

PROPOSES DAVIS FOR PRESIDENT

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Feb. 3.—A boom for John W. Davis, United States ambassador to Great Britain, for the Democratic nomination for President, was launched last week by former Senator C. W. Watson.

Senator Watson, who recently returned from service overseas, was defeated for United States Senator in the last election by Davis Ekins, Republican. Ambassador Davis is a resident of Clarksburg, W. Va., and before becoming United States solicitor general was a Congressman from the First West Virginia district.

POPE COMBATS BOLSHEVISM.
ROME, Feb. 3.—The Pope has instructed Polish, Ruthenian and Hungarian bishops to do their utmost for the universal struggle against Bolshevism.

Who Does Your Cleaning?
Is there any business besides the cleaning industry in which hundreds of thousands of people are engaged? What protective work do you have against fraud?
Is this not the condition in the cleaning business today?
Know Your Cleaner
Is there any business besides the cleaning industry in which hundreds of thousands of people are engaged? What protective work do you have against fraud?
Is this not the condition in the cleaning business today?
Know Your Cleaner
Is there any business besides the cleaning industry in which hundreds of thousands of people are engaged? What protective work do you have against fraud?
Is this not the condition in the cleaning business today?
Know Your Cleaner

International Cleaners & Dyers

Two Stores, 1318 14th St. N. W. Phone Main 6225; 3003 14th St. N. W., Phone Col. 7362.

Jiffy-Jell With Salad Flavor

Jiffy-Jell desserts come in many fruit flavors. But Lime Jiffy-Jell—flavored with lime fruit—makes the best salad jell. It is tart and green. One package serves six. These quick, economical dainties serve a big need today.

SHOE CONSERVATION

W. H. Kelley, a lumber salesman, of Omaha, found Neolin Soles so tough and durable that one pair of soles served on a second pair of uppers after the first pair of uppers had worn out in ten months of hard walking.

And he says, "Those same soles will stand another ten months of constant daily wear."

This is unusual service even for Neolin Soles but Mr. Kelley's experience should indicate to you a method of cutting down those rising shoe bills you have to meet.

Simply make sure the new shoes you buy are Neolin-soled and have worn shoes repaired with these soles which are scientifically made to be comfortable, waterproof and exceedingly long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

Neolin Soles
Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

That Good Coffee

A cupful or two, steaming hot, proves the best kind of finish to a good meal. Such fragrance! With a flavour that is found only in freshly roasted coffee, too! Wilkins Perfect is roasted every day and packed in bags that keep in the original flavour.

Ask your grocer BY THE NAME, "There's no other 'just the same,' Only ONE brand leads the fame—

PERFECT BLEND WILKINS COFFEE

It Hits The Spot Your Grocer Has It

BROTHER IDENTIFIES PALISADES WOMAN

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Feb. 3.—George H. Packwood, of St. Louis, arrived here yesterday and identified the body of the young woman found on a rocky ledge of the Palisades overlooking the Hudson as that of his sister, Azele Packwood. His assertion was confirmed by his sister, Mrs. Lavesta Udale, of Buffalo, who accompanied him to the morgue.

Packwood said Miss Packwood would be buried today in a plot owned by his father in historic Trinity churchyard, and that it was probable the Woman's Motor Corps of America, of which she was a member, would conduct a memorial service.

Asked if his sister was married, he replied: "My sister had independent means and was in a position to live as she did in New York."

He indicated that he might later make a more detailed statement concerning her affairs. Packwood said letters he had written to Miss Packwood since the early part of November had been returned to him as unclaimed.

PARLIAMENT FACED BY TASK FOR GIANTS

LONDON, Feb. 3.—When Parliament convenes tomorrow it will face the most tremendous program of reconstruction since the days of the Napoleonic wars.

Vast consequences depend on the solution of the national and international problems which will confront it. Among the questions to be threshed out are the following: First—Labor troubles and the coal supply; Second—Demobilization of the army; Third—Growing unemployment and the housing of soldiers on farms; Fourth—Industrial competition between men and women workers; Fifth—The Sinn Fein situation in Ireland.

In many ways the thirty-first Parliament of the United Kingdom will be the most unusual in the history of British politics. This will be a Parliament in which one constituent part of the kingdom—Ireland—will be totally unrepresented except for a hundred of Ulster Unionists.

Sinn Fein Seats Vacant.
There will be seventy-five vacant seats, representing various constituencies of Ireland where the Sinn Fein is in control.

Another anomaly is that the members were elected in the first national balloting in which women participated and one woman—Countess Markievicz—was elected. As she is a Sinn Feiner, however, she will not take her seat.

