Czecho-Slovak Charge d' Affaires to Give Brilliant Reception—Luncheon At French Embassy—News of the Diplomats

JAN MASARYK, charge d' affaires of Czecho-Slovakia, will give a reception tonight at the New Willard in celebration of the seventieth birthday of his father, the President of Czecho-Slovakia. Miss Margaret Wilson will be present.

The reception will be one of the most brilliant given in Washington this season, and will be especially interesting from the fact that it is the first official function given under the auspices of the newly created Czecho-Slovak legation. The guests will include the Diplomatic Corps, heads of executive departments, members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with the ladies of their families, and many resident society folk. Mr. Masaryk's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Henry A. Ferguson and Miss Lydia Ferguson, who arrived yesterday from New York to be his guests, will receive with the host, assisted by Mrs. Michael Gallagher, of Chicago, another cousin of Mr. Masaryk, and Mrs. Vladimir Hurban, wife of the military attaché of the Czecho-Slovak legation. Colonel Hurban will make the presentations.

Mrs. Edwina T. Meredith, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, will receive with Mrs. C. C. McChord at her afternoon at home today.
