

DANIELS MAY BE WITNESS AGAINST IMPOSTOR "SON"

Secretary Daniels was advised by Secret Service agents today that he probably would be summoned to Atlantic City to testify against Joseph Levy, who is held at the seashore resort on a charge of impersonating the Secretary's son.

DON'T STAY GRAY

Put your hair to the shade desired with "Brownstone." This new preparation is far superior to any mixture that contains henna, sulphur, silver, lead or similar preparations.

THE CITY'S SOCIAL SIDE

Viscount Ishii Dinner Guest Of President

The White House will be the scene of an interesting function this evening, when President Wilson will entertain Viscount Ishii, chief of the Japanese mission, and his associates, at dinner.

The program of entertaining in honor of the mission also includes a trip to Mt. Vernon aboard the Mayflower on Sunday, a brilliant reception at the Pan-American Union building, with the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing as hosts, and the dinner and reception which the Japanese ambassador will give on Thursday evening, August 30.

On Saturday the mission will visit Annapolis and will inspect the Naval Academy. Last evening they dined with the Japanese ambassador at his residence in K street.

The newly appointed ambassador to Japan, Rojand S. Morris, and Mrs. Morris have arrived in Washington from their home in Philadelphia, and are stopping at the Shoreham. They will be guests at the dinner tomorrow evening in honor of Viscount Ishii and some of his associates of the mission.

Miss Natalie Dulles will arrive in Washington tomorrow to pass a week with the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing.

Lanes Extend Vacation. The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, who have been on a motor trip for the last ten days, have prolonged their vacation, and will not return until Monday or Tuesday of next week.

MISS LILLIAN HENDRICK. Miss Hendrick, Who Is Noted For the Superb Quality of Her Voice, Is Summaring at New London, Conn., With Her Mother, Mrs. David Stewart Hendrick.

Miss Hoover To Be Capt. Egan's Bride Saturday

Miss Marie Louise Hoover, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hoover, and Capt. Gerald Egan, U. S. A., will be married Saturday at St. Thomas' Chapel, in Woodley road. The ceremony will be very quiet because of the death of the bride's father, about two months ago.

President and Wife Attend Song Comedy

The President and Mrs. Wilson occupied a box at the Belasco Theater last evening, and had as their guests Mrs. William H. Bolling, Miss Bertha Bolling, and John Randolph Bolling. Mrs. Bolling and Miss Bolling have recently returned to Washington from Roanoke, Va., where they spent several weeks.

A wedding breakfast for the family will follow the ceremony, at the Shoreham. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Alice Hoover. Her brother, Frank P. Hoover, will be best man.

Captain Egan is the son of Maurice Francis Egan, United States minister to Denmark. The bride belongs to one of the oldest families of Washington.

Andrea Gelaser Celesta de Vegliaso, third secretary of the Italian embassy, and the Duke di Sangro, newly appointed attache, were hosts at dinner on the Powhatan roof last evening, having among their guests, Mrs. Peter Goellet Gerry, Capt. and Mrs. Perry Belmont and Mr. and Mrs. Wansamaker.

The marriage of Miss Augusta Bishop, daughter of James Cunningham Bishop, of Towersville, Pa., and Lieut. David Sigourney, Field Artillery, U. S. A., was celebrated yesterday at the home of Mrs. Belmont Tiffany in New York. The bride is a niece of the late Whitelaw Reid.

Luncheon for Miss Fitts. The Misses Harriet and Lucille Clark, daughters of Congressman and Mrs. Clark, of Florida, gave a delightful luncheon today in the Speaker's dining room at the Capitol, entertaining in compliment to Miss Hol and her party.

To Entertain at Tea. Mrs. Myron Bertman, wife of Capt. Bertman, U. S. A., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Newman at their beautiful home in the Pierce Mill road, will entertain at a tea there this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Mason Patrick, wife of Colonel Patrick, U. S. A. Mrs. Patrick will leave Washington in a few days for her home in Plainfield, N. J.

