

$3,500,000 BRIDGE AS MEMORIAL TO SOLDIERS

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 22.—Pennsylvania has taken the lead of all other States in the Union in providing a suitable memorial for her sons who fought in the World War.

THE EAGLE RESTAURANT

316 Ninth St. N. W.
Business Lunch 45c, 11 to 2 Daily
Special Dinner, 2.00 to 3 P. M.
Sunday Dinner, 11.00 A. M. to 3 P. M.
Telephone Franklin 7712

JUDGE QUITS BENCH TO ENTER PRISON

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—William T. Wheeler, formerly a judge of the municipal court of this city, convicted of embezzling more than $40,000 of trust funds of an estate for which he acted as attorney while serving a year's imprisonment and pay a fine of $2,000.
Pending decision on an appeal, Wheeler was released on $15,000 bail. He resigned from the court before he had been convicted.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Plans For Entertainment of Royal Visitors—Serbian Fete Postponed—News of the Diplomats

PLANS for the entertainment of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, who will arrive in Washington next Monday, are nearing completion, and it was said in official quarters today that there was no present intention of cancelling the official functions in their honor on account of the death of the Italian ambassador, Count di Celleri, which has thrown the diplomatic corps into mourning.

No official information as to the program has been given out, but it was learned that the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall's dinner will be the first function for the visiting royals, and that this will be followed by a dinner at which the Belgian ambassador and Baroness de Carter will be hosts, and the dinner which the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will give on Wednesday evening, October 23.

Mrs. Marshall at Concert.
Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, occupied a box at the concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra yesterday and had among her guests Mrs. W. W. McChord, Mrs. Thomas F. Watson, Mrs. J. A. Dougherty, Mrs. Frank S. Hight, and Miss Laura Harlan. Miss Margaret Wilson occupied the Presidential box, and had with her Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Newman.

Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, who was to have been at home this afternoon, has canceled her reception because of the death of Count di Celleri, the Italian ambassador.

The Secretary of War has returned to Washington from West Point and Mrs. Baker, who was with him there, is expected back day after tomorrow.

Miss Ethel Hickey Weds.
One of the prettiest of the autumn weddings will take place in St. Matthew's Church today at 5 o'clock when Miss Ethel Hickey, daughter of Mrs. Edmund Flowden Hickey, becomes the bride of Edward Tierney, of West Virginia. The church is decorated with graceful Farleye ferns, clusters of gay autumn leaves and great white chrysanthemums, and pink flowers have been used in great profusion at the home of Mrs. Hickey in Sixteenth street, where a reception for the bridal party, members of the two families and guests from out-of-town will be held following the ceremony.

The Rev. Father Edward L. Buckley will officiate. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Edmund Flowden Hickey, and will have her sister, Miss Bessie Hickey, as maid of honor. The matron of honor will be Mrs. Alexander Chambers, of Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom; and the wedding party will also include the bride's small niece and nephew, Jocelyn Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dilworth Hibbard, and Billy Hickey, who will enter the church together.

OH! EACH DAY A LITTLE MORE
Hurry! Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty.

As a spread, you'll find this Marigold Oleomargarine delicious. The saving per pound is very considerable. Try Supreme Marigold or Supreme Nut Marigold. Both are packed under our yellow and black label.

MORRIS & COMPANY

MAZOLA

How to Make Perfect Pie Crust
MANY cooks could never make perfect pie crust until they used Mazola. Here is a Pie Crust recipe that will convince you of the wonders of Mazola. And remember, too, that pie crust made with Mazola is easily digested.

Follow this recipe—you can get Mazola at your grocer's.
2 cups Flour 1/2 cup of Mazola Pinch of Salt Ice Cold Water
Work Mazola well into the flour and salt, add enough ice water to hold together, about one-fourth of a cup; roll crust out at once.

FREE A wonderful cook book of 68 pages—the Corn Products Cook Book. Recipes easy to follow—compiled by America's leading cooks. Beautiful illustrations. It is free. Write for it today.

