Boersianer's Comment on Business

The fuel supply of public utilities companies is a dependable criterion of the country's business. Four or five representative corporations in the mid-West offer a concrete idea of the rest.

The four illustratively selected are the Pennsylvania Electric, the Commonwealth-Edison and the People's Gas Light and Coke Company, of Chicago; the Public Service Company, which serves the belt territory around Chicago; and the Public Service Company, which operates in Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

With rank and file sentiment dead against a collective walk-out in the mines, with rigorous Government intervention which will send engineer corps and soldiers into the pits and miners' camps, a strike—no matter how long—will be a defeat within sixty days (a liberal time allowance) is a fairly logical certainty.

In foreign trade matters there is need of an intellectual evangelist. The right idea is defaced by the babbling of the publicists, whose feasibility is undiscoverable. Senator Edge's plan is feasible, but before it is finally adopted—if adopted at all—much commerce must languish.

Washington will soon add a number of bank buildings to the forty already existing. The banks now conducting enlargements which soon will be completed are the Merchants' Bank, the Citizens Bank, and the Park Road Savings Bank.

The local exchange ruled dull today with only two sales being recorded. There was little change in any of the stocks except Second National Bank, which was offered at 165. Nine shares of Lanston sold at 81 1/2. Columbia Graphophone preferred sold at 96.

Further: "It is necessary that the values of railway securities should be justly and fairly protected, and that the large financial operation every year necessary in connection with the maintenance, operation and development of the roads should, during the period of the war, be wisely related to financial operation of the Government."

Again: "It is also an obligation of public conscience and of public honor that the private interests of investors should be kept safe from unjust injury."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—It was announced here that the United Retail Stores Corporation and other interests have secured control of Montgomery Ward and Company, the Chicago mail order concern. The announcement was made by George F. Whalen, of the United Retail Stores Corporation.

LOCAL FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS GOSSIP

A general feeling that the coal strike would terminate in a manner similar to the strike of the steel workers gave the money markets today a tone of strength, and there was little evidence of a check in the advance of the past few weeks as a result of the added industrial complications.

Despite the well-defined feeling of confidence from all quarters, there is an evident tendency to consider the coal situation as a very serious problem in the industrial condition of the country. The fact that the coal situation will affect the public at large more acutely than did a tie-up of the steel industry calls for speedy action in co-operation with the operators and workers.

Ten applications were received by the Federal Reserve Bank in making the week ended October 31, 1919, for authority to organize national banks. These applications represented a combined capital of $310,000. During the period fourteen charters were granted to banks having an aggregate capital of $1,150,000.