Mrs. Percy Quin entertained informally at luncheon, followed by bridge yesterday, when her guests were Mrs. Thomas Gore, Mrs. James Patrick, U. S. A., Mrs. Edward Taylor, Mrs. Thomas Stubblefield, Mrs. Joseph Russell, Mrs. Webb Venable, and Mrs. William Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte have returned to Newport from a visit with Mrs. Newbold Leroy Edgar in Gloucester, Mass.

Major Charles Sidney Haight, U. S. A., of Fort Myer, is spending a few days in Lenox with Mrs. Haight, who is passing the summer with her mother, Mrs. George Winthrop Poisson.

Mrs. Coleman a Visitor. Miss Elizabeth Coleman arrived in Washington this morning to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Major and Mrs. John N. Hodges. Major Hodges is commanding at the Washington Barracks temporarily.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean, who have been at Saratoga for several weeks, will return to Washington on Saturday.

Dr. Carl Paul Hubacher, secretary of the Swiss legation, and Mrs. Hubacher, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on August 14. Mrs. Hubacher was formerly Miss Elizabeth Schoepf, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kesley Schoepf, of Cincinnati.

The marriage of Miss Camilla Wilmot Diggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Hal Diggs, of Philadelphia, formerly of Baltimore, to Ralph Kerzke, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was celebrated on August 19 in the St. Ambrose Chapel of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Morningstar Heights, N. Y. The vicar of the cathedral, the Rev. E. Briggs Nash, B. D., formerly assistant rector of St. Paul's, Baltimore, officiated.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Charles F. Diggs, of Baltimore, and of the late Samuel Clinton Cortland, of Asheville, N. C. Mr. Kerzke is a landscape painter, and has recently successfully taken up portraiture. Owing to recent deaths in the family of the bride, only the immediate families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kerzke will be at home in Pittsburgh, East End, after November 1.

Just Apply This Paste and the Hairs Vanish. (Helps to Beauty) A safe, reliable home-treatment for the quick removal of superfluous hairs from your face or neck is as follows: Mix a stiff paste with some water and powdered delatone, apply to objectionable hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone.

Former President Theodore Roosevelt entertained Baron Ludovic Moncheur and other members of the Belgian war mission at luncheon at Sagamore Hill, Oyster Bay, N. Y., yesterday. Colonel Roosevelt and Baron Moncheur formed a warm friendship while the former was in the White House and the latter represented his country as minister to the United States.

Swiss Minister Soon to Present His Credentials

The newly appointed minister of Switzerland, Dr. Hans Sulzer, will present his credentials to President Wilson on Monday.

The Minister and Mrs. Sulzer paid a formal call on Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, yesterday and had tea with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson have returned to their Washington home after a visit to Mr. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, at her summer home at Bar Harbor and a short time spent at Wellesley in Brookline, Mass.

The Cuban minister, Dr. Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, entertained a little company of men at luncheon at the Willard yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. de Cespedes have recently returned to Washington from Newport.

General Wood in City. Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., and Mrs. Wood arrived in Washington this morning for a short stay.

Congressman and Mrs. Henry D. Flood are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter last week. The little girl will be christened Eleanor Faulkner Flood. Mrs. Flood was formerly Miss Anna Fortner.

Chevalier Giuseppe Brambilla, counselor of the Italian embassy, will go to Hamilton, Mass., this week to be the guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George von Lengerke Meyer and Miss Julia Meyer, at Rockmaple Farm.

The Belgian mission, which is making an extended stay in New York, will be entertained at dinner this evening in the Japanese garden of the Ritz Carlton Hotel, by the Belgian colony of New York, numbering some seventy persons.

Mrs. R. S. Reynolds Hitt will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening in Newport.