The coalitions—supporters of the Lloyd George government—will go into the new session with a majority of 229, but whether it will remain adhesive is a grave question.

Labor is going to play a strong role as a result of the present session of industrial strife which are sweeping the country. Representatives of the workers are going into parliament with a big and important program.

Leads Forlorn Hope.
Joseph Devlin is leading a forlorn hope of only seven Irish nationalists who may likely attend the opening session to announce that they will not attend any further sessions.

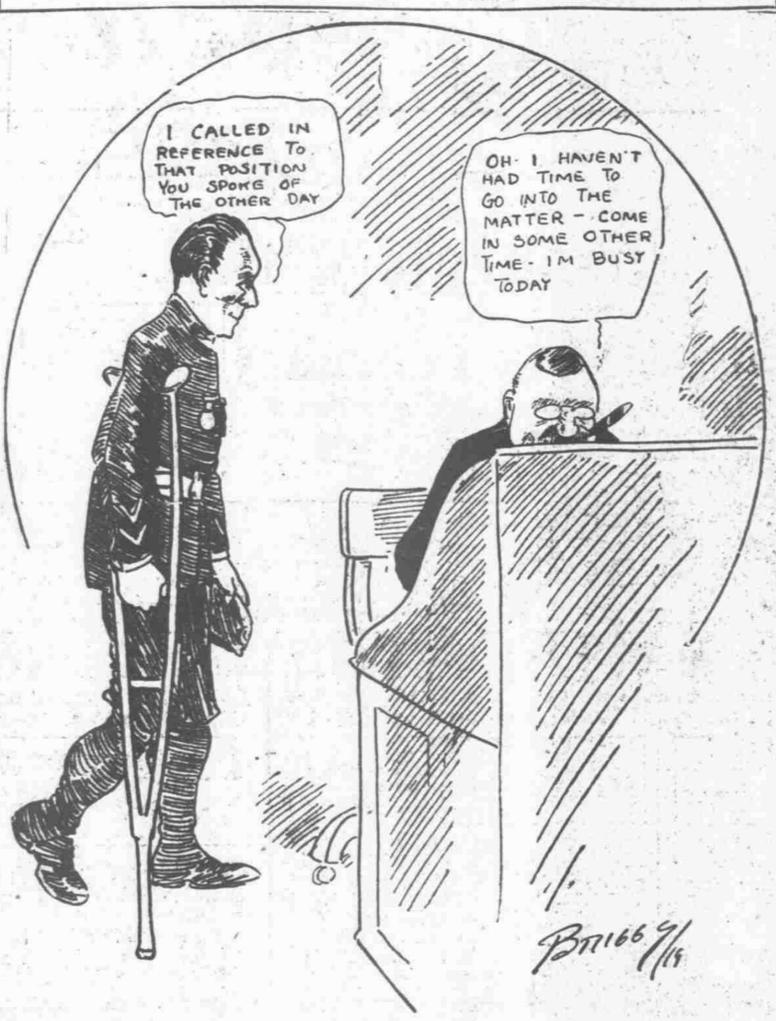

One of the biggest problems facing the new legislative body is how to meet the war debt of $6,418,000,000 (nearly $2,000,000,000) with other pressing expenditures looming up.

King George will read a speech from the throne formally opening the body. It is unlikely that there will be any important work done during the first few days of the session as the time will be taken up in enrolling new members.

When the business session gets under way there is sure to be big debate over the new luxury tax which will be introduced with the new budget.

When a Feller Needs a Friend

Copyright, 1919, by The Tribune Association. By Briggs

MRS. ROOSEVELT TO VISIT GRAVE OF SON

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt will sail for Europe on Wednesday, going on the French liner Lorraine. How long the widow of the former President will remain abroad is not known.

While in Europe, Mrs. Roosevelt will spend several weeks with her sister, Miss Emily Carew, who is doing war work in a hospital in Italy. She has not seen her sister in years.

Mrs. Roosevelt will also see her two sons, Lieut. Col. Theodore and Capt. Kermit, while in France. This part of the trip was contemplated by the colonel just before he died. Mrs. Roosevelt also expects to visit the grave of her youngest son, Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, who was killed while in battle with a German plane.

BREAK INTO JAIL TO STEAL LIQUOR

PORTSMOUTH, Va., Feb. 3.—Bold bad burglars burst open the county jail here during the night and stole 150 quarts of good drinking liquor. A grand jury probe is expected to follow.

