq, also of the mission, and Hugh Gibson of the State Department, will call at the White House this afternoon at 4 o'clock when they will be entertained at tea by Mrs. Wilson.

President Wilson entertained the Russian mission headed by his excellency Prof. Boris A. Bakhmeteff, at dinner last evening in the White House. There were no ladies at table. The Marine Band played in the corridor and the table decorations were of pink roses and maidenhair fern.

The Vice President, Thomas H. Marshall, His Excellency, Prof. Boris A. Bakhmeteff, Lieut. Gen. Vladimir Roup, Prof. G. V. Lomonosoff, Prof. N. A. Borodine, Col. V. V. Oranovsky, Vladimir Novitsky, John J. Sookine, Captain Dubasoff, Capt. C. V. Shur, Gen. N. M. Khrabroff, Michael M. Karpovich, Baron Theodore de Gunzburg, Lieut. Dmitriy A. Martynoff, Prof. Perizoff, Vladimir Pouchkareff, Nicholas N. Sergueievsky, Eugene S. Zach, The Charge d'Affaires of Russia, C. Onou, The Speaker of the House, Champ Clark, The Secretary of State, Robert Lansing, The Secretary of War, Newton D. Baker, The Attorney General, T. W. Gregory, The Postmaster General, A. S. Burleson, The Secretary of the Navy, Joseph Daniels, The Secretary of the Interior, Franklin K. Lane, The Secretary of Agriculture, David F. Houston, The Secretary of Commerce, William E. Redfield, The Secretary of Labor, William B. Wilson, The Secretary to the President, Joseph Tumulty, Justice Joseph H. McKenna, Senator Albert B. Cummins, Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, Senator Gilbert N. Hitchcock, Senator Philander C. Knox, Senator Thomas S. Martin, Senator Knute Nelson, Senator Robert L. Owen, Senator Carroll S. Page, Senator Ellison D. Smith, Congressman Sidney Anderson, Congressman John G. Cooper, Congressman John J. Fitzgerald, Congressman John N. Garner, Congressman Willis C. Hawley, Congressman J. Thomas Heflin, Congressman M. Clyde Kelly, Congressman George R. Lunn, Congressman Martin B. Madden, Congressman James H. May, Congressman Andrew Montague, Congressman Edward W. Pou, Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, Maj. Gen. Erasmus Weaver, Surg. Gen. W. C. Brantley, Brig. Gen. Enoch H. Crowder, Brig. Gen. Frank McIntyre, Brig. Gen. William A. Mann, Brig. Gen. Lejeune, John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency and the Assistant Secretary of State, William Phillips, and Assistant Secretary of State Breckinridge Long.

President and Mrs. Wilson enjoyed a horse back ride together in the suburbs of the city early this morning.

Prof. Boris A. Bakhmeteff and the other members of the Russian mission will be entertained at dinner this evening by Secretary of State, Mr. Robert Lansing. The guests will include ladies and will number thirty-eight.

The Belgian special mission, headed by Baron Ludovic Moncheur, entertained at dinner last evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson. There were sixteen guests, including the Belgian minister, Baron Emil de Marchienne de Cartier.

Baron Moncheur and his colleagues will dine quietly this evening at the Anderson residence, where they have their headquarters.

Baron Moncheur and the members of the Belgian mission, Baron Emil de Marchienne de Cartier, the Belgian minister, several members of the French High Commission, the Spanish Ambassador and Mrs. Riano and several Belgian aviators, including the Belgian minister, Baron Emil de Marchienne de Cartier, were among the distinguished guests at the dinner dance which Mrs. Marshall hosted last evening. There were thirty-six guests for dinner and about 100 additional guests for the dance which followed.

Dr. Luis Galvan, charge d'affaires of the Dominican republic, was host at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday.

Miss Dorothy Barnes was maid of honor at the marriage of her sister, Miss Sylvia Leland Barnes, and Lieut. Comdr. Forde Anderson Todd, U. S. N., which took place yesterday at 4 o'clock at 910 1/2 Ave. N. W., in the presence of the members of the two families. The bridesmaids were Miss E. G. Martin and Miss Cecily Barnes, another sister of the bride.

