Stop Discharge of Balky Objectors

The Department of Justice today made public a list of 17 men who have been discharged from the army because of their "balky" behavior. The list includes names of men who have been charged with mutiny, desertion, and other crimes.

The men were discharged by Secretary of War George M. Cline, who has been criticized for his lenient attitude toward army mutineers. The list includes names of men who have been charged with mutiny, desertion, and other crimes.

Vassar's Fair Sneakers Laugh at Suggestion That They Turn to Gardens

The students of Vassar College have turned a deaf ear to the suggestion that they turn to gardens and the like. "But we have decided to stay right here and show the world how much we can enjoy our college life," said one of the students.

URGES FEDERAL- PACKER CONTROL

The National Farmers' Union today called for federal packer control. "We cannot go on much longer with these cowards who are trying to make us eat their meat," said a member of the union.

EACH MAN TO AFFORD 35c

During the war each man is expected to afford 35c worth of meat per day. The figures are based on the cost of meat before the war and the average diet of a man.

CASHIER WRECKS PITTSBURGH BANK

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 15—The Pittsbürg Bank was wrecked today by a man who was shortly after released from a prison. The man, who was given 30 minutes to get his money, was arrested and charged with attempted murder.

Says Profitiers Would Eject Girls

"The girls will be sent to the streets," said a member of the board of directors of the Pittsburg Bank.

U. S. FOOD PROBERS ASSURE NEUTRALITY

Says profitiers would eject girls.

The girls will be sent to the streets, a member of the board of directors of the Pittsburg Bank.

Director questions neutralistic attitude of Food Probers.

The girls will be sent to the streets, a member of the board of directors of the Pittsburg Bank.

Brown, director of the Pittsburg Bank, said he had been watching the Food Probers and had come to the conclusion that they were not doing their work properly.

"I have been watching the Food Probers and I have come to the conclusion that they are not doing their work properly," said Brown.

CASHIER WRECKS PITTSBURGH BANK

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 15—The Pittsbürg Bank was wrecked today by a man who was shortly after released from a prison. The man, who was given 30 minutes to get his money, was arrested and charged with attempted murder.

To Urge Triumph Arch On Congress. Next Week

The petitioners for an arch at the triumphal arch on Congress next week will meet today.

A number of petitions have been received by the Secretary of War, and it is hoped that a decision will be made soon.

Austrian National Assembly Opens Feb. 17

Vienna. Apr. 30—The Austrian National Assembly will open today. The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.

The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.

Austrian National Assembly Opens Feb. 17

Vienna. Apr. 30—The Austrian National Assembly will open today. The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.

Austrian National Assembly Opens Feb. 17

Vienna. Apr. 30—The Austrian National Assembly will open today. The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.

Austrian National Assembly Opens Feb. 17

Vienna. Apr. 30—The Austrian National Assembly will open today. The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.

Austrian National Assembly Opens Feb. 17

Vienna. Apr. 30—The Austrian National Assembly will open today. The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.

Austrian National Assembly Opens Feb. 17

Vienna. Apr. 30—The Austrian National Assembly will open today. The opening session will be attended by the President of the United States, who will be represented by his Secretary of State.