CORN PRODUCTS REFINING CO P. O. Box 161 New York City
L. A. MOUSSEAU, Sales Representative
407 Vickers Building Baltimore, Md.

MORRIS

Supreme Marigold

As a spread, you'll find this Marigold Oleomargarine delicious. The saving per pound is very considerable. Try Supreme Marigold or Supreme Nut Marigold. Both are packed under our yellow and black label.

MORRIS & COMPANY

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY
Plans For Entertainment of Royal Visitors—Serbian Fete Postponed—News of the Diplomats

PLANS for the entertainment of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, who will arrive in Washington next Monday, are nearing completion, and it was said in official quarters today that there was no present intention of cancelling the official functions in their honor on account of the death of the Italian ambassador, Count di Celleri, which has thrown the diplomatic corps into mourning.

No official information as to the program has been given out, but it was learned that the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall's dinner will be the first function for the visiting royals, and that this will be followed by a dinner at which the Belgian ambassador and Baroness de Carter will be hosts, and the dinner which the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will give on Wednesday evening, October 23.

Mrs. Marshall at Concert.
Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, occupied a box at the concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra yesterday and had among her guests Mrs. W. W. McChord, Mrs. Thomas F. Watson, Mrs. J. A. Dougherty, Mrs. Frank S. Hight, and Miss Laura Harlan. Miss Margaret Wilson occupied the Presidential box, and had with her Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Newman.

Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, who was to have been at home this afternoon, has canceled her reception because of the death of Count di Celleri, the Italian ambassador.

The Secretary of War has returned to Washington from West Point and Mrs. Baker, who was with him there, is expected back day after tomorrow.

Miss Ethel Hickey Weds.
One of the prettiest of the autumn weddings will take place in St. Matthew's Church today at 5 o'clock when Miss Ethel Hickey, daughter of Mrs. Edmund Flowden Hickey, becomes the bride of Edward Tierney, of West Virginia. The church is decorated with graceful Farleye ferns, clusters of gay autumn leaves and great white chrysanthemums, and pink flowers have been used in great profusion at the home of Mrs. Hickey in Sixteenth street, where a reception for the bridal party, members of the two families and guests from out-of-town will be held following the ceremony.

The Rev. Father Edward L. Buckley will officiate. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Edmund Flowden Hickey, and will have her sister, Miss Bessie Hickey, as maid of honor. The matron of honor will be Mrs. Alexander Chambers, of Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom; and the wedding party will also include the bride's small niece and nephew, Jocelyn Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dilworth Hibbard, and Billy Hickey, who will enter the church together.

OH! EACH DAY A LITTLE MORE
Hurry! Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty.

As a spread, you'll find this Marigold Oleomargarine delicious. The saving per pound is very considerable. Try Supreme Marigold or Supreme Nut Marigold. Both are packed under our yellow and black label.

MORRIS & COMPANY

PLANS for the entertainment of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, who will arrive in Washington next Monday, are nearing completion, and it was said in official quarters today that there was no present intention of cancelling the official functions in their honor on account of the death of the Italian ambassador, Count di Celleri, which has thrown the diplomatic corps into mourning.

No official information as to the program has been given out, but it was learned that the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall's dinner will be the first function for the visiting royals, and that this will be followed by a dinner at which the Belgian ambassador and Baroness de Carter will be hosts, and the dinner which the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will give on Wednesday evening, October 23.

Mrs. Marshall at Concert.
Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, occupied a box at the concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra yesterday and had among her guests Mrs. W. W. McChord, Mrs. Thomas F. Watson, Mrs. J. A. Dougherty, Mrs. Frank S. Hight, and Miss Laura Harlan. Miss Margaret Wilson occupied the Presidential box, and had with her Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Newman.

Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, who was to have been at home this afternoon, has canceled her reception because of the death of Count di Celleri, the Italian ambassador.

