

CALL ROCKEFELLER FOR LABOR PROBE

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., will be one of the witnesses called before the Senate Committee on Education and Labor soon after the holiday recess when that committee takes up its investigation into the nation's labor problems.

Mr. Rockefeller has at different times given expression to his views on labor questions, and the committee wants to quiz him about them. His notions as to future relations between labor and capital in this country will be sought, and he will be asked what he thinks about the minimum wage, insurance against unemployment, old-age pensions, a national labor exchange and so on.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will be the first witness. He will be before the committee January 3. Henry Ford, also will appear. The committee is making up a long list of prominent employers, labor leaders and economists who will testify.

Numerous letters from prominent men, labor leaders, capitalists, economists, and others are reaching members of the Education and Labor Committee.

One angle of the situation is closely related to Bolshevism in Europe and the efforts of Bolshevists to spread their doctrines. This phase of the subject will be gone into.

"TAKE IT FROM ME" OPENS THE NEW SHUBERT-GARRICK

The new Shubert-Garrick Theater, at Seventh and F streets northwest, will open its doors to the public Sunday night. The opening attraction will be the new musical play, "Take It From Me," which is enjoying a successful run at Poli's Theater this week.

The production has been selected for the opening of the new playhouse because of its immediate appreciation by the Capital's theater-going public.

The cast is headed by Vera Michelena and includes Leona Thompson, Alice Hills, Fred Hildebrand, Jack McGowan, and many others of note in the musical comedy field.

The story recounts the adventures of a young man who has been left a department store by his uncle, with the understanding that he is to get five million dollars if he makes a success of the store within a year. How he makes the store a background for a movie production of the vamp-ire type, and how he achieves final success is delightfully told in a series of amusing incidents.

WANT GIRL HELD IN N. Y. IN PROBE OF SLAYING

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 27.—Governor Cox today issued a requisition on the governor of New York for the return to Ohio of Dolores Smith, held at Elmira, N. Y., and wanted at Youngstown, Ohio, for investigation in connection with the murder on September 21 of Leo Martin.

Dandruff Makes Hair Fall Out

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle, and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy, and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an invulnerable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

HALE QUOTA RAISED FOR JEWISH RELIEF

Washington's allotment of $60,000 for the Jews of the stricken countries of Europe and the Near East today is practically half subscribed, with three days of the four-day drive yet remaining in which to work.

A total of $25,000 was subscribed within a few minutes at the close of a rally held under the auspices of the Washington Jewish Relief Committee at the Eighth Street Temple last night, opening the local campaign of the American Jewish Relief Committee. There are other subscriptions which were received yesterday, and Simon Lyon, chairman of the local committee, received more subscriptions since he reached his office this morning.

The committee has workers on the streets, in the hotels, theaters, and department stores, and the campaign is starting in real earnest. Committee members are hopeful that Washingtonians will double or even triple the quota which has been allotted.

Benefit Dance Monday.
The Young Woman's Hebrew Association is making arrangements for a benefit dance to be held in the Masonic Temple next Monday night, when it is expected that at least $10,000 will be added to the fund.

Rabbi Nathan Kraas, of New York, and Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, were the principal speakers at the mass meeting last night. Henry Morgenthau, former United States ambassador to Turkey, was to have addressed the meeting, but was disappointed at an important conference with a Cabinet member at the last moment.

There was a large attendance at the meeting. Responses to the appeals made for aid for the sufferers of Europe were instantaneous and generous.

"There are two reasons, I suppose, for the honor you have done me by inviting me here tonight," said Senator Saulsbury, when he was introduced to the audience. "Washington has been a sort of second home to me ever since I was a little boy, and I am interested in her welfare and in her reputation, and, secondly, when an effort similar to this was made in my own home town, Wilmington, Del., we did so well that you thought I might bring you good luck. Certainly, I bring you the best of good wishes."

Wilmington Raised $70,000.
"For the most part the Jews in my home community are in humble circumstances. There are few rich men among them. Yet they had shown their interest in our plans and when their own time came, when they were seeking to raise $70,000 for Jewish relief, such was the response that $40,000 was poured into their treasury."

"Washington can do and should do as much. You Jews have no country of your own, but you soon may have a place apart, at least which you can look back to as the cradle of your race, cherished and cared for by yourselves. You have suffered with all humanity the evils that have come upon the world, you have given your lives and blood on every battlefield, and no portion of any race has suffered as your people have when the god of war has roughly plowed the field of Poland and Galicia.

"You who live in the capital of this great nation, which has been the active instrument to end the times of terror and distress should show as nowhere else how far you will go to bring back happiness and maybe comfort to a disordered world."

5,000,000 People Hungry.
Rabbi Kraas told the people of the plight of the 5,000,000 people of Jewish birth in the war-ravaged districts of Europe, who were looking to the people of the United States for succor; calling to them in the ancient language of their race for aid.

"The voice that calls to you," he said, "is not the voice of David or of that other Voice of Calvary, but that voice of 5,000,000 of your brothers and your sisters who will starve this coming winter unless you feed them."

"It is not a question of giving these people what they want or of making them comfortable—it is not even a question of relieving their suffering. It is a question of actually saving them from death by starvation."

Rabbi Kraas told of many painful incidents which have happened in the stricken areas, mentioning particularly a scene in the streets of Warsaw, which was observed and described to him by Mr. Morgenthau. This was the story of Jewish children in the streets of Warsaw without clothing and eating grass because they could find nothing else to supply the nourishment which their little bodies cried out for.

The Subscriber's List.
Dr. Kraas told of a scene on the battlefield in Flanders, where a Catholic boy lay dying, unable to reach the crucifix hung around his neck.

"Near him," he said, "was a young Jewish soldier, his comrade in arms, and a third, a Protestant. The young Jew lifted the cross and held it before the boy's dying eyes, while the Protestant held his flask with the few last drops of water to his lips."

It is this picture of the three on the field in Flanders, Dr. Kraas said, that symbolizes the new American answering the call of the suffering Jews in Europe.

Those who subscribed more than $100 at the mass meeting last night are: S. Kahn Sons and Company, $2,000; Fred S. Glickner, $1,000; Emil Berliner, $1,000; Milton Hopfenmaier, $1,000; A. SATURDAY STORE NEWS OF LANSBURGH & BRO.

Editorial

Here is a recommendation for our Department Store friends of the city. May they read and consider it profoundly.

Why not compel all men and women of the respective organizations who DO NOT "SELL" to wear badges stating who they are and why they can't "wait on folks?"

Every time we go out of the office some patron asks us to get this or that for her RIGHT AWAY and then becomes angry because we insist upon calling a REGULAR salesperson.

This store and all stores have a lot of people in different branches who DO NOT SELL. Can't, in fact, because they know nothing of the merchandise, prices, etc. So, if you see a man apparently doing nothing, don't feel angry because he isn't serving you. He's one of the non-selling force.
