

ALL D. C. CITIZENS' SOCIETIES TO HOLD BIG RALLIES TODAY

Virtually every citizens' association in Washington will hold a patriotic rally this afternoon or tonight in the interest of bond sales. Prominent speakers will address practically every meeting, and subscriptions for the bonds will be taken up as the finale.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock, the West End citizens will meet at the Circle Theater, 2105 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, with T. W. Sidwell and Charles W. Darr as the principal speakers.

The North Capitol and Eckington Citizens' Association will hold a big community rally at the Emory School, Lincoln and Prospect streets northeast, at 12:15. Commissioner Brownlow and Colvin Brown will address the meeting.

Will Deliver Bonds.

Cashiers from two banks will be on hand at the Northeast Temple, Twelfth and H streets northeast, to deliver the bonds actually sold. This meeting will be under the auspices of the Northeast Washington and East End Citizens' associations from 3 to 5 p. m., with A. E. Seymour, Charles W. Darr, and E. Hilton Jackson as the speakers.

North Washington's rally will be held at the American Theater, Rhode Island avenue and First street northwest, at 3 o'clock.

Alexandria will hold a big parade in which it is expected that fully 4,000 persons will take part. Artillerymen from St. Asaph, cavalry from Fort Myer, the school children of the city, the fire department, home de-

ADVERTISEMENT.

Good Digestion Preserves Beauty

Your Complexion Depends Largely Upon Your Stomach. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are Real Beauty Preservers.

I Love My Perfect Complexion to Perfect Digestion. Made So by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

How in the name of reason can you expect to retain beauty with a stomach full of sour bile, blood poisoned by soured food and a complexion red by such food? Women are proverbial stomach sufferers, but those who have learned to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have no such trouble, they are happy in mind and in body, with a skin untroubled by the red rash of dyspepsia. Try these wonderful tablets after meals. They will preserve your complexion. Get a 50-cent box at any drug store.

George Town Meeting.

One of the largest meetings tonight will be held in the Masonic Hall, School building by the Georgetown Citizens' Association at 8 o'clock. Justice Ashley M. Gould, Corcoran Thom, and the Rev. J. S. Montgomery will speak. Prof. G. Herbert Walls will lead the community singing. A big program has been arranged by the committee in charge which consists of Frank P. Leitch, chairman, Thomas J. Stanton, A. K. Parris, Henry Matthews, T. Janney Brown, and Ralph A. Collins.

At Brookland the citizens will meet at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Hall, Twelfth and Monroe streets, where a speaker from the Liberty loan committee will address them.

The Marine Band will entertain the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association and their friends in the auditorium of the Powell School, Hilt place northwest, where arrangements have been made for two outdoor meetings. Citizens E. K. Adams, director of the postal savings system, and District Attorney Laskey will address this meeting.

Piney Branch citizens will convene at the John Dickson Home, Emerson and Gallatin streets, at 8 o'clock, to hear Commissioner Brownlow and Colvin Brown speak.

The Patworth Citizens' Association will rally at the Presbyterian Church, New Hampshire avenue and Randolph street, at 8 p. m. Speakers of prominence will deliver addresses and a section of the Marine Band has been promised for the occasion.

The Brightwood Citizens will try to outdo their neighbors from Petworth in the number of subscriptions to bonds at the rally to be held in the Emory Sunday School hall at 8 o'clock, with Commissioner Brownlow and Senator Norris of Nebraska doing the honors.

Citizens of Southeast Washington will meet under the auspices of their association at the Tyler School, Eleventh and G streets southeast.

The Bureau of Standards, Connecticut avenue and Pierce Mill road, will be the scene of a joint meeting at 7:30 of five of Washington's most progressive citizens' associations. The Connecticut Avenue, Rock Creek Ford, Home and School Association of Chevy Chase, Cleveland Park School and Community Association and the Chevy Chase Citizens' associations will have as their guest, Gardner, F. N. Sheppard of the United States Chamber of Commerce and C. H. Fullaway deliver the addresses of the evening. Music will be furnished by the United States Engineer Band.

Meeting For Public.

The Rhode Island Avenue Suburban Citizens' Association, after a business meeting at 7:30, will open the meeting to the public in the interest of Liberty Loan sales. This meeting will be held at the Sherwood Presbyterian Church, Jackson and Twenty-second streets northeast.

The Anacostia Citizens' Association will hold a community mass meeting in Masonic Hall, with several prominent speakers of the evening. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock, and several prominent men will speak.

