

"MIDDY" DROWNED IN CHESAPEAKE

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 9.—Midshipman Philip G. McCarthy, of Portland, Ore., a member of the new first class at the Naval Academy, was drowned Saturday while bathing in Chesapeake Bay from the dreadnaught Wyoming, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, anchored near this place to take the midshipmen on their annual summer cruise today.

McCarthy, with a number of others, had been swimming for some time. Suddenly he sank and failed to reappear. It is supposed that he was taken with cramps. The body has not been recovered.

Marquis of Blandford Seeks Cup of Pleasure, Not an American Bride

LONDON, June 9.—The Marquis of Blandford, a second lieutenant in the life guards and heir to the duke of Marlborough, and his mother, who was Consuelo Vanderbilt, both deny that the marquis will seek a bride in America, according to a copyright dispatch to the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The marquis is reported to have said:
"I am only twenty-two years old. I shall carry on for a while yet."

TAKE 400 IN CRIME COUP.
CHICAGO, June 9.—The early persons were arrested in police raids yesterday in an effort to reduce crime. A city council crime investigating committee had heard many complaints against the police, and some members have recommended abolishment of the detective bureau.

SUGGESTS U. S. SEND SHIP FOR DE VALERA

The United States should send a battleship to bring Edward de Valera, Sinn Féin president of Ireland, to this country if the Irish delegates are not given a hearing at the peace conference, declared P. T. Moran at a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom at Gonzaga Hall last night.

Mr. Moran declared there is precedent for such action by the United States, and predicted an enthusiastic reception here for the Irish leader.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the House and Senate for their endorsement of the Irish cause. A committee, headed by Mr. Moran, also will present bouquets of flowers to Senators Lodge, Borah and Walsh.

The audience included many students from local schools, who were sent for such action by the United president and spoke.

Declaring the Irish people are not inordinately controversial, Miss Katharine Hughes, of the Irish National Bureau, made an earnest appeal for self-determination for Ireland.

Addressing the Friends of Irish Freedom and their guests in Gonzaga Hall last night.

"The Present Day Revival of Gaelic Political Principles" was the subject. Miss Hughes said history shows other nations as belligerent as the Irish. Outlining the advantages of the democratic clan system of government, she said the war just over was the result of feudal governments. The clan system, which she praised, prevailed in Ireland in the old times.

PRINTING BUREAU DENIES FORCE WILL BE CUT DOWN

Officials of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing deny rumors that between 1,500 and 1,800 employees of the bureau are to be released July 1.

It is believed the rumors originated when several hundred of the employees were laid off for a few days last week. It was said this shortage of work was temporary.

There is enough work to keep the present force busy throughout the year, officials declared.

'Splash Me Doll' Now Legal 'Vamp' By Action of Courts

MISS GENE GEORGE PFEFFER.
When Miss Pfeffer, a girl in society in San Jose, Cal., designed the little "vamp" known as the "Splash Me Doll" she had no idea how extensively that bisque young lady would vanup herself into public favor. To protect herself against imitators Miss Pfeffer sought and received an injunction restraining two big corporations from making or selling anything resembling the "Splash Me" siren, which she asserts is entirely her own creation. Miss Pfeffer is a graduate of Leland Stanford University and the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art.

JUDD WILL HEAD 'PRESIDENT'S OWN'

Gail T. Judd has received the unanimous nomination of the President's Own Garrison, Army and Navy Union, to succeed as president N. D. W. Schoonmaker, whose resignation has been accepted by that organization.

Mr. Judd is a chief yeoman in the navy. The election will be held at the next meeting of the garrison, June 19.

General orders were read from the headquarters in Brooklyn announcing the appointment of three members of the President's Own as national aides-de-camp on the staff of Commander-in-Chief Haskins. The members appointed are Capt. H. O. Howard, Mayo C. Mitchell, and George M. Mackintosh.

Delegates to the national convention of the Army and Navy Union, to be held in Cincinnati, September 9 to 13, will be elected at the next meeting.

MASONIC LODGE HAS ITS ANNUAL OUTING

Sixty members of Temple-Noyes Lodge, F. A. M., returned last night from their annual outing, spent as guests of Wellwood Club, on the Northeast river, at Charlestown, Md. The two days were replete with fun, frolic, and comradeship.

Charles Barry, "Dick" Bell, John Hodges, and Carter Keene had prepared things for their brethren when they reached the club Saturday afternoon and left nothing to be desired.

General McClain, military attache of the British embassy, a veteran of the great war, high in British Masonry, and an honorary member of Temple-Noyes Lodge, was among the party.

Major C. F. Cook, U. S. A., past master of Temple-Noyes, was in charge of the outing.

D. C. NEWS PHOTOGRAPHER ATE DOG MEAT IN VIENNA

Lieut. A. J. Sutton, a local news photographer, did not enjoy his recent trip to Vienna, Austria. He says in the Stars and Stripes, official A. F. newspaper, that the food was terrible. "Corned willie or goldfish would have looked mighty good after living for weeks on sauerkraut, once in a while carrots, and black bread," he says.

Lieutenant Sutton went to Vienna to photograph post war conditions. He was held over two and a half months because of a Vienna hotel board bill. During this time he says he often dined on bran, oatmeal and dog meat.

DISCOVER LAKE OF SODA, BUT NOT KIND YOU DRINK

MOMBASA, June 9.—Soda, a lake of it sufficient to supply the households of the world, may be found in British East Africa, 250 miles west of Mombasa.

The lake is sixteen miles long and four miles wide.

Inflowing waters have brought the soda deposit and the glare of the tropical sun has drawn the water from the lake, filled past the saturation point with the soda, till it is crystallized into a solid mass.