Neilson Edwards was best man and Joseph Wharton Lippincott and Henry C. Barclay, ushers. A large reception of friends followed the ceremony.

Capt. and Mrs. Henry Lee Watson

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Requires no change in case, simple, durable, efficient and easy to pump. Guaranteed for 25 years. Send for descriptive illustrated catalogue and prices for installation.

Player Installation Dept. ARTHUR JORDAN, President. Homer L. Kitt, Secy. & Treas.

Only government in special made go into our language.

40 Years The Standard —Auth's Sausage is recognized as the best. It appeals to every taste. Adds zest to the meals.

ASK YOUR GROCER N. Auth Provision Co., 623 D Street S. W.

WHY NOT MOUNT ALTO INN For the summer? 15 minutes away. 15 cents cooler. Wis. Ave. and Davis St. Tel. West 1860.

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Requires no change in case, simple, durable, efficient and easy to pump. Guaranteed for 25 years. Send for descriptive illustrated catalogue and prices for installation.

Player Installation Dept. ARTHUR JORDAN, President. Homer L. Kitt, Secy. & Treas.

Only government in special made go into our language.

40 Years The Standard —Auth's Sausage is recognized as the best. It appeals to every taste. Adds zest to the meals.

ASK YOUR GROCER N. Auth Provision Co., 623 D Street S. W.

MISS HOWARD WIFE OF HARVARD MAN

Washington Girl Married in St. Thomas' Church.

Mrs. Watson, formerly Miss Nellie Ewing, is the daughter of Maj. Charles B. Ewing, Medical Corps, U. S. A., and niece of Paul E. Johnson of this city, at whose home she has been a frequent visitor.

Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, widow of General Grant, U. S. A., entertained at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday in compliment to her son, Ulysses S. Grant, and Mrs. Grant.

Mrs. Moreland Leavitt. Mrs. Andrew Moreland, who is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, former Ambassador to Russia and Mrs. George T. Marye, will leave Washington Sunday for her home in Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Marye will leave Washington July 1 for Burlington, Cal., where they will join Miss Helen Marye, their daughter. Miss Marye left Washington last week with her aunt, Miss Flora Doyle.

Assistant Attorney General Charles Warren, who is visiting relatives in Boston and Plymouth, Mass., will return to Washington Monday. Mrs. Warren has not made any plans for the summer, expecting to be in Washington the greater part of the season.

Miss Reeves Harris, Graham Hodges and Hamilton Warner are attending a house party which Miss Elaine Whittenburg is giving at her home in Pennsylvania. Miss Whittenburg was graduated from the Cathedral School in this city this spring.

MISS BRANDT BRIDE OF WILSON H. CLARK

Pretty Wedding Held in Quincy Place Residence.

One of the pretty weddings of the week was that of Miss Minnie L. Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brandt, and Wilson H. Clark Tuesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents in Quincy place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Schmidt, of Zion Lutheran Church. Miss Frances Brandt, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Hazen Williams was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was of white crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a becoming costume of sea green tulle and carried pink and white sweet peas. The drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, was tastefully decorated with American flags and palms. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Amy Lang.

After a wedding trip, which will include New York city, Atlantic City, and Newark, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home in Quincy July 1 at the Wilson apartments.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Quill, Mr. and Mrs. H. Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hennig, Miss Marie Hennig, Mr. and Mrs. George Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brandt, Mrs. Louise Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schneider, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Becker, Miss Edith Brandt, Mrs. William Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. O'Neill, Milton Clark, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Libbey, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCrone, Miss Edith Clark, Miss Ethel Clark, R. P. Rungerford, Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. C. Foley, H. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer, Paul Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. William Gehm, E. Clark, Hugh Clark, C. Hinton, E. Solan, E. A. Keane, J. D. Smith, B. Ehrmantraut, T. Di Benedetto, M. Caposella, W. Brewer, Miss L. Rossen, N. Wisler, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick, Mrs. Nellie Claffery, Miss Carrie Smallwood, Mrs. Theodore Werdig and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Mitchell, Mrs. M. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kern, H. E. Stansbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Crawford, Rosie Newman, George McPherson, Mrs. A. Stamm, and Miss Isabella Johnson.