The Congress Heights Citizens' Association will meet at the public school at that place with I. C. Fowler as the principal speaker.

All Chillum Heights and Woodburn will gather at the Woodburn School to hear Commissioner Brownlow and C. C. Calhoun, who will be the principal addresses of the evening.

Col. John G. Capers and C. F. Conzual will address the Tacoma Park Citizens' Association at the Trinity P. E. Church of that place.

The Conduit Road Citizens' Association will meet in the public school, with George S. Jordan as the speaker, and negro citizens will hold a patriotic rally at the Miner Normal School, Georgia avenue and Euclid streets, under the joint auspices of the Howland Park Citizens' Association and the Miner Normal School Community Center. The main address will be made by E. Hilton Jackson.

STRATEGY.

First Sportsman—Come an' ave a game at cricket, kid.

Second Sportsman—Can't; gotta go to school.

First Sportsman—Well, go an' wash yer face an' the teacher'll ink yer ill an' send yer 'ome.—Passing Show.

THE CITY'S SOCIAL SIDE

Meade Officers Honor Mrs. Kuhn With Reception

Major Gen. Joseph E. Kuhn, U. S. A., in command of the Seventy-ninth division of the national army, and Mrs. Kuhn, will be the honor guests at a reception which the officers stationed at Camp Meade will give this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the camp headquarters.

General Kuhn's quarters at the camp can be distinguished from the other barracks by a tall observation tower. It is here that he, with his bride, formerly Miss Helen Boure, will receive the officers and their wives, the latter coming from several cities for the occasion. There will be music and dancing throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Kuhn left Washington yesterday to spend two days in Baltimore. She will go to the camp from that city. General and Mrs. Kuhn will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Brooks, jr., at Brooklands, their estate in the Green Springs valley, over the week end. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will entertain at dinner at Brooklands in honor of Gen. and Mrs. Kuhn, whose marriage took place last Friday.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert Lansing have as their guest, Mrs. Lansing's niece, Mrs. Deane Edwards, of Seneca Falls, N. Y. Mr. Edwards is in Washington doing war work, so Mrs. Edwards came to Washington to visit him. She will be here about a week.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels took her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brook and Miss Mary Brook, of Philadelphia, to Mt. Vernon this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and Miss Brook will go to Philadelphia this evening. They are spending several days with Secretary and Mrs. Daniels en route from the camp at Oglethorpe, Ga., where they have visited Lieut. George Brook, who is in training there. The latter belongs to Troop I of Philadelphia, and saw service on the Mexican border.

Daniels will leave Washington on Thursday for Atlanta, Ga., where she will address the Y. W. C. A. war council, which will hold a session in that city on Friday. While in Atlanta, Mrs. Daniels will be the guest of Mrs. Samuel Innes, and she will stop at Raleigh, N. C., as she returns to Washington, reaching here on Wednesday of next week.

Joaquin Mendes, the Minister of Guatemala and Senora Mendes will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening. Secretary and Mrs. Lansing will be among the guests.

Secretary of War Newton Baker, who is in Boston, will return to Washington Friday. Mrs. Baker will leave Washington tomorrow for Wernersville, Pa., where she will remain about a week.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday when Miss Dorothy H. Stephenson, daughter of Mrs. George Stephenson and the late Mr. Stephenson, became the bride of Maurice S. May. The Rev. P. G. Gavin, of the Church of the Sacred Heart officiated at the ceremony. A spray of orange blossoms held her long tulle veil and her flowers were a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She wore the bridegroom's gift, a lavalliere of diamonds.

Mrs. E. Madison Hall, the matron of honor, wore turquoise blue satin banded with taupe fox, with a black panne velvet hat trimmed with plum. She carried a shower of pale pink tea roses.

Miss Alice Hinds, the maid of honor, wore turquoise blue satin combined with silver lace and georgette with a black velvet hat faced with turquoise blue. Her flowers were roses of a deeper shade than the matron of honor's.

Paul May was best man for his brother.

Quantities of palms and Australian ferns adorned the halls and drawing rooms, while the mantels were banked with pink roses and amilax.

Mrs. Stephenson, mother of the bride, and Mrs. George J. May, mother of the bridegroom, assisted in receiving. The former wearing taupe de chine, embroidered in cut steel, with a hat to match of georgette and velvet, and a corsage of violets and lilies of the valley, and the latter, French blue crepe de chine and georgette, with a black velvet hat, faced with blue and georgette with a corsage of lilies of the valley.

