ANDRE MZACK WAS ON TIME WHEN A KID, WHO HE ALWAYS WAS PROMPT IN WHATEVER HE DID,

"OF SUCCESS ANDRE SURELY POSSESSES THE GERM," SAID HIS FATHER "THE EARLY BIRD CATCHES THE WORM."

NOW WE SEE MANNY PLIFF-LIKE A SNAIL HE WOULD ROAM, HE WAS TARDY AT SCHOOL, HE WAS LATE GETTING HOME,

HIS DADDY EXCLAIMED, "MANNY HASN'T A CHANCE, HE AMBLES ALONG LIKE A MAU IN A 'FRANCE'!"

YEARS LATER "MZACK PROMPTLY FRACTURED HIS NECK, HIS WIFE IS A WIDOW—HIS TRAIN HAD A WRECK, WHILE MANNY STILL WANDERS THROUGH SUNSHINE AND RAIN, HE WOULD HAVE BEEN KILLED, THE BOOB MISSED THE TRAIN!

BRITISH SEA FLIER MAY ARRIVE JULY 4

The British dirigible R-54 will arrive in the United States July 4 or according to present indications, the War Department has announced officially. General Charlton, of the British aviation mission here, requests that American merchant ships and shipping organizations wireless weather reports to the R-54 on her trip. The messages should be sent to Cape Race.

Wanted Her Hair Darker, But It Came Out Red, So She Sues 'Beauty Lady'

NEW YORK, June 29.—Desirous of having her hair "two or three shades darker," Miss Stella Gibson, of Eastern Parkway and Utica avenue, Brooklyn, went to a beauty parlor conducted by "Miss Josephine," in Brooklyn. When the treatment was over, she told Justice Strahl, her hair was red and matted. As a result, Miss Gibson has brought suit against Miss Josephine Heninger.

GIVE $50,000 HEART BALM TO ACTRESS

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—After deliberating one hour, a jury in Superior Judge Myers' court awarded Roma Raymond, Polish beauty and screen actress, a verdict of $50,000 damages in her $100,000 heart balm suit against Earle R. Williams, motion picture star. Spectators that crowded the courtroom applauded the verdict.

PILGRIMAGE TODAY TO CABIN OF POET

The yearly reunion of the California State Association will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the form of a pilgrimage to the Joaquin Miller cabin in Rock Creek Park. Senator James D. Phelan, president of the association, will preside. The principal address will be made by Congressman Nicholas J. Sinnott, of Oregon, in whose district the poet lived for a number of years. The names of other members of the association who will participate in the entertainment at the Miller cabin are Charles E. Hanford, Thomas F. Flaherty, Miss Lenora M. De Grange, Miss Virginia Robinson, Miss Edna Scott Smith, C. M. Ivins, Arthur Middleton, Miss F. W. Wieser, Miss Virginia Robinson, Mrs. Frank Byram, and Mrs. Bernheimer.

DON'T NEED ANY NEW LAW TO JAIL 'WETS,' SAY 'DRYS'

"We can throw a man in jail for selling liquor after midnight June 30 without further legislation," Wayne R. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, declared today. The original act provides one year imprisonment or $1,000 fine for selling of beer, wine or other intoxicating malt or vinous liquor after June 30. Anti-saloon League officials have given up hope of getting enforcement legislation by Monday night.

SHERIFF, 76, SLAIN; HOUNDS ON TRAIL

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 29.—A posse and bloodhounds from Nashville are searching Williamson county for the slayers of Sheriff W. S. Stevens, seventy-six, whose body, pierced with two bullets, was found by the roadside a short distance from Triune yesterday morning. Two suspects have been caught, but the search continues.

GIRL SHOTS SELF IN HAND WITH BORROWED PISTOL

NEW YORK, June 29. Lucy Paresse (fourteen years old, has no soldier relatives and she was unable to take a war relic to school for lecture purposes at class day exercises today, as teachers had requested their pupils to do. Instead she took a .22-calibre revolver that she had found in her home. In showing the revolver to Mary Avenue, a chum, near the entrance to the school, the weapon accidentally was discharged and the bullet entered Lucy's left hand. She was taken to Gouverneur Hospital.

LIGHTNING BOLT SHATTERS MOUNTAIN DEFYING GOD

GREENVILLE, Ohio, June 29.—"There is no real God. Man has no soul. Life ends forever in death. The human race has advanced, not on account of the church, but in spite of it. Civilization is due to science and not to Christianity. Do the preachers realize how unnecessary they are on earth? I hope there is a hell for those hell-fire preachers."
