

MRS. STORY, UNDER $1,000 BOND, TO BE ARRAIGNED JULY 2

NEW YORK, June 28.—Mrs. William Cumming Story, former head of the Daughters of the American Revolution, charged with petit and attempted grand larceny in connection with certain affairs of the National Emergency Relief Society, is under $1,000 bail today to enter pleas July 2.

She was arraigned in general session court yesterday. Her two sons, both of whom are in Government service, will also answer the charge through counsel on July 2.

It was said to be probable that the case would not come up for hearing until after the war.

That the activities of the society were investigated after a request from Washington was stated today by E. P. Kilroy, assistant district attorney. He said:

"Mrs. Story's counsel, Mr. Mooney, is quoted as saying that Mrs. Story's indictment is the result of a fight in the Daughters of the American Revolution at the time she was president of that organization, and that it is due to the attempt of a number of people in Connecticut to get revenge for some action that occurred in that organization."

"Washington requested the district attorney of New York county to investigate Mrs. Story's activities. That was last December. We immediately ascertained that the society was not being conducted along lines required by law.

"We got into communication with Mrs. Story's counsel, George Gordon Battle, who was also counsel for the society, and notified him of our discovery. There were several conferences between Mr. Battle and myself, and Mrs. Story was requested by Mr. Battle, so I am informed, to assist in her activities, but she refused. Her conduct was such that it became imperative for the grand jury to take action."

LIEUT. STORY TALKS FREELY OF INDICTMENTS RETURNED IN NEW YORK

ABERDEEN, Md., June 28.—Lieut. Allen Story, stationed at the Government proving grounds here, who, together with his brother, Sterling Story, now in the Government service at Washington, has been indicted by a grand jury in New York charged with having participated with their mother, Mrs. William Cumming Story, former president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in a profiteering scheme, talked freely of the matter when interviewed at the proving grounds.

Mrs. Story, charged with grand larceny, petty larceny and conspiracy in connection with the affairs of the National Emergency Relief Society, of which she is president, is under bail in New York.

He said, as far as he knew, the trouble in which his mother, brother and himself have been involved chiefly concerns rental of a house at 258 Madison avenue, New York city, to the National Emergency Relief Society and a commission of $90 which he admits he received as agent in the transaction. He says he has no connection with the society at all, but on behalf of his mother negotiated with the owners of the property through the banking firm representing them for the rental of the house. A price of $3,000 was agreed upon, and after the signing of the lease for a year he mentioned to the bankers that it seemed no more than fair that he should have the usual real estate agent's commission. This was granted without dispute, and, he says, he immediately turned over the amount—$90—to the credit of the National Emergency Relief Society.

The building, he said, is now being used as a lodging-house for soldiers and sailors visiting in New York. Lieutenant Story said he knew nothing concerning money contributed to the society for comfort kits for United States soldiers being diverted to the pockets of a solicitor, as intimated in a dispatch on the matter from New York.

ENGLAND TO TAKE DRASTIC STEPS TO INCREASE ARMY

LONDON, June 28.—Premier Lloyd George's declaration that there exists an urgent need of men to replace Americans who have been temporarily brigaded with the allies, today was taken to mean that more drastic provisions may be made for conscription in England.

The premier said, when he intervened in the debate on the new military service act, that there was an honorable understanding upon which President Wilson was prepared to send over a very large force to France. It is imperative, he said, "that we make a most drastic combat in order to maintain our strength and prestige in the vital moment."

It is the understanding with the American Government, according to the premier, that as rapidly as the allies can replace the Americans that the latter will be enabled to form their own divisions.

200 TO GET DEGREES.

A class of two hundred candidates will receive Shriners degrees at a ceremonial of Almas Temple July 10, at the Gayety Theater, according to announcement today by L. Whiting Gates, illustrious potentate. Henry Lansburgh and James Gibbs are arranging for the event. Most of the candidates are from military and naval stations in and near Washington.

GIRLS WHO MAKE OWN BED BETTER ABLE TO GET ROOM

A "make your own beds club" is likely to become popular in Washington as one result of the housing situation.

George M. Kover, who made an investigation, has reported to the District Council of Defense that many Washington housewives would open rooms to women and girls accepting Government employment if the girls would make their own beds.

As a result, all applicants for rooms at the District Council of Defense offices are to be asked if they are willing to tidy their own room. If they are willing, they will get a better chance.

The housing division of the Department of Labor, which is charged with housing relief work under the $10,000,000 appropriation available for buildings in Washington, will be prepared to go ahead on the Union Station plan, and possibly one other structure by July 1. The buildings will be ready to completion by September. Complete plans for them will be announced in a few days.

CENT A LOAF PROFIT ON BREAD D. C. LIMIT

Bread profits of Washington retail grocers are not to exceed one cent a loaf. This was made plain to an audience of 1,000 grocers in Business High School Auditorium last night by Federal Food Administrator Clarence R. Wilson.

The margin was criticized by the grocers, who contended it was too low. Mr. Wilson made it plain that it would remain until the dealers showed lack of profit.

Potato prices also are being made the subject of study. On the local market yesterday potatoes were quoted 50 cents a barrel higher. It is reported that farmers are holding their stocks.

MAY LOSSES DUE TO 'SUBS' EXCEED SHIPPING OUTPUT

LONDON, June 28.—No improvement in the U-boat situation was seen last month, according to the admiralty's statement showing 355,694 tons of merchant shipping sunk by mines or submarines during the month of May. While the loss was greater than the shipping output, it is predicted that reports for June will show that shipping has exceeded losses.

The May report showed an increase over April, when 311,456 tons were sunk. The loss in May of last year was 630,336 tons.

U. S. BUILDING HUGE ICE PLANTS IN FRANCE

Five refrigeration plants, each capable of freezing 3,000 to 4,000 tons of beef, are being built in France. Each will have an ice-making plant attached.

Another plant with present capacity of 5,000 tons of beef is being enlarged to a 20,000,000 pound capacity. All the vast supplies and men needed to make this were sent overseas. Additional refrigeration cars have been built for this country and France, and plans are now being considered for constructing refrigeration motor trucks for use in France.

SWIFT & COMPANY U.S.A.

Meat Must Be Sold

Fresh meat is perishable. It must be sold within about two weeks for whatever it will bring.

A certain amount of beef is frozen for foreign shipment, but domestic markets demand fresh, chilled, unfrozen beef.

Swift & Company cannot increase prices by withholding meat, because it will not keep fresh and salable for more than a few days after it reaches the market.

Swift & Company cannot tell at the time of purchasing cattle, what price fresh meat will bring when put on sale. If between purchase and sale, market conditions change, the price of meat must also change.

The Food Administration limits our profit to 9 per cent on capital invested in the meat departments. This is about 2 cents per dollar of sales. No profit is guaranteed, and the risk of loss is not eliminated.

As a matter of fact, meat is often sold at a loss because of the need of selling it before it spoils.
