ADVERTISEMENT. Alkali Makes Soap Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain refined coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces.

HARVARD CLUB SCORES HAZERS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 29.—The hazing of a Harvard freshman because of his socialistic views expressed in connection with the Lawrence strike, the group of hazers including the sons of some of the Lawrence textile mill owners, is vigorously condemned by the Harvard Club, of Boston.

The freshman who was hazed, comes from Colorado Springs. His free expression of radical ideas had earned for him considerable criticism from his dormitory mates and fellow freshmen.

The incident is condemned by the Boston club in the following communication to the Harvard Crimson, the undergraduate daily newspaper: "Harvard graduates: Members of the Harvard Liberal Club of Boston are seriously concerned to learn of an incident that took place recently in one of the college dormitories. It appears that a Harvard freshman who had interested himself in certain radical movements, including the Lawrence strike, had his room invaded by a crowd of twenty students, among whom were the sons of some of the mill owners, and was subjected to an abusive inquisition regarding his personal opinions and conduct, after which certain of his papers were destroyed.

"Certain Harvard men have been guilty of a serious offense. A week ago a student in the yard was forced by about thirty-five of his classmates to burn papers which he owned, dealing with the Lawrence strike. This action can be described in no other way than as an unlawful interference with free thinking.

"This year the yard has frequently been troubled by 'Rah Rah riots,' Rhinhardt nights, with their accompaniment of broken windows and smashed furniture, have been much in favor. On one occasion, according to reports, the members of a rough house went so far as to attempt hazing freshmen.

"We thought such childish pranks had ceased to exist at the university. Undergraduate at Harvard is treated as a man, not as an infant."

CIVIL SERVICE OBS OFFERED TO YANKS

Greater publicity for the civil service in the army camps, and more chance for the discharged soldier or sailor to get placed quickly, are the aims of the Commission in Increasing Activities in Camps and Hospitals.

In every training camp, both on military and on the Government service, an officer or Young Men's Christian Association secretary in most cases handle the work, so that if any of the commission's staff are in the camps, in cases where an officer is not available and a civilian does this work, it was explained that he was a "five-year man" since the Government does not accept the free services of civilians.

The work is being extended to all army and navy hospitals and it is planned to have every transport carry files of the service's bulletins. Since the return trip occasionally takes a couple weeks, the soldiers have plenty of time to read and it is believed the movement will bring good results not only for the civil service but for the soldier.

RARITIES SELLING QUICKLY IN BRITAIN

LONDON, April 29.—While many people are trying to make our flesh creep at the threatened approach of the wolf of poverty there is no appearance of a decreased demand for rarities of all kinds, from books to furniture.

There is a constant stream of articles of bijouterie and vertu into the galleries, and anything that is really good brings its price, while on occasions even the vendors are astonished at the results.

The other day, for instance, some people sold an old family picture they did not much care about. They heard that such things were going well and thought they would put a high price on it. They did, and obtained just five times their figure.

It would be interesting to know what is the ultimate destination of these costly treasures. Berlin, once a big buyer, is out of the market. It is doubtful whether Paris is buying largely, so that the destination appears to rest between America and Britain. It is possible that some of the British land owners who are getting good prices for their estates are buying, but it is difficult to get a clear idea of the matter, that the British newly rich classes are the chief bidders.

BURGLARS KEEP HOLD-UP PROMISE

CHICAGO, April 29.—Three weeks ago three burglars entered C. Hudson's saloon, and after taking $25 from Hudson's cash register insisted that Hudson should attempt to come to a look at the business end of a revolver waved carelessly and uncomfortably near his nose.

"Great! The shot of a house you sell here commented one of the burglars, smacking his lips. 'We will call again some time soon—in about three weeks or sooner if we need money.' 'I hope not,' ejaculated Hudson, when the three congenial thieves were well out of hearing. But the other night three masked burglars entered Hudson's saloon as he was counting up the cash.

"Hello, there, friend," shouted one of the burglars. "Here we are again. Let's have the same thing we did the last time." They did—except this time they only got $12 instead of $25 as on their previous visit.

SAVE FOUR LIVES; PEEVED ABOUT IT

CHICAGO, April 29.—"Come over right away and save four lives." This entreaty, fairly shrieked over the telephone to the Irving Park police station, brought results.