The Secretary of War has returned to Washington from West Point and Mrs. Baker, who was with him there, is expected back day after tomorrow.

Miss Ethel Hickey Weds.
One of the prettiest of the autumn weddings will take place in St. Matthew's Church today at 5 o'clock when Miss Ethel Hickey, daughter of Mrs. Edmund Flowden Hickey, becomes the bride of Edward Tierney, of West Virginia. The church is decorated with graceful Farleye ferns, clusters of gay autumn leaves and great white chrysanthemums, and pink flowers have been used in great profusion at the home of Mrs. Hickey in Sixteenth street, where a reception for the bridal party, members of the two families and guests from out-of-town will be held following the ceremony.

The Rev. Father Edward L. Buckley will officiate. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Edmund Flowden Hickey, and will have her sister, Miss Bessie Hickey, as maid of honor. The matron of honor will be Mrs. Alexander Chambers, of Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom; and the wedding party will also include the bride's small niece and nephew, Jocelyn Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dilworth Hibbard, and Billy Hickey, who will enter the church together.

OH! EACH DAY A LITTLE MORE
Hurry! Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty.

As a spread, you'll find this Marigold Oleomargarine delicious. The saving per pound is very considerable. Try Supreme Marigold or Supreme Nut Marigold. Both are packed under our yellow and black label.

MORRIS & COMPANY

PLANS for the entertainment of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, who will arrive in Washington next Monday, are nearing completion, and it was said in official quarters today that there was no present intention of cancelling the official functions in their honor on account of the death of the Italian ambassador, Count di Celleri, which has thrown the diplomatic corps into mourning.

No official information as to the program has been given out, but it was learned that the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall's dinner will be the first function for the visiting royals, and that this will be followed by a dinner at which the Belgian ambassador and Baroness de Carter will be hosts, and the dinner which the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will give on Wednesday evening, October 23.

Mrs. Marshall at Concert.
Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, occupied a box at the concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra yesterday and had among her guests Mrs. W. W. McChord, Mrs. Thomas F. Watson, Mrs. J. A. Dougherty, Mrs. Frank S. Hight, and Miss Laura Harlan. Miss Margaret Wilson occupied the Presidential box, and had with her Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Newman.

Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, who was to have been at home this afternoon, has canceled her reception because of the death of Count di Celleri, the Italian ambassador.

The Secretary of War has returned to Washington from West Point and Mrs. Baker, who was with him there, is expected back day after tomorrow.

Miss Ethel Hickey Weds.
One of the prettiest of the autumn weddings will take place in St. Matthew's Church today at 5 o'clock when Miss Ethel Hickey, daughter of Mrs. Edmund Flowden Hickey, becomes the bride of Edward Tierney, of West Virginia. The church is decorated with graceful Farleye ferns, clusters of gay autumn leaves and great white chrysanthemums, and pink flowers have been used in great profusion at the home of Mrs. Hickey in Sixteenth street, where a reception for the bridal party, members of the two families and guests from out-of-town will be held following the ceremony.

The Rev. Father Edward L. Buckley will officiate. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Edmund Flowden Hickey, and will have her sister, Miss Bessie Hickey, as maid of honor. The matron of honor will be Mrs. Alexander Chambers, of Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom; and the wedding party will also include the bride's small niece and nephew, Jocelyn Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dilworth Hibbard, and Billy Hickey, who will enter the church together.

OH! EACH DAY A LITTLE MORE
Hurry! Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty.

As a spread, you'll find this Marigold Oleomargarine delicious. The saving per pound is very considerable. Try Supreme Marigold or Supreme Nut Marigold. Both are packed under our yellow and black label.

MORRIS & COMPANY

S. Kann Sons Co.
THE BUSY CORNER PENNA. AT 8 TH. ST.

Open 9:15 A. M. Close 6:00 P. M.

You Can Get Into a House Dress Quickly in the Morning

—And it always looks neat and attractive when it is fresh and clean. It really seems to make you feel good and in tune for the day's work and responsibilities as a housekeeper to have one of these comfortable frocks for morning and home wear.

