

K. OF C. AIDS WANKS ON SUPPLY SERVICE

PARIS, May 1.—While looking after the soldiers who have participated in the battles and who are now with the army of occupation in Germany, the Knights of Columbus are not neglecting the boys who have done the tedious and important work back in the service of supply. Six huts are now located at Jevres which has been the principal source of supply since the Americans landed in France. From this center supplies of every description are sent to be redistributed in all advanced posts where soldiers were stationed. Twenty thousand men, including five thousand negroes, occupy several thousand huts and huts within an area of seven miles.

The organization has been so complete and efficient that its commanding officer, Col. C. J. Simons, was awarded the D. K. C. The Jevres project indicates the enormous work accomplished by American engineers and experts taken from the ranks because their special ability was essential in this feature of the war work. At the Remault Station at Jevres there are ten thousand animals. There are acres of ground covered with steel buildings, ready for shipment; also supplies of every description ready to be forwarded to any point. The cold-storage plant is a building 970 feet long by 120 feet wide, with a capacity of 8,000 tons of beef. The ice plant has a machine that turns out 500 tons of ice per day. Approximately 140 miles of American railroad track, many machine shops and the equipment of twenty miles of warehouses 50 feet wide, in cars that are scattered throughout the yards of Jevres.

The engineers, electricians, laborers and mechanics composing the organization at this port are disappointed in not having taken part in the actual war.

They are homesick, and it is the purpose of the K. of C. to make pleasant the remaining days of their captivity at this camp. Boxing exhibitions, lectures, serving of chocolate, musical concerts and other forms of entertainment have broken the monotony and, according to army officials, has done much to console the soldiers who are awaiting orders to return home.

DISCUSS WAR'S AID TO CHILD WELFARE

What the war has taught the world concerning the health, education, and work of children will be the topic of discussion at a conference which will be held in Washington during the week of May 6.

The conference will be held under the auspices of the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor, and will be attended by American and foreign child-welfare workers.

Among those invited are Sir Arthur Newsholme, chief, medical officer of the local government board of Great Britain; R. C. Davidson, of the Juvenile Labor Exchange, London, and Mrs. Eleanor Barton, of the Woman's Co-Operative Guild, Great Britain.

France will be represented by M. Plesse-Hamp, of the French ministry of labor; Dr. C. Mulon, and Mlle. Valentine Thompson, editor of La Vie Feminine.

From Belgium, Dr. Rene Sand, University of Brussels, and Mme. Henry Carton de Wiart, wife of the former minister of justice, are expected.

NEW BRITISH BUDGET TOTALS $8,451,400,000

LONDON, May 1.—Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, introduced the annual financial budget in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The sum required was estimated at $8,451,400,000. Last year's revenue was $4,445,000,000, a saving of $225,000,000 on the estimates.

The net debt at the beginning of the year was $2,225,000,000. On March 31 it was $1,715,000,000.

Assets included $8,659,000,000 loaned to the allies—of which $2,840,000,000 was loaned to Russia—and indemnities from the enemy.

The estimated deficit for 1919 is $1,275,000,000.

TO MAKE CITY CLUB OF NATIONAL SCOPE

To make the newly named City Club the greatest inclusive city club in the world will be the aim of the finance committee on the new $1,000,000 downtown home for the organization, according to the announcement last night of Milton E. Ailes, chairman of the committee.

"We should make this club a national institution," he said, "which will be representative of the whole country. This is appropriate for the whole country assembles here."

This was in discussing the fact that over 100 business and professional men from Alexandria had applied for membership. It is planned to reserve a certain number of nonresident memberships for the different cities of the country, and whether Alexandria gets her 100 depends on the number of applications from other cities.

Associated with Mr. Ailes on the committee are Corcoran Thom, Cunio H. Rudolph and Major Guy T. Scott, all prominent local bankers. Mr. Ailes said his committee would hold frequent meetings and keep in active service until the project for which it was formed is realized.

Mr. Ailes declared that if Washington is to get ahead of Cuba in having the greatest club in the world, it will have to make tremendous strides, as Havana, with a population of 350,000, has 129,000 club members, one club alone having a membership of 45,000.

STRIKE TIES UP NEWSPAPER.
BUENOS AIRES, May 1.—A strike of the editorial staff of La Prensa today prevented the publication of that newspaper. La Prensa had discharged one of its editors and an employee of the business office, who were among the organizers of the new union of journalism, which has demanded their reinstatement.

PICKPOCKET BUSY AT POLICE BALL

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 1.—Pardemonium reigned supreme at the policeman's ball last night shortly before midnight when the merrymaking was about to reach its height.

A kind-hearted pickpocket, prowling about, thought he had struck a bunch of easy marks when he pushed his way into the hall where Chief Janssen, fifty-five detectives, the inspector of police, a hundred of more lieutenants, and sergeant and all the "cops" who could sneak off their beats were enjoying the annual affair.

The "dip" was right for later when a lieutenant led a crowd of the boys into the refreshment room and gave the waiter an order to "set 'em up," he almost had heart failure. His money was gone.

He remembered that several men had congratulated him on his magnificent appearance in the grand march and had complimented him on his soldierly bearing. Could there be any connection with the compliments and the missing money?

He told his troubles to several friends. After a search of their pockets they became brothers in misery. Every officer present was searched. Several of them had been picked clean. The occasion was marred by the visit of the "dip," but the police learned a lesson; they will have their money handcuffed in their hip pocket at the next annual ball.

BODY OF WOMAN FOUND IN WOOD

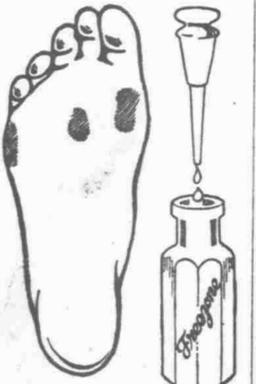

STAMFORD, Conn., April 30.—The body of a young woman was found in a wood on the Mahack road, near Canaan, this afternoon, buried underneath slabs from a nearby sawmill. The police believe the woman was murdered and her body brought to the spot where she was found.

"CALLUS CORNS" LIFT RIGHT OFF

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift them off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

RUIN UNLESS WE SIGN, SAYS GERMAN

BERLIN, April 30 (via London), May 1.—"Germany will be utterly ruined unless the German envoys sign the peace treaty," said Karl Kautsky in the newspaper Freiheit today.

(Herr Kautsky was a former attaché of the German foreign office who was commissioned to investigate the archives to fix the responsibility for the war.)

Herr Kautsky is believed to have completed his investigation but the publication of the report has been held up by the government. Responsibility is said to rest exclusively with individual persons and the German institutions which gave these "personages" their power. The people as a whole are said to be called

"not accomplices, but victims."

Herr Kautsky was quoted as saying: "We are perhaps the most unfortunate victims of the war, with the exception of Belgium."

"The government considers it best to start negotiations, leaving it to public utterances to fix the responsibility for war guilt. This is about as clever as appointing Prof. Walther Schuecking to the German peace delegation after the verdict on the Freytag case."

BAVARIAN REDS OUT, IS REPORT

AMSTERDAM, May 1.—An unconfirmed report that the Red government of Bavaria has been overthrown at Munich was received here from Berlin today.