Miss Croghan A. Bride. Miss Evelyn McLane Croghan, daughter of Mrs. Edward Krieger was one of the loveliest of the spring brides when she was married yesterday to Lieut. Edwin Charles Mead, Coast Artillery Corps, United States Army. The ceremony took place at noon in the bride's apartment at the Elkton. Rev. C. R. Stetson, rector of St. Mark's Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few close friends. The drawing room was decorated with palms, ferns, and American Beauty roses. There was no formal wedding party, but the bride had as her attendants, Miss Flora Briggs, Miss Daphne Stebbins, Miss Pearl Schwartzman, Miss Lillian Schwarzman, and Miss Nettie Heinlein. They wore becoming light frocks, with corsage bouquets of pink sweet-peas.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Edward Krieger. The couple will make their home in Boston. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Krieger and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krieger, Mr. and Mrs. George Stillman, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zink, Mr. and Mrs. Estner, all of Baltimore, and Mrs. George Boardman, of Alexandria, and members of her family.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Charles H. Stockton have closed their home on O street, and have left for their summer place at Chocoma, N. H.

Fraser-Burdett Nuptials. One of the prettiest of the spring weddings took place last evening when Miss Jean Turner Burdett and Samuel Anderson Fraser were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Le Blood Burdett, in Takoma Park. The ceremony was performed in a large reception.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard, in Sixteenth street, was charmingly decorated with palms and southern Smilax, which veiled the doorways, and graceful branches of Dorothy Perkins roses. In the long drawing room white ribbons attached to flowers, which were formed an aisle through which the bride passed to the white satin altar. The bride wore a gown of soft ivory satin, made on empire lines, with an underskirt of georgette crepe. The bodice was embroidered in pearls, and pearl embroidery touched the front of the bodice on the sleeves of the georgette crepe. Her tulle veil, which was worn over the face and thrown back after the ceremony, was held in place by a narrow band of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore the bridegroom's gift, a pendant of sapphires and diamonds which Miss Margaret Howard, who was her sister's only attendant, wore a dainty frock of empire green tulle, with a wide ribbon of rose, blue, and white. A wing drapery and the tulle fell from the back of the neck, where it was held in place by a narrow orchid-tinted ribbon attached to the front of the bodice on either side, and was caught to the wrists by bracelets of the ribbon. Her flowers were lavender and pale yellow orchids and blue larkspur. Abbott Lane was best man, and Mr. Manning, George Adams Howard, the bride's brother, and George Morris Evans arranged the ribbons which marked the aisle.

Dancing a Feature. A stringed orchestra, hidden behind a screen of smilax and Dorothy Perkins roses, played the wedding music and for the dancing which was a feature of the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Howard received with Mr. Manning and his bride. Mrs. Howard wore a becoming costume of white lace over flesh-colored satin, with a train of blue and silver brocade. The bride's aunt, Miss May Adams, was gowned in blue chiffon brocaded in silver, and made on unusually chic lines. Mr. Howard's niece, Miss Kathryn Gwynn, who makes her home with them, wore a frock of white net and lace.

The guests from out-of-town included Miss Blanche Richardson, Miss Blanche Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. G. Warfield Hobbs, and Miss Mary Hobbs, Cleveland; Fratt Manning, uncle of the bride; Miss Frances Bartlett Manning, and Joseph Manning, all of Baltimore, and the bridegroom's brother, Robert L. Manning, of Manchester.

When Mr. and Mrs. Manning left for their wedding trip the bride wore a modish walking suit of fine navy blue serge, with a vest of gray cloth and gray shoes and hose. Her small black hat was wreathed with gray ostrich tips. They will be at Manchester, N. H., for the summer, going in the autumn to Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Manning is instructor at Harvard University.

