Police Hold Man Who Paid Unexpected Visit to Home of Victim.

WARREN, Ohio, April 26.—The theory that Olive Thompson, a seventeen-year-old high school student found dead in her home with a rifle bullet through her heart, ended her own life gained strength when Chief of Police Barney Gillen stated that he had found evidence that a young man now detained by the police had left the Thompson house the day before while the girl was alive.

COAL SHORTAGE SHOWN BY GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

World Production of 1919 Dropped Back to Level of 1910, Says Report.

An alarming world shortage of coal is shown in a statement issued today by the United States Geological Survey. The statement shows that the world production of coal in 1919 dropped back to the level of 1910, with preliminary estimates showing the world production of coal for 1919 to be approximately 1,200,000,000 metric tons.

Line-up To Date Of Delegates To Both National Conventions

The uninstructed delegations to both the Republican and Democratic conventions still hold complete power, notwithstanding the series of Presidential primaries held in the last six weeks.

On the Democratic side 145 delegates have been pledged and 238 remain unpledged to date. By a curious circumstance, Hoover, with the Michigan vote, is the high man in the Democratic group, with Palmer second, and Meredith third.

The standing of the candidates in the two groups, according to primary and convention instructions, follows:

Table with columns for States, Democratic Delegates Chosen, and Uninstructed Delegates. Lists states like Arizona, Georgia, Illinois, etc.

*Palmer has plurality of delegates to State convention by which national delegates will be selected, but will not control.

The Democratic delegates to the national convention will number 1,036, with 724 votes, two-thirds, necessary for a choice.

JOHNSON OPENS HIS FIGHT IN MARYLAND

Enthusiastic Audience Greeted Senator Today at Rockville.

seventy and seventy-one, and as every individual, down to the humblest, is guaranteed his full rights under the constitution, and the bill of rights.

"The other and wider question is that the League of Nations. The question is here and must be met.

"Some people express horror that it must be injected into this Presidential campaign.

"Others who have been pussyfooting are shivering in their shoes lest it be brought into the campaign. They are trying to dodge the issue.

"Then, as you know, there are certain international financial interests, led in America by J. Pierpont Morgan, who wish to extend their charity to the people of the United States. They would kindly settle the question for us.

"Then, there are those who have been standing the grueling abuse of last year's fight, who are determined that the question is here and must be decided now and forever, and that we shall have an America for Americans.

"Pleas for One Flag. Of course, that does not mean we can ever stand aloof. When humanity calls for help, when civilization cries, America will respond as it always has.

"The one thing we ask is that when that crisis has passed, America shall be in position to decide her future course without outside interference.

"We who have fought in the Senate ask that America be permitted to decide the path, based on our forefathers; and to follow it under just one flag, the old Stars and Stripes, and not under a polyglot banner.

"I'm seldom in accord with the President, but I am in accord with him on the ground, that the question shall be decided by the people and by the people alone."

JOHNSON SUPPORTERS CLAIM NEW JERSEY

NEW YORK, April 26.—New Jersey will be carried for Hiram W. Johnson at tomorrow's primaries. A majority of the twenty-eight delegates to Chicago will certainly favor his nomination for the Presidency.

This forecast was made last night by Al Joy, personal representative of the California candidate, after a thorough canvass of the State. He said:

"First of all, every friend of Johnson should arrange to go to the polls early, for the big cities, generally, they open at 3 p. m. and close at 10 p. m. In Atlantic City and some country districts the polls open about noon.

"We expect to elect Mulford L. Ballard and Thomas R. Layden, our candidates for delegates-at-large, and practically all of our nine Congressional district candidates.

"The split between the Wood managers and the regular Republican organization led by Senators Frelinghuysen and Edge gave Johnson supporters a splendid chance to carry the State.

"Everywhere that Senators Johnson, Borah, Kenyon and Congressman Nolan and others of our speakers have appeared they have been received with tremendous acclaim. Senator Johnson in one day addressed nearly ten thousand cheering voters. Senators Borah, Kenyon and others have addressed many times ten thousand.

