The Bread That Makes the Picnic More Enjoyable

—On all occasions, whether it be a picnic, excursion, or dinner at home, "OLD MAMMY'S RICE BREAD" is better.

It is easy to sell, easy to bite into. And you will commend it from that first bite. At once a desire is created for more of its honest goodness, cleanness and wholesomeness. "OLD MAMMY'S RICE BREAD" is a bread that has never been equalled and we don't believe there is a chance for improvement. While we are constantly alert to improve this bread we really believe that the climax of bread perfection has been reached.

Better try a loaf of "OLD MAMMY'S RAISIN BREAD" tomorrow—you will find it most delightful.

At Movies Next Week

OLIVE THOMAS IN NEW PLAY AT METROPOLITAN.

Beginning Sunday at Crandall's Metropolitan and continuing the chief attraction throughout the week, Select's smart filmation of the famous social satire, "Upstairs and Down," will be shown. In the screen version of this spirited play, Olive Thomas is cast in the role of the "Baby Vampire," and the other parts of importance are taken by well-known individual successes in stellar roles. The settings employed in the visualization of this subject reflect careful choice of the part of the producers and the entire atmosphere of the picture is one of swagger good breeding. In addition to this exceptional feature Montgomery and Rock will be screened in a new comedy, "Flips and Flops." News reels will be shown, and the orchestra of soloists will render as a special number excerpts from Victor Herbert's "Mlle. Modiste."

WEEK OF FEATURES AT CRANDALL'S APOLLO THEATER.

At Crandall's Apollo Theater and Garden Sunday and Monday Marguerite Clark and Eugene O'Brien will be the pictured players of great prominence in "Come Out of the Kitchen," a filmation of the comedy of the same name, which will form the chief feature of the photoplay bill. On Tuesday and Wednesday, "The Busher" will be the featured attraction, with Charles Ray pictured in the title role.

Other bookings for the week follow: Thursday, George Larkin in "The Devil's Trail," supplemented by Larry Semon in "His Home, Sweet Home," and a amusing two-reel farce, "Pauline Frederick in 'The Fear Woman.'" Saturday, Shirley Mason in "The Final Close-Up."

"COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN" MARGUERITE CLARK, SAVOY.

Next Sunday and Monday at Crandall's Savoy Theater and Garden the principal feature of the photoplay bill will be the film "Come Out of the Kitchen," in which the stellar role is played by Marguerite Clark and the supporting cast led by Eugene O'Brien.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Charles Ray will be the bill's chief luminary in the title role of his latest photocomedy, "The Busher." Other bookings for the week are: Thursday, "Madame Eve" in "Home Wanted;" Friday, Shirley Mason in "The Final Close-Up," with Larry Semon in "His Home, Sweet Home," an added attraction; Saturday, Grace Darling and George V. Hobart's sparkling film comedy, "Wild Flowers."

"AUCTION OF SOULS" HOLDS OVER AT MOORE'S GARDEN.

Movie patrons who did not have an opportunity this week to see Aurora Mardiganian, the Armenian heroine, featured in "Auction of Souls," the attraction at the Garden Theater, will have a chance next week to see this wonderful film description of the sufferings of a persecuted people. The management of the Garden Theater has decided to hold the attraction over for another week, so great was the demand for seats this week.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN "GIRLS" AT LOEW'S PALACE.

Marguerite Clark, one of the most appealing and ingenious young stars in the photoplay armament, will be the featured player at Loew's Palace in "Girls," the first part of next week, beginning Sunday, in "Girls," a diverting and romantic satire which affords Miss Clark one of the most emphatic roles of her screen career. "Girls" is really the story of three girls' unsuccessful effort to found a league of spinsters and the disastrous collapse of the man-haters' organization through the inevitable intervention of the little god, Cupid.

It is founded on the play by Clyde Fitch which had its premiere in Washington several seasons ago, and which secured such a pronounced hit at the time of its presentation on the legitimate stage. The cast which surrounds Miss Clark is unusually capable and includes Mary Warren, Helen Chadwick, Harrison Ford, Lee Hill, Tom Persae, Virginia Foltz, and others.

RIALTO STARS MILDRED CHAPLIN IN "HOME."

Mrs. Charlie (Mildred) Chaplin, one of the noted comedians of the films, will be the featured star in "Home," a new production which will have its first showing in this city at Moore's Rialto Theater next week, beginning Sunday. The story is full of intense situations and heart throbs as it records the incidents in the life of a young girl who has visions of marrying a rich man. The story is one of disillusionment, a recounting of the adventures of a girl whose head has been turned by her wealthy associates at a fashionable boarding school. She becomes ashamed of her humble home and seeks solace in the hollows of society. The play from start to finish is an epic in human emotions.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Official Society Spends Restful Fourth of July—Washingtonians at the Summer Resorts.

THE VICE PRESIDENT AND MRS. MARSHALL are spending a restful Independence Day in Washington. The Vice President took part in the ceremonies this morning when medals were presented to the District of Columbia men who have been in the service; and this evening Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and Master Morrison Marshall will witness the spectacle on the Capitol steps, which will be the climax of the Fourth of July spectacle.