Eleanor Tingley Married. Miss Eleanor Tingley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso O. Tingley, and William A. Hammer, son of K. M. Hammer, were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents on Fourteenth street. The Rev. Henry E. Brundage performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and few intimate friends, and a small reception followed. The decorations consisted of quantities of white peonies and pink roses. The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white satin combined with chiffon and trimmed with chantilly lace. Her long tulle veil was fastened with a band of white ribbon, and she carried Bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Abbie Tingley, who was her sister's only attendant, was in a dainty gown of white net over white tulle and carried pink sweet peas. Edward Nickles was best man. Claude Robeson played the wedding march, and during the reception Miss Helen Woytch gave several violin selections. Mrs. Tingley, mother of the bride wore a gown of ecru voile trimmed with handmade lace. Later Mr. and Mrs. Hammer left for a wedding trip, Mrs. Hammer wearing a suit of dark blue tulle with a small black hat trimmed in jet. They will make their home in Washington.

Mrs. Wood, wife of Capt. Spencer S. Wood, accompanied by their daughters, Miss Margetta Wood, and Miss Anne Wood, have left for their cottage at Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Hutchinson, late Joseph Galliard Martin of New Orleans, will take place in August was the honor guest at picnic luncheon and shower which Miss Martha Poole gave this afternoon at her summer home in Ocean View, Md. The other guests were Mrs. Charles Edward Lyons of Worcester, Mass.; Miss Mona Gill, Miss Marguerite Ames, Mrs. Blackwell Smith, Mrs. Frank Addison, Mr. Ernest Mechlin, Miss Camilla DuBois, Mrs. Bowdoin Craighill, Mrs. Basil Boteler, and Miss Kitty Poole.

Mrs. Morris Evans and Miss Meta Morris Evans, after an absence of about a year, have returned to Washington.

Mrs. Walter Wells will leave Washington tonight for White Sulphur Springs, where she will be the guest for several weeks of Mrs. Junius Parker of New York. The children of Dr. and Mrs. Wells left Washington yesterday for Oakland, Md., where they will pass the summer.

Would-Be Suicide Had to Wait Too Long for Train. PIERMONT, N. J., June 22.—When John Dolan, anxious to end his life of woe decided to let a train run over him, he made the mistake of selecting the Erie railroad. Dolan was lying on the track north of Piermont when railroad employes came along. "How long before there'll be a train along on this one-horse road?" he asked, as he raised his neck from the rails. "I've been lying here an hour."

MISS HOWARD WIFE OF HARVARD MAN

Washington Girl Married in St. Thomas' Church.

Mrs. Watson, formerly Miss Nellie Ewing, is the daughter of Maj. Charles B. Ewing, Medical Corps, U. S. A., and niece of Paul E. Johnson of this city, at whose home she has been a frequent visitor.

Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, widow of General Grant, U. S. A., entertained at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday in compliment to her son, Ulysses S. Grant, and Mrs. Grant.

Mrs. Moreland Leavitt. Mrs. Andrew Moreland, who is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, former Ambassador to Russia and Mrs. George T. Marye, will leave Washington Sunday for her home in Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Marye will leave Washington July 1 for Burlington, Cal., where they will join Miss Helen Marye, their daughter. Miss Marye left Washington last week with her aunt, Miss Flora Doyle.

Assistant Attorney General Charles Warren, who is visiting relatives in Boston and Plymouth, Mass., will return to Washington Monday. Mrs. Warren has not made any plans for the summer, expecting to be in Washington the greater part of the season.

Miss Reeves Harris, Graham Hodges and Hamilton Warner are attending a house party which Miss Elaine Whittenburg is giving at her home in Pennsylvania. Miss Whittenburg was graduated from the Cathedral School in this city this spring.

MISS BRANDT BRIDE OF WILSON H. CLARK

Pretty Wedding Held in Quincy Place Residence.

One of the pretty weddings of the week was that of Miss Minnie L. Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brandt, and Wilson H. Clark Tuesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents in Quincy place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Schmidt, of Zion Lutheran Church. Miss Frances Brandt, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Hazen Williams was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was of white crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a becoming costume of sea green tulle and carried pink and white sweet peas. The drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, was tastefully decorated with American flags and palms. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Amy Lang.