"The fact that home Jersey is President Wilson's home State made the outpouring for Johnson the more remarkable and significant.

"Wood managers have tried to array ex-service men against Johnson. They failed. The story that former war veterans believed in Wood managers is a lie. Wood managers are denouncing him as pro-German and a 'wet' in anti-German and 'dry' districts and as a 'dry' and anti-German in 'wet' and German districts.

"Senator Johnson has consistently advocated simple Americanism, free speech, a free press and the right of assembly as guaranteed by the Constitution.

"In New Jersey the Senator stands for the same issues that enabled him to sweep North Dakota, a part of Minnesota, Michigan, Nebraska, Montana, and a part of Illinois. After Tuesday, the Senator's opponents will have to look for another 'pivot' State."

"Senator Johnson is storming Maryland today. He will spend two or three days there and then return to Indiana.

NEW YORK, April 26.—"Senator Hiram Johnson to this minute leads all rivals in the number of delegates actually pledged," said Al Joy, one of the Johnson campaign managers, yesterday.

"He has won eighty-three delegates. He has carried five of the seven States which have held Presidential preference primaries, North Dakota has given him ten delegates, Michigan thirty, Nebraska sixteen, Montana eight, Nevada six. He has a majority of twenty-four in Minnesota.

"In Illinois Johnson secured one delegate. "Concerning a fifty-fifty split between Wood and Johnson in Minnesota, Johnson has pledged to him eighty-three, as against thirty-six for Lowden and twenty-four for Wood.

"The career of the late Admiral Hoehling, U. S. N., retired, died last night at his residence, 17 Primrose street, Chevy Chase. Admiral Hoehling was eighty-one years old and was born in Philadelphia. He was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and entered the navy in 1861 with the rank of assistant surgeon.

He remained in the navy until June 29, 1906, when he was retired with the rank of rear admiral. During the civil war Admiral Hoehling was a member of Admiral Porter's Potomac flotilla that became famous by its blockade running escapades.

From 1882 to 1890 he was commander of the Naval Hospital in Washington and also was stationed for a time at the navy yard here. He was a member of several navy boards. His career in the navy took Admiral Hoehling all over the world.

He is survived by his wife, Annie T. Hoehling of Chevy Chase; one son, Attorney A. A. Hoehling, Jr. of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, of Chevy Chase, and Mrs. Joseph R. Wilmer, of Annapolis.

The funeral will be private.

TUESDAY IS BUSY DAY FOR G. O. P. POLITICIANS

133 Delegates For National Convention to Be Chosen By Various States.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The Republican party will be exceedingly busy Tuesday.

It will choose 133 delegates to its national convention in Chicago, about one eighth of the total number.

In Ohio 48 delegates are to be elected, with the chief battle between Wood and Harding; Massachusetts is to select 35, with the main struggle between Wood and Coolidge; New Jersey will elect 28, in a contest between Johnson and Wood; the State of Washington is to choose 14 and Idaho will select 8 in a convention.

MINERS AND OPERATORS CONFERENCE NEAR END

Adoption of New Wage Agreement or Split Predicted Within Next Two Days.

NEW YORK, April 26.—After sessions lasting several weeks the conference of anthracite operators and the sub-scale committee of the United Mine Workers on a new hard coal working agreement was nearly at an end today.

Adoption of a new agreement within the next two days or an open split in the ranks of the miners loomed as a strong possibility.

The miners have stripped their demands to the bone, are hopeful that the operators will grant their closed shop demand, on which most of the discussions have hinged thus far. The miners also stand firm for wage increases equal to those granted hit-timorous workers. They dropped the 60 per cent advance and six-hour day demands.

GEN. WILLIAM H. SEWARD, CIVIL WAR HERO, IS DEAD

Son of Former Secretary of State Under Lincoln Won Fame as Banker.