Lieut. Ways Chatfield-Taylor, U. S. R., and Miss Adele Margaret Blow, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. George Preston Blow, were married yesterday in La Salle, Ill., at the home of her parents. Both families are widely known. Lieutenant Chatfield-Taylor is a son of Robert Chatfield-Taylor, known internationally as a litterateur.

The East was represented at the wedding by Mrs. Reginald DeKoven, an aunt of Lieutenant Chatfield-Taylor; Charles Pratt and Vaughan Burgess, of New York, and Mrs. H. H. Whitman, of Boston, Mass.

Lieutenant Chatfield-Taylor has been ordered to the Rockford cantonment, and has taken a cottage near it for his bride.

Miss Holland Fitts and her fiancé, Lieut. Thomas Garner, U. S. A., were the guests in whose honor Miss Agnes Messick, daughter of Mrs. Charles C. Marbury, gave a supper party on the Powhatan roof last night. Included among the guests were Miss Harriet Fitts, Miss Cornelia Bowie, Allen Garner, Frank Harman, James Ryan, Thomas Stapleton, and others.

At the marriage of Miss Fitts and Lieutenant Garner, which will take place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Robert Talbot, rector of St. Paul's Church, will officiate. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and will be attended by Miss Elizabeth Schoepf, Miss Harriet Fitts and Miss Eleanor Fitts, as maids of honor. Lieut. Allen Garner, U. S. R., a cousin of the bridegroom, will be best man. Lieutenant Garner will take his bride to Petersburg, Va., where he has been assigned to duty with the national army. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Garner, of Washington.

U. S. EXPERTS OFF TO STUDY BIRTH RATE IN FRANCE

BALTIMORE, Aug. 23.—Dr. J. Morris Siemons, a professor of obstetrics in the Yale Medical School, and Mrs. Siemons, who was a Johns Hopkins Hospital nurse, are on their way to France with a group of the most distinguished specialists in infant welfare work in the United States.

They were sent abroad by the American Red Cross in response to a cable for immediate relief from conditions which have brought about an alarming reduction in the birth rate of France during the past year of the war.

The organization of specialists, especially known as the infant welfare unit, is financed by Mrs. William Lowell Putnam, of Boston.

Don't let Nature's wealth go to waste. If you would save the expense of costly dishes.

SAVE THE FRUIT CROP

Preserves, jams, jellies are energizing and nourishing.

"Sweeten it with Domino"

Sold in 2 and 5 lb. cartons and in 5, 10, 25 and 50 lb. cotton bags.

THE BUSY CORNER S. Kahn Sons & Co. 6TH ST. AND PENNA. AVE.

Market Morning DRESSES

Formerly Sold to $3.98, Here Tomorrow at $2.89

Of course they are just as good for wear on any other morning, but market morning is a very important one in the week's round of activities. Women are giving more and more attention to the careful buying of food supplies, and many women who never personally attended to this part of the housekeeping routine are now shrewd buyers.

BATHING SUITS

Just what you want for the week-end trips to the beach, which you will probably take all through the coming September if this warm weather keeps up. These suits are of cotton jersey, trimmed with white jersey cloth or white braid. Colors are navy and black. Sizes broken. At $1.50 & $2.98

WASH GOODS

Lots of Good Values in These Remnants. Which have been left from goods in stock selling up to 25c a yard. Crepes, percales, poplins, and of course a great number of voiles. Lengths suitable for almost any use from a little girl's frock to a woman's dress. Remnant price, a yard, 10c

Rain or Shine Umbrellas

Such an umbrella is not only a fair weather friend, but a protection when skies are overcast and days are showery. The sun and rain umbrella is very popular this season and bids fair to continue so all winter. Covers are of all silk taffetas, and yarn dyed taffetas. Among them are plain colored umbrellas, some with striped borders, and fancy effects. They have hardwood handles, some with bakelite tips, some carved, and others inlaid woods. Nearly all are in the fashionable wrist-let style. Colors are hunters' green, navy, and black chiefly. Some may have slight flaws, but nothing to impair their usefulness. Though worth from a third to a half more than tomorrow's price you may purchase them Friday at $1.98. Children's Parasols, plain colors, fancy striped, and fancy bordered effects, in Japanese and regulation shape. Special tomorrow at 50c

