

JUSTICE STAFFORD WARNS OF REVOLT

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 21.—Students and alumni of Dartmouth College who assembled in a large tent on the campus yesterday to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the college heard Justice Wendell P. Stafford of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia define the college spirit as "a bold and hardy determination to cultivate and discipline our powers, with the aid of all that men have learned before us, and then to pour the whole stream of our power into the noble task of our own time."

Justice Stafford spoke on "The College a Training School for Public Service." After eulogizing Daniel Webster and other great sons of Dartmouth, he continued:

"We now stand face to face with a new riddle of the Sphinx. The question it propounds is one that we must answer if free government is to survive. That question is: How are the masses of men and women who labor with their hands to be secured out of the products of their toil what they will feel to be and what is in fact a fair return? Until we can answer that question we shall have no peace, and if we fail to answer it we shall have a revolution."

"Our safety can only be found in a policy that treats all men as brothers, all equally entitled to the fruits of their labor, all equally entitled to raise themselves as high as possible, each in his own way, and to do no wrong to any of the rest. It is the spirit of justice and fraternity that must be our guide. And where are we to look for leadership if not in institutions such as this?"

PULLMAN PLEADS FOR TRAFFIC COURT

The creation of a police traffic court, in which all traffic cases would be handled, is recommended by Major Raymond W. Pullman, superintendent of police, in his annual report to the Commissioners for the fiscal year ending June 30, last.

"It is a need of a traffic court," Major Pullman's report states, "is shown by the great increase in vehicular traffic in this city and the resulting increase in traffic cases."

"At present, all traffic cases are handled in Police Court. Creation of a separate court to handle traffic cases would not only relieve the Police Court but would result in a great saving of time for citizens who desire to defend their cases."

"The long wait for call of cases works great hardships on the police as well as citizens," the report says.

STATES CAN SEIZE "OUTLAWED" FOOD

Supreme Court Decision Limits Ohio Cold Storage to Six Months.

The Supreme Court has in effect held that States can seize and sell food held in cold storage longer than the period provided by State laws.

The decision settles the constitutionality of the Smith cold storage act of Ohio, which limits storage to six months. It was the first appeal of the packing interests against the new laws passed in several States limiting cold storage to help reduce the cost of living.

The case was brought by the Columbus Packing Company against the State, after the State supreme court upheld the law. The United States Supreme Court today refused to hear the case.

DAMAGES SOUGHT FOR ALLEGED PATENT VIOLATION

Alleging that Henry R. Carroll and Louis D. Carroll, trading as the Carroll Electric Company, in violation of his patents on a steam heating distributing system, had made use of the patent privileges and constructed and installed plants, William H. Pearce, of Oak Park, Ill., has filed suit against the former for $11,654.50 damages. The plaintiff alleges that a patent was issued to him July 27, 1901, and that by using it in violation of the law, the local electric firm deprived him of the patent's profits and royalties. Pearce is represented by Attorneys Darby & Darby, of New York.
