

EJECTED, SHE SUES FOR $500 DAMAGES

Mrs. Mary Page Huffy yesterday filed a suit in the District Supreme Court against Robert L. Pyle and his wife for $500 damages. She alleges she was wrongfully ejected from premises at 1835 Q street northwest, the property of the Pyles. Mrs. Huffy declares her tenancy was not subject to termination by the owners until the treaty of peace had been concluded between this country and Germany. She also says she had expended considerable money in fitting up the premises as a rooming and boarding house, and that by reason of the ejection she has suffered $500 damages. She is represented by Attorneys Edwin L. Wilson and Archer & Smith.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

News of Official Society and of the Diplomats—Belgian Minister Weds—Major Tiesanu Decorated

THE President (and Mrs. Wilson) occupied a box at B. F. Keith's theater last evening, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Julian Bolling and Miss Bertha Bolling. In the afternoon President and Mrs. Wilson took a motor ride.

The Prince of Wales, who will sail from Portsmouth for Canada on August 5, will make the trip across the Atlantic on the new battle cruiser Renown, one of the "mystery ships" built during the war. The Prince will land at St. John's, New Brunswick, and will visit Halifax, Nova Scotia, and Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, before continuing his journey to Quebec on the Renown. He is expected in Washington early in October.

News of the marriage of Mrs. Hamilton Wilkes Cary, of New York, and Baron E. de Cartier de Marchienne, minister of Belgium to the United States, which reached Washington today, caused a flutter of excitement in society. The wedding took place in Paris yesterday, with the American Ambassador to France, Hugh C. Wallace, and Herbert Hoover among those who attended the ceremony.

Baron de Cartier de Marchienne was named Belgian minister to the United States in 1917, being appointed to this post in Washington from Peking. He had, however, served as counselor of the Belgian legation in Washington when Baron Moncheur was minister, and later was elevated to the rank of minister and placed in charge of the Belgian legation in Peking. While counselor of the Belgian legation in Washington he met Miss Alice Coburn, of Lenox, Mass., and married her in September, 1907. She died several years later.

Baron de Cartier de Marchienne is a descendant of Napoleon's physician and is regarded as one of the foremost of Belgium's diplomats.

King Albert of Belgium granted Minister de Cartier de Marchienne the right to resume the title of baron belonging to his family, which was suspended at the time of the French revolution. This was in recognition of his work in promoting friendship between the United States and Belgium. He went abroad several months ago to take part in the celebration in honor of President Wilson's visit to King Albert.

His bride is a daughter of Joseph Emery Dow, of Boston. She has been married twice before. Of late she has been active in war relief work in France and Belgium.

Rumanian Attache Entertains

Major Livius Tiesanu, military attache of the Rumanian legation, who was decorated with the distinguished service cross today, entertained at luncheon at the Shoreham following the ceremony. The Secretary of War, Newton D. Baker, made the presentation, the decoration being given for Major Tiesanu's gallant services to the cause of the allies and the United States during the war.

The guests at the luncheon, who also witnessed the bestowing of the decoration, were Secretary Baker, N. H. Lahovary, charge d'affaires of Rumania; Gen. Peyton C. March, Lieut. Gen. Robert L. Bullard, Maj. Gen. Frank McIntyre, Maj. Gen. George Barnett, U. S. M. C.; Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, Gen. Emilio Guglielmotti, military attache of the Italian embassy; Gen. Louis Collardet, military attache of the French embassy; General Inoyue, military attache of the Japanese embassy; Col. Constant Cordier; Commander Pantozzi, Rumanian commissioner; Major bassy; General Inoyue, military attache of the Rumanian legation; Major Herron, of the British embassy; Major G. N. Swing; Captain Stolca, formerly attached to the Rumanian legation in Washington; Branko Lazarevitch, secretary of the Serbian legation, and Lieut. Yverem Chauvitch, attache of the legation of Montenegro.

Major Tiesanu will go tomorrow to Atlantic City to join Mrs. Tieusanu and their baby daughter, and next Thursday he will sail for Rumania.

Burwell S. Cutler will leave Washington tomorrow for Philadelphia to meet Morgan Lister, who will accompany him to Spring Lake, N. J., where Mrs. Cutler and Mrs. Lister have a cottage for the summer. Mr. Cutler and Mr. Lister will make the trip by motor. Mr. Cutler, whose resignation as chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Commerce Department has been accepted, will sail for England on Tuesday as the special representative of the Secretary of Commerce. He will make an investigation in various of the European countries and return in September. Mrs. Cutler and their small son, Burwell S. Cutler, Jr., will remain at Spring Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Lister.

The club rooms of the Navy Department auxiliary of the American Red Cross, a popular rendezvous for the girls who are doing after-the-war work in the various departments, have been moved from Corcoran court to Wing 9 of the New Navy building.

In an effort to raise funds to carry on the work of the Brunel Home, the board of managers have arranged to have an exhibition of their method of caring for the orphan children in their care and making them happy. This will be held tomorrow at 1217 F street, the Van Wickie Piano Company having placed a great window at their disposal. A number of the kiddies from the Home will be present, as well as those connected with its management; and it is hoped that all interested in the continued success of the institution will take this opportunity to contribute to its support.
