

ARTS CLUB TO GIVE PLAYS.

The Arts Club Players will present a new series of one-act plays at the Little Theater in the Postoffice on Friday. This will be the last club performance for the season.

Kintho Beauty Cream For the Treatment of FRECKLES In Use for Over 15 Years

Your freckles need attention NOW or may remain all summer. Use Kintho, the old and time-tried treatment that has given satisfaction for over 15 years, and rid yourself of these blemishes.

We Are Artists, Too---

To be able to snap any object, no matter what, so as to make a pleasing picture is true art—and up to you. To take your negatives and to treat them in the finishing process that every line, shade and shadow will come out strongly requires the work of experienced men—we can do this for you. Bring us your negatives for better work.

THE NATIONAL REMEMBRANCE SHOP (Mr. Foster's Shop) Open Evenings Until 9 o'Clock FOURTEENTH STREET, One Door From Pa. Ave.

serve to introduce three new comers to the players group, Mrs. Francis Alton Connolly, Detlow Marthessen, and Marx Kahn. The second features Miss Harriet Murphy, a most promising ingenue and the third is Dr. Johnson's latest and best effort. It should certainly score a success in the hands of two such excellent actors as Miss Ives and Mr. Beck.

The regular Friday afternoon teas given by the League of American Penwomen at its club house, 1722 N street, through the whole of the past season, have been discontinued until the autumn.

Mrs. John D. Patten will speak at the open experience meeting of the Housekeepers' Alliance, to be held in the ballroom of the Lafayette, Friday morning, April 30, at 10:30 o'clock, on "A Plan of Organization for the Reduction of the Cost of all Clothing."

OPPENHEIMERS 8th and E Sts. N.W. Select Bear Brand Yarns A Knitting Yarn of Supreme Quality ALL COLORS SHOP UNIQUE

THE BUTTER THAT Satisfies Every Demand ELK GROVE BUTTER Golden & Company Distributors

Seventh and Eye Streets House & Herrmann Seventh and Eye Streets

MAKE yourselves comfortable this summer with those features that contribute to your enjoyment out-of-doors; and help with the housekeeping indoors. You'll find some very attractive prices quoted—and if credit is wanted it's our pleasure to accommodate.

Couch Hammocks of the Better Sort Look carefully at material and make, for satisfaction depends—not upon price, but upon construction. You are on the safe side here. We are showing a very large line of the substantially made Couch Hammocks—quoting a special price on one with wire spring bottom; soft mattress; with high sides and back of heavy duck; chain hangers. Durable khaki color. $16.65

Lawn Swings Four-passenger Lawn Swing, with adjustable back; made of heavy one-inch stock, securely bolted; Supports are painted Red; seats and frame Natural finish. SPECIAL $9.85

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Colby To Receive—Mrs. Alexander Entertains—Dinners at the Embassies—Weddings and Engagements

MRS. COLBY, wife of the Secretary of State, will hold her first "Cabinet day" reception this afternoon and will receive on the following Wednesdays, until June 23, 1920, at the State Department. The reception today will be quite informal. Mrs. Colby will receive alone and her daughter, Miss Katherine Colby, will preside at the tea table.

Mrs. Joshua Willis Alexander, wife of the Secretary of Commerce, is entertaining at bridge this afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. Tom D. Kitt, of Chillicothe, Mo.; Mrs. Tom Ray and Miss Rowena Ray, of Kansas City, Mo. The company asked to meet them numbers about fifty, and includes Mrs. Atlee Pomerene, Mrs. Thomas P. Gore, Mrs. James A. Reed, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. John F. Shafroth, Mrs. Seiden P. Spencer, Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, Mrs. Julius Kahn, Mrs. Samuel C. Major, Mrs. John E. Raker, Mrs. Robert E. Cooney, Mrs. Cornelia Sweet Campbell, Miss Sophie Sweet, Mrs. William A. Jack, Jr., Mrs. I. W. Little, Mrs. E. Lester Jones, Mrs. Lewis Bowen McBride, Mrs. Hal Smith, Mrs. Parker West, and Mrs. George M. Putnam.

Senator and Mrs. Charles B. Henderson will entertain informally at dinner tonight, with the Italian Ambassador and Baroness Romano Avezana among the guests.

On Saturday evening Senator and Mrs. Henderson will give a dinner in compliment to Mrs. Walter Dillingham, of Honolulu, who will arrive tomorrow to stay with Capt. and Mrs. Richard Kimball. Mrs. Dillingham spent the winter of 1918-19 in Washington and has many friends here.