After a wedding trip, which will include New York city, Atlantic City, and Newark, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home in Quincy July 1 at the Wilson apartments.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Quill, Mr. and Mrs. H. Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hennig, Miss Marie Hennig, Mr. and Mrs. George Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brandt, Mrs. Louise Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schneider, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Becker, Miss Edith Brandt, Mrs. William Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. O'Neill, Milton Clark, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Libbey, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCrone, Miss Edith Clark, Miss Ethel Clark, R. P. Rungerford, Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. C. Foley, H. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer, Paul Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. William Gehm, E. Clark, Hugh Clark, C. Hinton, E. Solan, E. A. Keane, J. D. Smith, B. Ehrmantraut, T. Di Benedetto, M. Caposella, W. Brewer, Miss L. Rossen, N. Wisler, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick, Mrs. Nellie Claffery, Miss Carrie Smallwood, Mrs. Theodore Werdig and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Mitchell, Mrs. M. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kern, H. E. Stansbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Crawford, Rosie Newman, George McPherson, Mrs. A. Stamm, and Miss Isabella Johnson.

Miss Croghan A. Bride. Miss Evelyn McLane Croghan, daughter of Mrs. Edward Krieger was one of the loveliest of the spring brides when she was married yesterday to Lieut. Edwin Charles Mead, Coast Artillery Corps, United States Army. The ceremony took place at noon in the bride's apartment at the Elkton. Rev. C. R. Stetson, rector of St. Mark's Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few close friends. The drawing room was decorated with palms, ferns, and American Beauty roses. There was no formal wedding party, but the bride had as her attendants, Miss Flora Briggs, Miss Daphne Stebbins, Miss Pearl Schwartzman, Miss Lillian Schwarzman, and Miss Nettie Heinlein. They wore becoming light frocks, with corsage bouquets of pink sweet-peas.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Edward Krieger. The couple will make their home in Boston. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Krieger and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krieger, Mr. and Mrs. George Stillman, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zink, Mr. and Mrs. Estner, all of Baltimore, and Mrs. George Boardman, of Alexandria, and members of her family.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Charles H. Stockton have closed their home on O street, and have left for their summer place at Chocoma, N. H.

Fraser-Burdett Nuptials. One of the prettiest of the spring weddings took place last evening when Miss Jean Turner Burdett and Samuel Anderson Fraser were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Le Blood Burdett, in Takoma Park. The ceremony was performed in a large reception.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard, in Sixteenth street, was charmingly decorated with palms and southern Smilax, which veiled the doorways, and graceful branches of Dorothy Perkins roses. In the long drawing room white ribbons attached to flowers, which were formed an aisle through which the bride passed to the white satin altar. The bride wore a gown of soft ivory satin, made on empire lines, with an underskirt of georgette crepe. The bodice was embroidered in pearls, and pearl embroidery touched the front of the bodice on the sleeves of the georgette crepe. Her tulle veil, which was worn over the face and thrown back after the ceremony, was held in place by a narrow band of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore the bridegroom's gift, a pendant of sapphires and diamonds which Miss Margaret Howard, who was her sister's only attendant, wore a dainty frock of empire green tulle, with a wide ribbon of rose, blue, and white. A wing drapery and the tulle fell from the back of the neck, where it was held in place by a narrow orchid-tinted ribbon attached to the front of the bodice on either side, and was caught to the wrists by bracelets of the ribbon. Her flowers were lavender and pale yellow orchids and blue larkspur. Abbott Lane was best man, and Mr. Manning, George Adams Howard, the bride's brother, and George Morris Evans arranged the ribbons which marked the aisle.

Dancing a Feature. A stringed orchestra, hidden behind a screen of smilax and Dorothy Perkins roses, played the wedding music and for the dancing which was a feature of the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Howard received with Mr. Manning and his bride. Mrs. Howard wore a becoming costume of white lace over flesh-colored satin, with a train of blue and silver brocade. The bride's aunt, Miss May Adams, was gowned in blue chiffon brocaded in silver, and made on unusually chic lines. Mr. Howard's niece, Miss Kathryn Gwynn, who makes her home with them, wore a frock of white net and lace.