How the burglars managed to back a wagon up to the building in the heart of the business district, cut a hole through the brick walls of the structure, and then make away with the goods is a puzzle. When it is known that the building contains not only the city and county jails, but the police headquarters, chief of police's office and the police court, the puzzle grows even deeper.

Half the town is laughing over the escapade; the other half is envying the burglars.

FINE FOR RHEUMATISM

Musterole Loosens Up Those Stiff Joints—Drives Out Pain
You'll know why thousands use Musterole when you experience the glad relief it gives.

Get a jar at once from the nearest drug store. It is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Brings ease and comfort while it is being rubbed on!

Musterole is recommended by many doctors and nurses. Millions of jars are used annually for bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

It Would Take a Week's Salary to Duplicate the Kaiser's Meals in D. C.

AMERONGEN, Feb. 3.—The Kaiser has a bread card and a butter card, just like anyone else in Holland.

And here is what the Kaiser eats. It's vouched for by his host, Count Bentinck. Many menus have been published as making up his daily bill of fare, but this is official:

For breakfast, zwieback, buttered; Dutch cheese, sliced thin; two or three soft-boiled eggs and two or three cups of chocolate.

Lunch, grilled chicken or grill-cooked steak, with fried or saute potatoes, a sweet omelet and some grapes or apples and French wine (sauvignon preferred).

Dinner, hors d'oeuvre, soup, fish, roast lamb, mutton or beef and vegetables, and plenty of champagne or burgundy throughout. Coffee and liqueurs follow.

BIG BUSINESS ASKS NEW TRUST LAWS

Big business interests have under way a campaign to modify antitrust legislation and to enlarge the Federal Trade Commission, it was learned today.

After a special study of peace time problems facing large concerns, the United States Chamber of Commerce has put to a vote of its members recommendations by its subcommittee. These are:

Reconsideration of all antitrust laws.
Formulation of standards of business conduct to be administered by the Federal Trade Commission.
This commission to have nine instead of five members.

G. W. U. ANNOUNCES COMMENCEMENT EVENTS
George Washington University's program of mid-year commencement events has been announced.

Deep-Seated Colds

Develop serious complications if neglected. Use an old and time-tried remedy that has given satisfaction for more than fifty years.

SOLONS PREPARE FOR EXTRA SESSION

Facing a congestion of business almost without parallel even for the closing weeks of a short session, both houses of Congress this week will take up among other things the war taxation and revenue bill conference report.

The present plan is to present the report to the House Wednesday and have it considered by that body Friday. An effort will be made to have it adopted in both houses by the end of the week, but there is sufficient dissatisfaction with various features of it to make this unlikely.

In fact, long debate may develop over it, though the leaders are trying to avoid that.

The bill is bringing forth an unending stream of protests, and Senator Thomas in the Senate Saturday indicated that there was a flood of objections. However, the protests will go for nothing.

This week may tell the story whether an extra session will be unavoidable. With a long list of appropriation bills hanging fire as well as many other important matters pending, unless much progress is made this week in passing the appropriation measures, all hope of avoiding an extra session will be abandoned.

In fact, most leaders fully expect an extra session anyhow, and do not see how one can be obviated.

A Political Move?
Latterly, a good deal of talk is going the rounds that President Wilson and the Democratic leaders really want an extra session, on the theory that as a political proposition it will be better to let the Republicans take a large share of responsibility for running the Government, since they will be in control of Congress.

So far as the public interest is concerned, no one denies that there is a vast amount of needed reconstruction lawmaking which ought to be given prompt attention in an extra session. Land settlement, a law to control the packers, and legislation as to the railroads, are a few samples.

The woman suffragists are making a last effort to force a vote on their measure in the Senate, and talk of getting one last day's work, but whether they will be successful, they cannot yet count. The needed two-thirds and it looks much as if they would see the session end in failure of their amendment. On the other hand, a number of the Democratic leaders dislike to see the matter go over to next session because they fear the Republicans will get credit for submitting the amendment and will benefit in 1920.

May Issue More Bonds.
As the session draws to a close, with but four weeks of it remaining, there is a rising note of apprehension over the enormous expenditures which are being piled up for the next fiscal year. Predictions that these will amount to $2,500,000,000 and necessitate more vast bond issues are freely heard.

With this feeling of apprehension strong, there is more than passing interest in the huge sums carried in various appropriation bills, such as the postoffice, the army and the navy measures.

Much of the time from now on will be taken up in consideration of appropriations. However, international politics, domestic politics, unemployment, the wheat price guarantee, the British import embargo, the Ford-Newberry election contest in the Senate, the bill to validate informal war contracts, the oil-land leasing bill, and many other subjects of the first order will also be to the front.