Hutchens-Morris Wedding. Miss Pattie Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Speed Morris, and Horace King Hutchens, of New York, will be married today, the ceremony taking place at 5 o'clock in the Bethlehem Chapel, Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul. The Rev. Canon Austin will officiate, and the bride, who will be unattended, will be given in marriage by her father, Mr. Morris. Mr. Hutchens will have his brother, Don King Hutchens, as best man.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakhtmeteff entertained a distinguished little company at dinner last evening.

The Italian Ambassador and Baroness Romano Avezana entertained at dinner last night, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Gist Blair, Col. and Mrs. Charles Patterson, Miss Helen, Miss Mabel Boardman, the Counselor of the Italian Embassy and Mme. Brambilla.

Miss Margaret Wilson, who is in New York, is expected to attend the supper dance to be given by the officers of the 105th Infantry, the old Sixty-ninth, on Thursday evening at Delmonico's.

The Bishop of Washington, the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, was host at luncheon yesterday at the Bishop's House, or Cathedral Close, for those attending the general meeting of the National Cathedral Association.

Miss Gladys Hinckley entertained guests at dinner last evening.

Mrs. T. H. McDannel is entertaining at bridge, to be followed by tea, this afternoon in her apartment at Wardman Park Hotel, and will give another bridge party on Saturday. Her daughter, Miss Lucy McDowell, was presented to society this season in Baltimore, where Mr. McDannel is in charge of the revenue office.

Prince Alfred zu Hohenlohe-Schillingsfurst and Princess Hohenlohe are at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York, for a few days preparatory to sailing for Europe. They have been in Washington for several months with her father, Alexander Britton.

Mrs. Thomas E. Harrington has arrived in Washington to stay with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Calvo, until after the marriage of her sister, Miss Celina Calvo, and John Carter, son of Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, in June. Mr. Harrington, who has until recently been in business in Central America, has been transferred to New York, where Mrs. Harrington will join him when she brings her visit to Washington to a close.

Mrs. Henry W. Keyes, wife of the Senator from New Hampshire, who is widely known as a writer under the name of Frances Parkinson Keyes, will be the guest of honor tomorrow at the luncheon of the Women's Press Club at the Pickwick Inn. She will speak briefly on the general topic of Alaska-Made Refrigerators The scientific principle upon which the Alaska Refrigerator Co. has designed its Refrigerators and the practical sizes and styles in which they are offered make them by far the most satisfactory of all makes. Side-icer style, with white enamel provision chamber; good size, $31.50 home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris, 1824 S street. Mr. Hutchens' father, James Lowell Hutchens, of New York, is here for the wedding, and others who will be present are the bride's two brothers, Robert Kean Morris, of Panama, and William Sylvanus Morris, of Duluth, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Miller, of King George county, Va.; Miss Mabel Hutchens, of Brownsville, Md.; and Mrs. Faneuil Weisse, of New York.

On the completion of their wedding trip Mr. Hutchens and his bride will make their home in New York, where Miss Morris has been living for the last few years. Her traveling gown is of navy blue tulle, smartly made, and with it she will wear a blue tulle cape and a small blue straw hat, with a puffed crown of blue tulle.

Capt. and Mrs. D. H. Connolly entertained Mrs. Helen Baxter and Charles McDonald Brown and the members of their wedding party and the out-of-town guests at dinner last night at the Army and Navy Club, following the rehearsal for the wedding, which will take place this evening at Gunton Temple Memorial Church.

The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Douglas Putnam Birnie in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives, and will be followed by a wedding supper at the Army and Navy Club, with a bridal party, relatives, and out-of-town guests.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Connolly, whose husband is on the general staff, United States army, at Washington in July. The two bridesmaids will be Miss Cora Brown, of Marietta, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Alice White, of New York. Robert McWhorter, of Athens, Ga., will be the best man, and the ushers will be Dr. Edwin Brayles, of Baltimore, formerly of Atlanta, and Joseph E. Brown, of Marietta, Ga., brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's ring-bearer, Betty Baxter, daughter of Capt. John R. Baxter, will be the ring-bearer. Former Governor and Mrs. Brown and their family arrived yesterday at the home of the bride's parents on Massachusetts avenue. The ceremony, which will be witnessed by only members of the two families and a few close friends, will be performed by the Rev. Edward L. Buckley. Miss Carolyn O'Rourke will be her sister's only attendant, and Lieut. C. G. Moore, U. S. N., will be best man.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white satin made short, with an overdress of the same and a court train of the same. The bodice is made of duchess lace, which is used to form the tiny short sleeves. The veil is of tulle, with a coronet made of the duchess lace and trimmed in tiny

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson went to New York yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Rachel Littleton and Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., which will take place tomorrow.