Screens, Porch Shades, Window Shades, Draperies, In a Rousing Big Clean-Up Sale Tomorrow

Choice of the House Sale Screen Doors. Formerly up to $2.98—FRIDAY EACH 95c. Just 84 doors left; of heavy, seasoned lumber; natural hardwood and walnut finishes; mortised corners; mitered mounting, black wire cloth fitting; complete with fixtures; sizes 30x78, 32x80, 34x82, and 36x84 inches, and a few extra size doors in the lot; some are slightly imperfect. Porch Shades, 4, 5, and 6 Feet Wide; values to $1.49. Each 75c. Green slats of selected bamboo; closely set together; complete with ropes and pulleys ready to hang. Summer Draperies, values to $2.25. Friday, Pair 95c. 40 pairs of Cross Stripe Madras Curtains; some finished with colonial valance; tassel fringe top and bottom; 2 1/2 yards long; good colors. Popular Lightweight Drapery Materials, Values to 35c Yard. FRIDAY YARD. 11c. Choose from: Marquisette, Plain Scrim, Fine Voiles, Colored Bordered Scrim, Fancy Swisses, Scotch Madras. Remnant lengths from 2 to 15 yards; many can be matched up; some as much as 25 yards of a kind; suitable for curtains, bed sets, draperies, etc.

NEW STORE OF KAHN ON SEVENTH STREET. EYES EXAMINED FREE BY OUR EYESIGHT SPECIALIST. WE SELL SHUR-ON EYE-GLASSES. Best Gold-filled Cannot-slip Eye-glasses, fitted with fine French lenses. Special price $1.00. Genuine Shur-on Mountings, fitted with best quality, toric lenses. Special price $2.50. KAHN OPTICAL CO. 617-619 Seventh St. N. W.

The Week of Aug. 24th to 31st Has Been Designated as Gift Week For the Soldier and Sailor Boys Going To France. Now is the time to show your generosity to the brave lads who are going to the front. Be liberal but wise—buy them useful gifts that will be of real service.

Metal Trench Mirrors, 35c, 50c, $1 to $1.50. Ingersoll Watches, $1.35 to $6. Folding Camp Knives, 75c to $2.50. Toilet Kits, fitted, $1.50. Nail Scissors, 50c up. Nail Nippers, 50c up. Pocket Knives, 50c, 75c, $1 up. Fountain Pens, $1.50 to $6. Army and Navy Knives, $1.25 up. Safety Razors, $1 to $5. Shaving Brushes, 25c to $4. Folding Shaving Brushes, 75c up. You'll Need a Twinplex. Those cold water shaves at camp will knock the edge right off your blades and if you haven't a Twinplex Stropper FOR GILLETTE BLADES. In your kit, you'll have a hard time shaving. You can't get blades at camp whenever you want them—take a Twinplex along—just fits in your kit. A few turns in it and your blade is better than new. You get 100 shaves from one blade, too. The Twinplex is guaranteed to give you service for ten years. Barber & Ross 11th and G Sts.

SOROSIS Our Removal Sale Is Drawing to a Close. The time in which you may take advantage of the unusual price concessions on famous SOROSIS SHOES is limited to but a few days more. To hasten the complete disposal of our present stock we have cut prices still deeper—an added incentive for immediate purchases. A Lot of Women's Low Shoes in a variety of leathers. Values to $5.00, not all sizes, $1.45. Values to $7.00, not all sizes, $2.95. WOMEN'S FALL BOOTS. There are many good values in these at prices you cannot afford to miss. The Sorosis Boot Shop—1213 F St. N. W.