SAYS CIVIC CENTERS COULD BAN STRIKES

Senator Sherman of Illinois, in an address at the Wilson Normal Community Center rally last night, expressed his belief that community centers, if organized in districts where the new strikes would prevent a repetition of labor troubles...

"A man has a right, without ostracism or blacklisting, to engage in business without belonging to a labor union," declared Senator Sherman. "No one has a right to say what organization a man shall belong to any more than he has a right to restrict his belonging to any other one," he continued...