Later in the day Mr. May and his bride left for their wedding trip, the latter traveling in a modish suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth, with a scarf cape of seal, trimmed with collar and cuffs of ermine and a hat of blue velvet, with an upturned brim of blue feathers. Mrs. Douglas F. Vass, of Virginia, who is visiting the bride's family, was among the guests at the marriage and reception.

Mr. and Mrs. May will be at home after December 1 at Park Road Court.

MRS. RICHARD H. BOOTH, Wife of Lieutenant Booth, U. S. N., who is staying in Washington, was formerly Miss Doris Moore.

Dr. de Céspedes Is Luncheon Guest of Fifth Avenue Men

Dr. Carlos Manuel de Céspedes, the Cuban minister to the United States, entertained at dinner tomorrow evening. Secretary and Mrs. Lansing will be among the guests.

Secretary of War Newton Baker, who is in Boston, will return to Washington Friday. Mrs. Baker will leave Washington tomorrow for Wernersville, Pa., where she will remain about a week.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday when Miss Dorothy H. Stephenson, daughter of Mrs. George Stephenson and the late Mr. Stephenson, became the bride of Maurice S. May. The Rev. P. G. Gavin, of the Church of the Sacred Heart officiated at the ceremony. A spray of orange blossoms held her long tulle veil and her flowers were a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She wore the bridegroom's gift, a lavalliere of diamonds.

Mrs. E. Madison Hall, the matron of honor, wore turquoise blue satin banded with taupe fox, with a black panne velvet hat trimmed with plum. She carried a shower of pale pink tea roses.

Miss Alice Hinds, the maid of honor, wore turquoise blue satin combined with silver lace and georgette with a black velvet hat faced with turquoise blue. Her flowers were roses of a deeper shade than the matron of honor's.

Paul May was best man for his brother.

Quantities of palms and Australian ferns adorned the halls and drawing rooms, while the mantels were banked with pink roses and amilax.

Mrs. Stephenson, mother of the bride, and Mrs. George J. May, mother of the bridegroom, assisted in receiving. The former wearing taupe de chine, embroidered in cut steel, with a hat to match of georgette and velvet, and a corsage of violets and lilies of the valley, and the latter, French blue crepe de chine and georgette, with a black velvet hat, faced with blue and georgette with a corsage of lilies of the valley.

Later in the day Mr. May and his bride left for their wedding trip, the latter traveling in a modish suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth, with a scarf cape of seal, trimmed with collar and cuffs of ermine and a hat of blue velvet, with an upturned brim of blue feathers. Mrs. Douglas F. Vass, of Virginia, who is visiting the bride's family, was among the guests at the marriage and reception.

Mr. and Mrs. May will be at home after December 1 at Park Road Court.

Marquis Polignac And Miss Eustis Wed in New York

The Marquis de Polignac, member of the French high commission, who was married to Mrs. Nina Floyd Eustis, in the Lady Chapel, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, in New York today, has taken the residence 1720 M street for the winter, and after a short honeymoon will bring his bride to Washington.

Mrs. Eustis is the widow of James Riddis Eustis, and the daughter of the late Walter Floyd Crosby, and both families have been prominent in the New York society for generations.

The Marquis is the head of one of the oldest families of France, and came to America two years ago as a representative of the French government, for the allied bazaar held in the Grand Central Palace, New York. He returned to France last spring, and again returned to this country with Andre Tardieu, head of the commission.

Several members of the French High Commission were present at the ceremony which was performed at noon. M. Tardieu was best man and the witnesses for the bridegroom were the astin girls. "Belgium For Tomorrow" will be discussed in Washington under the title "Washington Vignettes."

Mrs. McCormack is in New York. Mrs. Medill McCormack is at the Ritz-Carlton in New York for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. McEwen Fruyn and her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Goldthwaite, have taken an apartment at 2400 Sixteenth street. Major Goldthwaite is in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Baker are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born Sunday evening. Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Marjorie Russ.

Mrs. M. Orme Wilson is in New York for a few days.

Miss Swift To Be Bride Of I. P. Warburg

Of great interest to society in this city is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Katharine Faulkner Swift, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Swift, of New York, and James Paul Warburg, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Warburg, of Washington and New York.

Mr. Warburg is a graduate of Harvard, class of '16, finishing in three years with honors, at the age of nineteen. He belongs to the Harvard Club of New York. Last June he joined the naval reserve, and is now with the marine aviation corps at Norfolk, Va.

