NAVY BUREAU OFFICERS HONOR ADMIRAL PALMER

Forty officers of the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, last night tendered a reception and banquet to the chief of the bureau, Admiral L. C. Palmer, at the Army and Navy Club.

The affair was to celebrate Admiral Palmer's success as bureau leader and particularly to endorse his part in accomplishing permanent increase in the Navy personnel.

Entertainers from Keith's, together with the Mayflower and the Marine Jazz Bands, gave an especial touch of gaiety to the affair. Included in the decorations of the banquet were pictures of seventeen naval vessels with which Admiral Palmer has been identified during his career. The menu card was decorated with naval sketches by the noted sea painter Reuterdahl.

TURK REGULARS BLAMED FOR TABRIZ OUTRAGES

Turkish regulars were responsible for the outrages against American property at Tabriz, according to information furnished the State Department by the Spanish government.

This tends to aggravate the situation between the United States and Turkey, and if corroborated by the response expected from the latter nation, it probably will prove a cause for war.

NIGHT OPERATOR—ALL IN

Vinol Made Him Feel Better, Look Better, Sleep Better. Springfield, Mass.—"I am a night operator—was all run-down, couldn't sleep, had no ambition—I had tried blood and nerve tonics without help—and thought I would try Vinol and I must say it has built me up so I feel better, look better and sleep better."—Charles T. Harder.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mr. Harder's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength.