The District appropriation bill, involving the half-and-half question, is one of the appropriation bills which is hung up. It is uncertain when it will be disposed of by the Senate, and as things stand now it seems at least not unlikely to go over until next session.

SOUTHERN STATE HEADS ASK TANKS FOR FARMS

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 3.—Approving the plan to make available to farmers all army tractors and tanks now useless to the Government because of the war's needs, the agricultural heads of three Southern States today telegraphed that the movement would have their support.

"Let's include trucks, also," telegraphed H. Harris, commissioner of agriculture for South Carolina. "The movement has my hearty approval. Trucks and tractors are tractors and tanks can be used profitably by our farmers."

From the Business Office Viewpoint

The Fable of the Two Calves or From Competition to Co-operation

A Four Part Serial—Part 2

SYNOPSIS of first installment of this four-part serial: Two calves tied with the opposite ends of the same rope find themselves in the very unsatisfactory situation illustrated, when "the hired man," carelessly (like so many "hired" men) sat their respective pails of feed a little farther apart than the rope length. Each calf, in an endeavor to reach his pail of feed, prevented his fellow-calf from accomplishing this same purpose.

After struggling in vain in competition with each other, these two calves finally determined to "get their heads together" with the result that—

To be continued

E. C. Rogers, Business Manager, The Washington Times

HURLED 20 FEET BY TRAIN; DIES

Isaac H. Bryant, fifty-five years old, is dead as the result of injuries sustained yesterday when he was struck and hurled twenty feet by an express train of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis railroad at Highbridge, Md.

According to witnesses, Bryant left a local train at Highbridge and stepped directly in front of a speeding express train on its way to this city. He was formerly a resident of Highbridge, but recently moved to this city, locating at 825 Keefer place northwest. He is survived by his wife and three sons, two of whom are in the army.

Frank Harrison, thirty-five years old, of 1204 Thirteenth street northwest, was injured yesterday when the street car of the Capital Traction Company on which he was a passenger crashed into the rear end of another car of the same line at Fourteenth street and Thomas Circle northwest.

An automobile operated by Dr. H. C. Callahan, of 802 H street northeast, was struck by a street car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company at Seventh and D streets northeast last night.

NEW YORK JEWS PROTEST ALIENS EXCLUSION BILL

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—A protest against the Burnett immigration bill, pending before the House of Representatives, was voiced here yesterday at a meeting of delegates representing 418 Jewish organizations, with a total membership of 88,900.

HOW TO GET RID OF CORNS

A Simple, Safe and Reliable Way. No Pain or Soreness.

Thanks to a new discovery made from a Japanese product women will soon be wearing smaller and prettier shoes than ever. Corns are to be a thing of the past. A new preparation, called Ico-Mint, is said to make any corn or callous shrivel right up and lift off easily. Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes can be lifted right out and all after a "touch" of Ico-Mint. It's wonderful. No pain and not a bit of soreness while applying it or afterwards. People are warned to stop cutting and trimming their corns and avoid the risk of blood poisoning. Simply get a few cents' worth of Ico-Mint from your druggist, and from the very second that it touches that sore, tender, corn your foot, tired, aching feet will feel so cool, easy and comfortable that you will just sigh with relief. Think of it—just a little touch of that cooling, soothing Ico-Mint and real foot joy is yours. It is the real Japanese secret of fine, healthy feet, and is highly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes, and must have to stand on their feet all day.

Travers

314 7th Street N. W.
Final February Clean-Up!
Every Shoe in the House AT ONE PRICE

$4.99 THE PAIR

There is no better evidence of the far-reaching influence which the TRAVERS organization has in the retail shoe world than this offering of high-grade shoes at a price that baffles the market. How Travers can do these things... when everywhere there is a cry of low stocks and high prices... is one of the surprises of the business world.

Reserve your judgment until you see what TRAVERS Offers Tomorrow

New lines and sizes received during January included, insuring all sizes and widths

From the Business Office Viewpoint

The Fable of the Two Calves or From Competition to Co-operation

A Four Part Serial—Part 2

SYNOPSIS of first installment of this four-part serial: Two calves tied with the opposite ends of the same rope find themselves in the very unsatisfactory situation illustrated, when "the hired man," carelessly (like so many "hired" men) sat their respective pails of feed a little farther apart than the rope length. Each calf, in an endeavor to reach his pail of feed, prevented his fellow-calf from accomplishing this same purpose.

After struggling in vain in competition with each other, these two calves finally determined to "get their heads together" with the result that—

To be continued

E. C. Rogers, Business Manager, The Washington Times