His father is governor of the Federal reserve, being appointed to the board by President Wilson. Prior to this he was a member of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and director of many banks and industrial corporations.

Last June the degree of doctor of commercial science was conferred upon him by the New York University in recognition of his services to the United States Government in connection with finance. He is a brother of Felix M. Warburg, the banker, of New York.

Miss Swift is the daughter of the late Samuel Swift, a noted musical and art critic, who died in July, 1914. She has inherited her musical taste and talents from her father, and appeared as the pianist at the recital given on Monday evening by the Edith Hubel Trio at Aeolian Hall, in New York, an organization of young women that has made a name for itself in New York, and was very favorably mentioned.

Miss Swift was graduated last year from the Institute of Musical Art with high honors. Her mother was formerly Miss Ellen Mary Faulkner, of Leicester, England. Her father was for several years with the Evening Mail as musical and art critic. He was one of the founders of the New Music Society of America. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Paul M. Warburg, who has been in New York for several days, will return to Washington tomorrow evening. She is spending today and tomorrow in Bryn Mawr with her daughter, Miss Bettina Warburg, en route home. Mr. and Mrs. Warburg, who occupied the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Girvin Peters, in Edgemoor, Md., during the summer, are now at their home in Eighteenth street.

Mrs. Robert Patterson has issued invitations to a large reception at her home in Dupont Circle on Saturday, November 10, at 5 o'clock, following the marriage of her niece, Miss Ruth Raymond Patterson, to Lieut. Maxwell W. P. Wallace, U. S. A., only son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wallace, and grandson of the late Chief Justice of the United States, Melville B. Fuller. The wedding ceremony, which will be witnessed only by a small family party, will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Raymond Patterson, 1209 Kenyon street. The bride-elect, who made her debut two years ago, is the only daughter of the late Raymond Patterson, of Chicago and Washington.

Mrs. Glasgow Returns.

Mrs. Arthur Graham Glasgow, who spent the greater part of the summer at Hot Springs, Va., has returned home, and is at her residence, 1708 Eighteenth street. She will give up that house about December 15, when she will take possession of the house at 1627 K street, occupied now by Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte.

Mr. Glasgow, who is in Roumania on a Red Cross mission, hopes to reach home some time in December. It took him two months to make the journey to that country.

Several members of the French High Commission were present at the ceremony which was performed at noon. M. Tardieu was best man and the witnesses for the bridegroom were the astin girls. "Belgium For Tomorrow" will be discussed in Washington under the title "Washington Vignettes."

Mrs. McCormack is in New York. Mrs. Medill McCormack is at the Ritz-Carlton in New York for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. McEwen Fruyn and her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Goldthwaite, have taken an apartment at 2400 Sixteenth street. Major Goldthwaite is in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Baker are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born Sunday evening. Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Marjorie Russ.

Mrs. M. Orme Wilson is in New York for a few days.

The House of Fashion

Leverton's

1106 G Street

FOR THURSDAY

A Sale of 500 Coats and Suits

At $29.50

Exceptional Values. The Season's Newest Models. Fur-Trimmed and Plain Tailored.

100 Satin and Serge Dresses

Thursday—$15.00

Variety of smart Models—values to $25

Thousands of Suits, Coats and Dresses at $25 to $95

FURS

Extremely up-to-date styles of exquisitely made Furs. The skins I purchased long before the great advance in prices. You may profit by my foresight.

MODERN REPAIRING AT REASONABLE PRICES.

For Sets and Coats Made to Order.

WM. ROSENDORF (Furrier)
1212 G STREET N. W.
Opposite Dullin & Martin's.

W. & J. SLOANE

ESTABLISHED 74 YEARS AGO

ORIENTAL RUGS

Exceptional Values in Useful Small Sizes at $30 upward

The decrease in the importation of Rugs from Turkey, Persia and the Far East, due to the war, has not prevented us from assembling an extensive collection of very fine specimens.

The selection includes all of the most desirable weaves in a wide range of sizes.

1508 H Street N.W. Telephone Main 923

Bad Throats Catarrhal Hoarseness Cigarette Irritation and Odor A PINCH OF

TYREE'S Antiseptic Powder

in a glass of water relieves immediately.

No professional sponging, mopping or other disagreeable feature. Simply dissolve a pinch of Tyree's Antiseptic Powder in a glass of water and gargle the throat and nose frequently.