The general was commander of the first brigade, third division, Department of Shenandoah, during the last two years of the civil war, having been promoted to that rank on the field of battle for gallantry in action.

He had previously commanded the 138th New York volunteers and ninth New York heavy artillery regiments. He saw five years service.

After the war, he established the banking firm of W. H. Seward and Company at Auburn, holding its presidency until his death. He was prominently identified with literary and historical societies throughout the State. In 1888 he was president of the New York electoral college.

K. OF C. BOOK RAKES WAR DEPARTMENT

Organization Charges Official Hostility to Giving Comforts Free to Soldiers.

Frequent efforts on the part of the War Department, under Secretary Baker, to hamper the welfare work of the Knights of Columbus with the A. E. F. and the fact that the Knights were told to quit giving comforts to the soldiers or get out of France, are charged in the new official history of the Knights of Columbus, which has just been published by the organization at its headquarters in New Haven, Conn.

Teils of Heated Debates. Amazing revelations are made by the authors, Maurice Francis Egan, formerly minister to Denmark, and John B. Kennedy, of the acute differences and heated debates on the subject of welfare work. Under a chapter heading "Hewing to the Line," the Knights give their official version of many disputes with the War Department and with other welfare agencies. According to the statements made in this chapter and elsewhere in the two volumes of the official history, many attempts were made to prohibit the Knights from distributing without charge comforts to the men of the A. E. F.

At one time, the authors assert, the Knights were told orally to stop their "everything free" policy or remove their workers from France. They replied that they would obey the order and retire from France only if a written order was handed to them under the signature of General Pershing. The written order was never given and the Knights ignored the mandates and went right along with their free service.

There were disputes as to how the various welfare organizations should be grouped in drives for money. The Knights insisted all should appeal together or not at all. There were disputes as to how athletic events should be managed. But in this matter the Knights declined to argue, the book asserts, and went ahead with whatever programs they had arranged. The authors charge frankly that official interference, obstructed much of the good work that had been planned. There were differences, also, as to how money collected should be spent, and, all in all, as the book makes clear, the Knights had to waste a good deal of energy in disputes with officialdom.

Have Money Left. They operated their relief work with the idea of avoiding a second general drive for funds, and this they succeeded in doing despite their policy of giving everything away. They ended the war with $11,000,000 on hand, and after apportioning sufficient funds to sustain 92 scholarships they still have $7,600,000 with which to carry on their free educational work for the former soldiers. The book shows that the organization has grown from fourteen men in 1882, when the order originated in New Haven, to 675,000 members, and that it raised and expended $2,500,000 for educational and relief work before the war.

Tax on Teetotalers to Be Asked in Commons; Dry Leader "Exclaims"

LONDON, April 26.—Taxation of teetotalers in the United Kingdom will be proposed this week in the House of Commons by Captain Sir Keith A. Fraser, who on behalf of the "workingmen's clubs," seeks a more general distribution of the heavy taxation born by drinkers.

L. F. Jones, head of the prohibitionists, says: "Sir Keith's idea is ridiculous. If I had my way I would have the state pay a pension to all abstainers."

Brought out by Egan and Kennedy is the claim of the world's record for doughnut baking. After adopting special methods the Knights turned out 5,000,000 doughnuts in ten weeks for the army of occupation, centering around Coblenz.

DEEMED ALL WAS FAIR WHEN LOVE WAS LOST

So Rochester Swain Goes Outside the Law to Get His Presents Back.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 26.—Deftly raising a window in the bedroom of Miss Rose Lipshitz, Abraham Arthur Berman, twenty-eight, entered the room and took a seat on a trunk near her bed. For half an hour Berman, with a loaded revolver in one hand and a flashlight in the other, watched the girl.

Berman had been keeping company with Miss Lipshitz for two years or more and had given her many presents, including a beautiful set of furs. Recently the girl dismissed him. Berman made efforts to reinstate himself in her favor and failed. Then he sought to recover his presents.
