REDFIELD ON WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD

Secretary Redfield today was named a member of the priorities committee of the War Industries Board.

His appointment is regarded as distinctly advantageous to industries classed as non-essential. In a recent statement, Redfield declared he favored giving more attention to such commercial interests that their organizations and plants might be kept intact for after-the-war trade. Thousands of complaints have come to Washington recently against the closing down entirely of plants not producing war materials. Redfield stated today that he favored, not attempting to keep such plants running at full capacity, but converting them to establishments which, under priorities rulings, will be permitted to have limited supplies of fuel, labor, finance, materials, and transportation.

MAY FIX G. O. P. WAR AIMS

The country may learn more of Republican war aims at Chicago September 2, when the national organization of Republican State chairmen is scheduled to meet. National Chairman Will Hays has not hinted that the war would come up for discussion, but it is said in political circles here that party leaders will be looked to for ratification or repudiation of the peace stand announced by Senator Lodge.

'Let's Hang Together,' The Teutonic Kaisers Agree At Conference

LONDON, Aug. 27.—"War to the death, conquer or perish together," the newspaper Epoha claims to have learned, is the decision announced by the Kaiser following his recent conference with Emperor Charles, according to a Central News dispatch today from Rome.

The Epoha asserts that the Kaiser declared that no concessions will be made to the enemy and that war on land and sea will be intensified.

TWO DIE IN AUTO WRECK

PORT PLAIN, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Authorities today sought to fix responsibility for the deaths of Charles W. Van Buren, of Montreal, general master car builder of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, and Miss Mae Richard of New York, and the serious injury of A. C. Murphy, of Montreal, and Miss Alfreda Chatfont, of New York. The party were riding in a huge cross-country touring car from New York to Montreal.

Just outside this town, according to stories told the police, the car was rammed by another machine and driven over an embankment. The car landed on the New York Central railroad tracks against a passing freight train.

WANTS PEACE TO PREPARE NEW WAR

Germany hopes to negotiate an early peace that will give her an opportunity to reorganize her resources for another great war for world domination.

This statement was made today by a high entente diplomatic authority.

To Make Tempting Offers

He held that reports of a coming German peace offensive are not idle rumors, but rather a portion of a well-laid scheme of the Prussian war lords to attempt to bring a cessation of hostilities. Tempting offers will be made to various nations of the entente, he says, and there will be serious menace for the entente morale if the advances are seriously received.

Diplomatic advice recently have frequently quoted German references to the possibility of a truce in the west and of the after-the-war ambitions of the military party. One of the boldest statements to reach entente hands is that of Austrian Deputy Wichtl, leading member of the German Radical Party in the Reichsrath, in an address at Windisch Feletz.

Wichtl's report of his speech to him as favoring such a close alliance between Germany and Austria that the two powers would be one politically, socially, economically, and for military purposes. He would also crush the Czech-Slovaks, divide the Jugo-Slavs, and then launch a gigantic war to subdue America, and Germanize Asia.

For One German Nation

"Our alliance with Germany must be such as is wanted by the Germans," Deputy Wichtl asserted. "The alliance must be such that it make one German house where but German will be spoken, but German ideas thought, and German battles fought."

"And when there shall be no longer two states, but only one great Germany, then we shall wage a new war. Then we shall deliver three mighty blows to the end of forcing our way to America, subduing the Orient, and establishing German power over Japan and China."

"We must decimate the Slavs in their numbers and exterminate them up," the deputy declared. "We must prevent Austria becoming a state of nations. The Jugo-Slavs must be reduced and dismembered into small units. Portions of the Slovenes and the Croats must go to the Germans. We will give a portion of the Slovenes to the Italians. A greater part of the Croats and the Serbs will go to the Magyars, and the rest shall be apportioned among the Albanians, Greeks, Roumanians, and Turks."

Would Deport Slav Race

Austria sees a solution of the vexing Czech-Slovak question in the proposed deportation of the Czech-Slovaks to Siberia, where, the Pestl Herald of Budapest, declares, they could enjoy the happiness of their long-sought independent national existence.

The Budapest article refers to the activities of the Czech-Slovaks in Siberia, and the suggestion is made that the dual monarchy unburden itself of the Bohemian and Slovak discontent by giving the Czech-Slovaks a part of Siberia and forcing them to emigrate thither.

The dispatch also refers to an anxiety in Austria for German and Magyar prisoners in Siberia, and the declaration is made that the central powers should go to the rescue of the prisoners before the advance of the Japanese army exposes them to the grave danger of becoming war prisoners again.

U. S. AND URUGUAY MAKING TWO PACTS

Negotiations are under way for two treaties between the United States and Uruguay.

One is of a commercial nature and provides for the regulation of tariffs on goods sold by American traveling salesmen in Uruguay. The United States Government hopes to negotiate a similar document with each Latin American republic in preparation for after-the-war trade.

The other treaty concerns the proposed gold credit at Montevideo to stabilize the Uruguayan currency in Uruguay for the period of the war.

Dr. Brum and members of the Uruguayan mission here will leave Washington tomorrow. They will visit Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Buffalo, and St. Louis. They will board the Uruguayan cruiser Montevideo at New Orleans and will return home through the Panama canal and down the west coast.

PAPER TAX ON PAPER

Reports from Mexico City state that the Democrats, acknowledged to be the instrument of German Minister Von Eckart in spreading his German propaganda, is apt to discontinue for lack of print paper, and that Mexico has thereupon altered the import duty on print paper from a percentage of its value in money to thirty-three and one-third per cent of paper imported, payable in paper.

The National Type and Paper Company, which furnishes print paper to Mexico and all Latin America, has refused to furnish print paper to El Democrita, or to any other paper published in Mexico devoted to German propaganda, and as a result many such sheets have gone under. At the beginning the Mexican government purchased print paper from the United States, turning it over to El Democrita, which proceeding was discontinued on protest from the United States.

The new tax on paper, payable in kind, will enable the Mexican government to deliver paper to pro-German papers which otherwise would succumb to war blacklist regulations.