Not knowing what to expect, but wanting to be prepared for anything or everything, the police stopped long enough to toss a pulmotor into the police automobile, and then made a return run. Mrs. W. H. Eldred was standing in the front door when the auto stopped, with smoking brake bands in front of the house.

BOMB FOR HANSON FAILS TO EXPLODE

SEATTLE, Wash., April 29.—Mayor Ole Hanson, who was scheduled by certain New Yorkers to be put on the way yesterday, was on the job again today lambasting the W. W. and enemies of the Government.

The mayor received an infernal machine, yesterday, but due to a slight in the mechanism it failed to explode when delivered to the mayor at the city hall. There was dynamite in the bomb of sufficient power to blow up the city hall.

Federal agents are today making an investigation. The machine bore a New York postmark and the return address on the package is that of Gimbel Brothers.

The machine contained a small phial of sulphuric acid which, when broken, would set off the bomb. Mayor Hanson is preparing for a speaking tour of the country in the interest of the Victory loan and to combat the progress of Bolshevism.

Poor Ex-Kaiser Karl, Wartegg Castle Is Too Little, Off to Prangins

GENEVA, April 29.—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary has rented for eight months a house that once was the residence of Prince Jerome Napoleon.

The house is situated on the banks of Lake Geneva at Prangins, near Nyon. The grounds around it are extensive. Charles is said to have asserted that time hung heavily on his hands on the shores of Lake Constantine, where he has been residing, and also that Wartegg castle was too small for him and his twenty-two attendants.

If the Swiss federal council of lords has objection, it is stated that Charles will definitely leave Wartegg for Prangins the first week of May.

TUBERCULOSIS BIG DISABILITY CAUSE

Tuberculosis is the greatest single cause for disability among American soldiers, an examination of 27,000 claims filed with the War Risk Insurance Bureau during the last month shows.

The disease accounts for 22 per cent of the claims, while wounds necessitating amputation amount to only 17 per cent. Wounds of all assures account for 31 per cent. The figures also show that 29 per cent of the disabilities were incurred in battle, while 57 per cent were in the camps.

GREECE THANKS AMERICA. King Alexander of Greece has tendered thanks to the American people for the assistance they gave through the American Red Cross to Greek refugees in France. Anderson, of Richmond, Va., and had praised highly their work and the generosity of the American people.

TO ENLARGE SCOPE OF HOWARD UNIVERSITY

A vote of confidence is tendered by J. Stanley Durkee, president of Howard University, in resolutions adopted by the Young Men's Protective League.

Mr. Durkee lately submitted to the board of trustees of Howard University a plan for the reorganization of the courses of study, and likewise of the faculty and administrative end of the institution.

His plans are so far-reaching and radical that they will, in the opinion of the league, develop the university into an institution of learning of the best grade.

BRITAIN HAS HEAVY SNOW. LONDON, April 29.—Following a period of perfect spring weather, one of the worst storms in some time raged over the British Isles, covering the country with from four to six inches of snow. Telegraph and telephone lines suffered severely. Communication with the Continent is interrupted. Spring crops and young lambs suffered from the storm.

WASHINGTON HOME FUND NEAR $15,000

ARCHANGEL, April 29.—The American troops are gradually being withdrawn from the front line, preparatory to their departure when the harbor opens. As far as possible they are being replaced by new Russian troops, who are being schooled at the front by American and English officers and non-commissioned officers.

There are at present no American troops on the Fliega or Kadiah-Fredman fronts, and the process of relief is under way on the railroad.

The Divina and Vaga columns, however, still have some Americans. On the Divina the allied positions have been slightly withdrawn from the gas in order to give better positions for the expected onslaught by enemy gunboats.

The Bolshevik infantry, which has been active here, has been dispersed by allied artillery. Allied airplanes also dropped bombs with considerable success.

CHILDREN'S PLAY TO AID ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE

One hundred children will take part in "Fairy Lane," a musical fantasy, which will be seen this afternoon, at 2:15 o'clock, at the Belasco Theater. The play is given for the benefit of the Animal Rescue League.

"Fairy Lane" was written by Mrs. Edward Goring Bliss, wife of Major E. G. Bliss, who is the son of Major Gen. Tasker H. Bliss. Mrs. Bliss has written two other musical plays, both of which have been reproduced at the Belasco under the direction of Miss Minnie Hawke, who directed today's performance.

The list of patronesses of the play includes many prominent women. CRAFTS-GAME SLAYERS GUILTY. Coleman Desautere and Harry W.