The guests from out-of-town included Miss Blanche Richardson, Miss Blanche Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. G. Warfield Hobbs, and Miss Mary Hobbs, Cleveland; Fratt Manning, uncle of the bride; Miss Frances Bartlett Manning, and Joseph Manning, all of Baltimore, and the bridegroom's brother, Robert L. Manning, of Manchester.

When Mr. and Mrs. Manning left for their wedding trip the bride wore a modish walking suit of fine navy blue serge, with a vest of gray cloth and gray shoes and hose. Her small black hat was wreathed with gray ostrich tips. They will be at Manchester, N. H., for the summer, going in the autumn to Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Manning is instructor at Harvard University.

Eleanor Tingley Married. Miss Eleanor Tingley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso O. Tingley, and William A. Hammer, son of K. M. Hammer, were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents on Fourteenth street. The Rev. Henry E. Brundage performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and few intimate friends, and a small reception followed. The decorations consisted of quantities of white peonies and pink roses. The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white satin combined with chiffon and trimmed with chantilly lace. Her long tulle veil was fastened with a band of white ribbon, and she carried Bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Abbie Tingley, who was her sister's only attendant, was in a dainty gown of white net over white tulle and carried pink sweet peas. Edward Nickles was best man. Claude Robeson played the wedding march, and during the reception Miss Helen Woytch gave several violin selections. Mrs. Tingley, mother of the bride wore a gown of ecru voile trimmed with handmade lace. Later Mr. and Mrs. Hammer left for a wedding trip, Mrs. Hammer wearing a suit of dark blue tulle with a small black hat trimmed in jet. They will make their home in Washington.

Mrs. Wood, wife of Capt. Spencer S. Wood, accompanied by their daughters, Miss Margetta Wood, and Miss Anne Wood, have left for their cottage at Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Hutchinson, late Joseph Galliard Martin of New Orleans, will take place in August was the honor guest at picnic luncheon and shower which Miss Martha Poole gave this afternoon at her summer home in Ocean View, Md. The other guests were Mrs. Charles Edward Lyons of Worcester, Mass.; Miss Mona Gill, Miss Marguerite Ames, Mrs. Blackwell Smith, Mrs. Frank Addison, Mr. Ernest Mechlin, Miss Camilla DuBois, Mrs. Bowdoin Craighill, Mrs. Basil Boteler, and Miss Kitty Poole.

Mrs. Morris Evans and Miss Meta Morris Evans, after an absence of about a year, have returned to Washington.

Mrs. Walter Wells will leave Washington tonight for White Sulphur Springs, where she will be the guest for several weeks of Mrs. Junius Parker of New York. The children of Dr. and Mrs. Wells left Washington yesterday for Oakland, Md., where they will pass the summer.

Would-Be Suicide Had to Wait Too Long for Train. PIERMONT, N. J., June 22.—When John Dolan, anxious to end his life of woe decided to let a train run over him, he made the mistake of selecting the Erie railroad. Dolan was lying on the track north of Piermont when railroad employes came along. "How long before there'll be a train along on this one-horse road?" he asked, as he raised his neck from the rails. "I've been lying here an hour."

THE HOME OF CUT PRICES

HELP THE RED CROSS

We Will Donate 10% of the Entire Gross Sales of All Five Stores Saturday, June 23, to the Red Cross Fund

PEOPLES

OPPORTUNITY DAYS

At All Five of Our Stores

Toilet Article Sale

Friday and Saturday

Toilet Powders

Toilet Creams

We are remodeling our 7th and K Sta. store and moving our stock from there to our new warehouse. We would rather sell as much of this stock as possible than move—

Hence These Extra Low Prices

For Opportunity Days

TOILET SOAPS

Why Be Gray

and look twice as old, when a few applications of Sage and Sulphur will restore its natural color, prevent falling hair, remove dandruff. Regular 50c bottle.

TOILET SOAPS

TOOTH PREPARATIONS

Freckles Removed Easily

Prevent Riggs Disease

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action

Convert Your Silent Piano Into a PLAYER By Installing a Gulbransen Player-action