The marriage of Miss Marie Louise Blair, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ledyard Blair, of New York, to Pierpont Morgan Hamilton, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pierson Hamilton and a grandson of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, will take place this afternoon in St. John's Chapel-on-the-Mountain, near Bernardsville, N. J. The marriage ceremony will be witnessed by a small gathering of relatives. A large reception will follow at Blairside, the country estate of the bride's parents, in Peapack, not far from the chapel. Mr. Hamilton is a brother of the Rev. Arthur Woods, who made her home in Washington, while her husband, Colonel Woods, one-time commissioner of New York, was on duty here.

The marriage is announced of Miss Alice Enith Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lathrop Parsons, of Cleveland Park, to James Gordon Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bennett, of Washington. The wedding took place at Deal, N. J., in the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Lovell, of New York, Mass., in the presence of both families and a few intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett left after the ceremony for Cincinnati, which will be their future home.

Charles Noble Gregory has closed his cottage at York Harbor, Me., and has returned to Washington.

Marian Wickersham a Bride. One of the most charming house weddings of the season occurred on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland S. Robbins, in Cleveland Park, when her sister, Miss Marian Wickersham, became the bride of Henry L. Breuninger, of this city. The Rev. J. S. Montgomery performed the ceremony.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers, and a buffet supper was served in the dining room, attended by her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Snyder, of Philadelphia, and Lewis Talmadge Breuninger, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The bride was given away by her father.

She wore a gown of dark blue, tulle, embroidered in fawn-colored yarn, with hat to match, with a corsage bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Snyder made a charming picture in an American Beauty organdie frock and a black picture hat.

The bride, who was much feted prior to the wedding, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Apple Wickersham, of Washington. Mr. Breuninger is a well-known young business man, of this city. They left after the ceremony for a motor trip through the Catskills, and upon their return will reside at their recently completed home in Maryland, near Washington.

Miss Martyn a Bride. Miss Edith Marguerite Martyn, daughter of Mrs. Rose Martyn, and Ray Palmer Whitman were married last evening, the ceremony taking place in the bride's home. The Rev. J. Franklin Bryan officiated. Miss Martyn was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Herbert E. Martyn.

Miss Mabel McCallip was maid of honor, and little Miss May Miskimmon, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her bridesmaids were Misses Edith and Herbert E. Martyn, Jr., were also members of the bridal party, serving as pages and holding the broad ribbons which led to the improvised altar. The house was decorated with palms, ferns, dahlias and gladioli.

The wedding march was played by Miss Mae Wilkinson and John W. Martyn, brother of the bride, sang "Oh Promise Me" just before the entrance of the bridal party. Lieut. Sterling Wilson, U. S. N., was the best man.

The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with lace and pearls. Her tulle veil was held with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower of bridal roses and stephanotis. Her only gift was a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was in peach-colored taffeta and carried ten rose buds. The flower girls wore a white net and lace and carried a basket of pink roses and the pages were in suits of white satin.

A reception followed the ceremony and the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving the guests by their mothers, Mrs. Martyn and Mrs. Whitman. A supper followed the reception and the table had a center piece of white roses and pink snapdragons. Mrs. Raymond M. Martyn presided at the punch bowl.

The bride and bridegroom left later for a trip to Buffalo and through the Great Lakes and will be at home later on in Dayton, Ohio, where the latter has been on duty for eighteen months at McCook aviation field. The bride's going-away gown was a becoming one of dark blue velvet trimmed with beaver, and her hat was of dark blue velvet with ostrich feathers.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Miskimmon, of East Orange, N. J., and a large party of friends and relatives from Baltimore.

Arts Club Plans Benefit. The Arts Club of Washington has assumed the responsibility of making the first appearance in Washington of the Fortune Gallo N. J. Opera Company a gala evening by taking Monday evening, September 15, as a benefit night for the Arts Club. Great interest is manifested in the appearance here of the Japanese prima donna, Hana Shimuzumi. Hana Shimuzumi has made a name for herself on the Pacific coast. It is understood that the Japanese embassy will be represented at the Monday evening performance.

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood and his son, Lieut. O. L. Wood, U. S. A., his aide-de-camp, who made a short visit at the Shoreham this week, left Washington last night.

Matlock-Mullan Nuptials. The marriage of Miss Ethel Marie Mullan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mullan, of this city, to Isaiah Matlack, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Matlack, of Trenton, N. J., took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, in the Church of the Sacred Heart. The ceremony was performed before an altar surrounded by palms, pink dahlias and gladioli, and was followed by a nuptial mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Louise Mullan, and the best man was the brother of the bridegroom, William C. Matlack, Jr.

The bride's gown was of white satin and georgette crepe, with a long veil of tulle and a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and stephanotis. The bridesmaids wore shell-pink georgette crepe, with hat to match and her bouquet was pink roses.

Prof. Gumprecht played the wedding marches and Mrs. Raymond Dickey played softly some violin solos during the ceremony and mass. The ushers were Dr. Benjamin Gass, Theodore Towns and Al Donnelly, of Trenton, N. J., and Read Mullan, of Baltimore.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents for the members of the families. The house was tastefully decorated with palms and pink and white cut flowers, and after the wedding breakfast the bride and bridegroom left for a trip south by water. Their future home will be at 514 Rutherford avenue, Trenton, N. J. Among the guests from out of town were the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Matlack, and his two sisters, the Misses Adelaide and Coreta Matlack, of Trenton, N. J.
