

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

President and Mrs. Wilson in New York—First Hospitality for Mrs. Davis. News of the Diplomats and Official Society.

THE President and Mrs. Wilson, who went to New York today and are expected back tomorrow evening or Sunday morning, will stay at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. They were accompanied by Mrs. William H. Bolling, Miss Bolling, Col. and Mrs. Edward T. Brown and Miss Marjorie Brown, who have been guests at the White House for several days. The President will open the Liberty Loan campaign tonight with a speech. Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, who is now visiting in Boston, is expected back at the White House next week.

Mrs. Ross Thompson was hostess at an informal luncheon today, entertaining in compliment to Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the newly appointed American ambassador to Great Britain. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Thompson have long been warm friends and the little company of guests was made up of close friends of both the hostess and the guest of honor. They were Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. Newton D. Baker, Mrs. Charles Denby, Mrs. Charles Wood, Miss Elizabeth Moore, and Mrs. Louis Hertle, of Gunston Hall.

Mrs. Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, will preside at a gathering of the War Relief Association of the Department of Agriculture which will be held this afternoon at Memorial Continental Hall. Lieutenant Perigord, of the French high commission, will speak. This is the first general meeting this season of the association, which has over 1,000 members and which is doing a notable work.

Returns for Winter. The Countess di Gallera, wife of the Italian ambassador, and their children have returned to Washington and are established in the embassy for the winter. The Ambassador and Countess di Gallera had a cottage at Blue Ridge Summit during the summer.

MRS. T. Q. DONALDSON, Wife of Brigadier General Donaldson, U. S. A. She has had her son, Lieut. T. Q. Donaldson, Jr., as her guest.

Justice and Mrs. Mahlon Pitney have leased the house at 2019 Massachusetts avenue for the coming winter. They have occupied the house at 1763 R street for some years.

The Minister of Bulgaria and Mme. Panaretoff have returned to Washington for the winter after spending part of the summer at Manchester, Mass., and the remainder of the season at Stockbridge, Mass.

The Minister of Greece, Georges Roussois, will return to Washington this morning from New York, where he has spent several days. The archbishop of Athens is expected back in Washington tomorrow after a short trip through the middle West.

Lease Vanderbilt Home. Mrs. George Vanderbilt has let her Washington residence, 1612 K street, for the season and will spend the winter at Biltmore, N. C.

Capt. Steuart Pittman, U. S. A., and Mrs. Pittman are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Philip McMillan Pittman, last Monday. Captain and Mrs. Pittman, whose home is in Detroit, have recently moved into the residence of Major and Mrs. Charles L. Frailey in Chevy Chase, which they will occupy for the winter.

George E. Scott, recently elected general manager of the American Red Cross to succeed Harvey D. Gibson, now Red Cross commissioner in France, is at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for a fortnight with his sister, Miss Cornelia Scott, formerly of St. Louis. Miss Scott spent last winter in Washington with her brother.

Mrs. Bernard Baruch, who is at Manassas Farm, Ray Shore, L. I., will come to Washington on October 25 to join Mr. Baruch, and they will spend the winter at 1620 Eighteenth street, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Reynolds Hill, which they occupied last winter. Miss Belle Baruch, who spent the greater part of last winter in New York, will probably be with her parents in Washington this season. Miss Renee Baruch is in school.

Were Honor Guests. Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, of Washington, were the honor guests at a luncheon given on Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Girard Foster, at Bellefontaine, Lenox, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell are passing the autumn at the Curtis Hotel, Lenox.

Mrs. John F. Rodgers and her daughter, Mrs. Horace Westcott, are expected back in Washington about October 1 after spending the summer at York Harbor, Me.

Mrs. Arthur Graham Glasgow, who has been at Newport since the summer, is at the Ritz-Carlton, New York, for a short stay. Mme. Henri Marquisan is also making a brief visit at the Ritz-Carlton.

Senator Smith Here. Senator William Alden Smith is back in Washington after a month's stay in Detroit. Mrs. Smith will join him later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lockwood, Jr., are at the Graton Hotel for a short stay while their residence in Massachusetts avenue is being made ready for occupancy. They spent the greater part of the summer on the North Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood have received word that their son, H. Winthrop Lockwood, United States Army, is missing in action several months ago, is a prisoner in Germany.

Dr. and Mrs. Meade Moore and their small daughter, Miss Emily Maitland Moore, are again at their residence in LeRoy place after a short absence. They spent some time at Woodberry Forest, Va., and afterward Dr. Moore made a brief visit to Chelsea, N. J.

Mrs. Ira Bennett has returned to Washington after spending the summer in Maine, and is at her home on Nineteenth street with Mr. Bennett.

pink roses, palms, and ferns, for the marriage this afternoon of Miss Pauline Alberta Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Chicago, and Capt. Francis Cabot Williams, U. S. A. The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock and will be followed by a reception at the Washington Hotel. There, too, pink roses and palms will be used as decorations.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis is in Chicago, but they are now living in Washington and have an apartment in the Connecticut. Captain Williams, who is the son of J. B. Williams, of Nutley, N. J., is stationed in Washington, and has taken an apartment at Somerset House, where he and his bride will make their home.

The Very Rev. Dr. George C. F. Bratenahl will officiate at the wedding service. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a becoming afternoon gown of white satin embroidered in beads and a white satin hat trimmed in orchids. She will carry Bride roses. Mrs. Helen Spears, of New York and Pittsburgh, the matron of honor, will wear a black velvet frock, with a black hat of velvet and tulle, and will carry an armful of pink roses. There will be two bridesmaids, Miss Henrietta Burrell, of Washington, and Miss Elizabeth McAllister, of Gouverneur, N. Y. Their costumes are of pink georgette and their bouquets are of orchids. Capt. Elgin Brain, Tank Corps, U. S. A., will be best man.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding will be the bridegroom's father and Ensign and Mrs. Arthur Stemm of Chicago. The bride's traveling costume is a dark blue tailored suit, with which she will wear a small French blue velvet hat.