—We have them of gingham, percales, and chambrays in different qualities. Some are made in the regulation house dress style, others are Billie Burke models.

—Some are trimmed with contrasting colors and materials, others trimmed with embroidery, and they are made very smart with their new style belts, and pockets.

—Priced at $2.50, $2.95, $3.95 and $4.95.
—Kann's—Second Floor.

Here Is Your Chance to Secure a Good Value In Separate Skirts

Values up to $10.95 $5.29
Choice Tomorrow..

—Serviceable styles of all-wool serges and wool poplins, smart silk poplins and taffetas.
—Skirts with plain fronts, gathers in the back, fullness all around, cut-in pockets and fancy outside pockets; all with deep belts and most of them button trimmed.
Kann's—Second Floor.

Brushed Angora Sets

—For outdoor sports wear, for skating, golfing, hiking, etc.
—These sets are in plain colors, and consist of scarf and cap. Warm, comfortable and becoming wraps and caps. At—$2.50 and $3.50
—Separate tams, of brushed angora, in rose, Copenhagen, brown, and mixed grays. At—
$1.50, $2.25 and $2.50
Kann's—Neckwear Store—Street Floor.

Embroidered Georgette Collar Point Bandings

—In white and ecru with white embroidery, square, round or pointed effects. Will fit almost any style of collar, as the points can be separated and shaped to fit.
—Priced, a yard, from—
$1.50 to $2.50
—Bertha laces for the new bertha collars, in white and ecru oriental lace, also marrot and silk applique. Widths from 4 to 7 inches. A yard—
89c to $2.50
Kann's—Street Floor—Lace Store.

Bungalow Aprons

—Here in readiness for the house-cleaning campaign.
—BLUE CHAMBRAY APRONS, bungalow front opening style, has short sleeves, with elastic in ends, bound with white. Also checked Amoskeag gingham aprons, in assorted checks, piped with white, opening $1.69 in the back. At.....
—FINE QUALITY PLAIN PERCALE APRONS, in pink and blue, trimmed with white piping or self material; other styles are trimmed with piping of figured percale. At the same price we have light figured percale bungalow aprons, trimmed with plaids and stripes, opening at side, finished with adjustable belt. At.....
—STRIPED GINGHAM APRONS, opening down front, trimmed with rik-rak, short sleeves; also new style plain chambray aprons, buttoning down the front, trimmed with checked material. Another style is made of large plaid percale; opening in the back, trimmed with rik-rak braid, belted across the back and finished with two buttons at $2.25 ends of belt, round collar. At.....
—BUNGALOW APRONS IN EXTRA SIZES, made of Amoskeag gingham, in a variety of checks, piped with white, have pockets; and the belt is in the $1.75 back. At.....
—Others in plain pink and plain blue percale, piped with white. At..... $2.25
—BUNGALOW "DRESS" APRONS of cotton poplin, in white, rose and Copenhagen, made with a large sailor collar, buttons down the front to the hem, has immense great pockets, the top extension of which form the belt that goes round to the back, belt is trimmed with small pearl buttons; and deep cuffs are buttoned on to the end of the sleeves, allowing the sleeves to be worn long or three-quarter length. Piped on pockets, belt and collar with white. A real $3.50 cover-all that can be used as a dress. At.....
Kann's—Second Floor.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from stomach, liver and bowels.

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious Fruit and Fig taste. Full directions on child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.
Mother! You must say "California!"

CHILDREN
Should not be "dosed" for colds—apply the "outside" treatment—
VICK'S VAPORUB
YOUR BODYGUARD—30¢, 60¢, $1.20

Beacon Bath Robing

—In new designs, suitable for robes for men, women, and children. There are Indian designs in rich colors, floral scroll designs, and others. Good weight, 75c 27 inches wide, a yard.
—Kann's—Street Floor.