PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—State detectives are on the trail today of several prominent men who are believed responsible for the crash of the North Penn bank following the discovery of a $2,144,000 shortage instead of the $900,000 shortage as was estimated. It is intimated none of the men officially connected with the bank profited by the juggling of the depositors' funds, and the next twenty-four hours may disclose how several influential persons overdraw their accounts by hundreds of thousands of dollars. During the hearing of Ralph T. Moyer, cashier of the bank, yesterday afternoon, Walter O. Colflesh, head bookkeeper, told how he had changed statements and made false records at Moyer's direction.

AT THE RESORTS

CHESAPEAKE BEACH. The hot weather has made bathing one of the most popular attractions at Chesapeake Beach, Washington's nearest salt water resort. Although excursionists at most resorts are finding it too hot to dance, such is not the case at the beach. The large pavilion, always free, is on the boardwalk over the water, and is open toward the bay. Cool breezes constantly fan the dancers. Crabbing is improving from week to week, and fishing remains good. Boating and canoeing continue popular. On the long boardwalk are varied amusements.

MARSHALL HALL. Five big rides, the Midway, play range, boating, picnic groves, playgrounds for kiddies and dancing for the grown-ups continue to make Glen Echo one of the most popular summer resorts in the East. There is a different program of dance music each evening by Mills' Orchestra from 8:30 until 11:30. Sunday Cello and his big band will provide a series of four band concerts for the benefit of holiday crowds.

MARSHALL HALL. Dancing may be enjoyed to its fullest measure at Marshall Hall during these warm days. The riverside pavilion is always swept by cooling breezes. Numerous other diversions are available at the resort, including the scenic railway, the carousel, etc., while the shooting galleries and bowling alleys tempt the skill of the sportsman. Marshall Hall is reached by the steamer Charles Macalester, which makes three trips daily from its wharves at the foot of Seventh street, leaving at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 6:45 p. m.

SHOW FOR WAR WORKERS. The management of Poli's Theater has changed the hours of showing "The Beginning and Mysteries of Life" to 3 to 9 p. m. continuous daily for women only, and for men only from 9 to 11 p. m. This has been done in order that war workers may catch the 5 o'clock show, which is over at 7 p. m. This is the last week for the picture in Washington.