25c, 50c and $1.00

At All Druggists' J. S. Tyree, Chemist, Inc., Washington, D. C.

Open Daily, 9:00 A. M. to 5:45 P. M.

THE BUSY CORNER

S. Kann Sons & Co.

8TH ST. AND PENNA. AVE.

Three Days More to Buy a Liberty Bond

Come Out Strong With Your Dollars These Last Days

REMEMBER that in buying a LIBERTY BOND you are not alone helping OUR UNITED STATES to win the war, but you are making the best investment opportunity ever offered and it is backed by the guarantee of the United States Government to pay 4 per cent interest on your money.

A LIBERTY BOND IS THE SAME AS A BILL OF THE SAME DENOMINATION.

—except that the bill earns no interest. A bond DOES earn 4 per cent for you.

—Buy a bond tomorrow; help our United States and know that you will receive the following amounts on your investment:

On a $50 bond you will receive $2 yearly—$1 on May 15th, $1 on Nov. 15th.

$100 bond you will receive $4 yearly—$2 on May 15th, $2 on Nov. 15th.

$500 bond you will receive $20 yearly—$10 on May 15th, $10 on Nov. 15th.

$1,000 bond you will receive $40 yearly—$20 on May 15th, $20 on Nov. 15th.

And at maturity of the bonds you get back the entire sum you loaned—$50, $100, $500, $1,000.

ACTUAL BONDS OF THE SECOND LIBERTY LOAN ON SALE AT OUR BOND BOOTH—STREET FLOOR.

Brisk October Weather Makes One Glad to Snuggle Into Such Luxurious Furs As These

- Natural Muskrat Coats, with large cape collars; deep cuffs; 40 inches long; all made of selected dark skins; and finished with good quality linings. Special, $80.00.
- Other Muskrat Coats, plain and trimmed with Natural Seal and Hudson Seal. $108, $125, and $145.
- Hudson Seal Coats, with self-collars and cuffs; made in most attractive styles, with collars in sailor or cape effects; some with slit or patch pockets and bolero. Pussay willow silk linings. $145, $158, $185.
- Black Fox Scarfs, made in straight, curved or cape effects; soft, silky skins; beautifully lined and finished. $29.75, $35, $49.50 and $55.
- Hudson Seal Muffs to match— in new shapes. $15.50 and $26.50.
- Limited Quantity—Wolf Scarfs—Specially Priced— In the leading shades, Battleship Gray, Lucille Brown and Georgette Gray; hand-somely lined, styles are curved and straight animal effects. $29.75

Kann's—Second Floor.

Comfort Garments that Every Woman Needs

A stock complete in every detail; a fact of which we are justly proud in this day of scarcity in knit and wool goods.

—And the low prices are worth special consideration.

- Quilted Jackets without sleeves; in black, white, or blue; also black with white or lavender linings. AT $1.50
- Quilted Jackets, with sleeves; black with white or lavender linings. AT $2.50
- Corduroy Robes, with sailor collar; lined with Secc; made kimono sleeve style, finished with cord; choice of blue, coral, gray, etc. $5.00
- Beacon Blanket Bath Robes, with and without collars; trimmed with ribbon folds. These are in floral designs in soft pastel colorings. The Chinese mandarin robe, a favorite with college girls, also in this line. $5.00
- Better qualities, $6.75 to $8.75.
- Outing Flannel Kimonos, empire style with elastic at waist; prettily piped; in a variety of colors. AT $1.50
- Outing Flannel Kimonos, straight and semi-fitted styles; trimmed with satin ribbon, variety of colors. $2.00
- Outing Flannel Dressing Sacques, in a variety of pretty colors. $1.00
- Knit Petticoats, in gray, white and natural, with colored borders; crochet finish top and bottom; regular and extra size. $1.00
- Knit Petticoats, part wool; gray and natural with colored borders; also plain white, black and gray. $1.25
- Extra size Knit Petticoats, in part wool; solid white, natural or black. $1.75, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50
- Outing Flannel Gowns, regular sizes; in a variety of styles; trimmed with wash braid, etc. 75c to $2.00
- Extra Size Outing Flannel Gowns. $1 to $2.00

Kann's—Second Floor.

Warm Sweater Coats For Children

—For little tots, girls and juniors; in plain or fancy stitch styles; semi or full belted models; some made with pockets. Choice of Cardinal, Rose, Copenhagen, Navy, Harvard, Red and Tan.

—Priced according to style and quality.

$3.75 to $5.50

Kann's—Second Floor.