The marriage of Miss Helen O'Rourke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Matthew O'Rourke, and Lieut. Evan Greenwood Hanson, U. S. N., takes place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents on Massachusetts avenue. The ceremony, which will be witnessed by only members of the two families and a few close friends, will be performed by the Rev. Edward L. Buckley. Miss Carolyn O'Rourke will be her sister's only attendant, and Lieut. C. G. Moore, U. S. N., will be best man.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white satin made short, with an overdress of the same and a court train of the same. The bodice is made of duchess lace, which is used to form the tiny short sleeves. The veil is of tulle, with a coronet made of the duchess lace and trimmed in tiny

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson went to New York yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Rachel Littleton and Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., which will take place tomorrow.

M. PASTERNAK 1209 Connecticut Avenue BEING A VERY SPECIAL OFFERING FOR THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY OF Suits Hats Dresses

In Making the Announcement of This Sale We Wish to Assure Our Clientele of the Genuineness of These Offerings—All Taken From Our Regular Stocks and Marked Much Below Regular Prices. To Be Sold Without Reserve No Exchanges—No Approvals SUITS HATS

Suits of Tricotine, Poiret Twills, and Brown Checks. A select assortment of garments, some of which sold as high as $225. Hats comprising the balance of our new spring millinery. A choice selection including hats for sports—semi-formal and formal occasions. Several of these pieces were marked at $35.

For Thursday, Friday, Saturday Special $69.50 and up Prices Thursday, Friday, Saturday Special $15.00 and up Prices DRESSES —in different sizes and styles of the silhouette and bouffant —developed in TAFETAS and including several fine SATIN dresses. Previous prices on this apparel were as high as $89.50. For Thursday, Friday, Saturday, $55.00 and Special Price. $55.00 and up

THE EAGLE AMERICAN-CHINESE RESTAURANT 218 Ninth St. N.W. DANCE SALON NOW OPEN. Dinner Dances, 9 to 1:30 P. M. Supper Dances, 10:30 P. M. to 1:30 A. M. THOMAS JARDIN MUSIC Business Lunch, 11 to 1 P. M. Special Dinner, 11 to 1 P. M. Special attention given to after-dinner parties. Telephone Franklin 7712.

S. Kann Sons Co. THE BUSY CORNER PENNA. AVE. AT 8 TH. ST. Open 9:15 A. M. Close 6:00 P. M. Separate Skirts Worth to $14.95 Reduced to $9.75

"FLEXO" Petticoats With Spiral Spring in Back for Close Fitting. —This spiral spring makes the petticoat fit snugly in front and fits smoothly over the abdomen. Some are made with embroidery founce, others with lace trimmed founce. All have the underlay under the founce. The Embroidered Founce Petticoats at $1.69, $2.00 and $2.25.

Stamped Apron Day In the Art Store —Bungalow Aprons—Ready made and stamped in pretty designs for embroidering. Special value $2.50 at $2.50 —Tan Bungalow Aprons—Stamped in designs for loop stitch. Special at $2.75 and $2.75

38-In. Shadow-Checked Voile You Cannot Imagine How Pretty It Is Until You See It A Yard, $1.25 —Self-colored checks, the checks lose themselves in the deep folds, where one thickness of the material falls against another, but show very plainly in the light, or when the light falls through the voile, giving a wonderfully pretty effect, which suggests the name—Shadow Checks. They are shown in lavender, Copenhagen, mais, brown, rose, light blue, Belgian blue, orchid, gray, pink, navy, and black.

Embroidered Voile Blouses in Charming Effects —Fine quality voiles, all white and embroidered in colors or white. Some are tie back models, with basque front, others are made with little peplum skirt. They are embroidered in heavy effect with French knots and in lighter embroidery stitches and chain stitch embroidery. —All are round neck styles, some have small crocheted buttons in front, others are ornamented with a bit of ribbon, and still others are trimmed with lace insertion. These at $4.95 and $5.75

White Chenille Dotted Navy Blue Veiling —A very new and very pretty effect in veiling. The mesh is a popular hexagon, and the dots are in different sizes. This veiling is very much in demand for wear with the navy blue sailor hat. A Yard, 59c, 89c, $1.25 and $1.50 Kann—Street Floor.