Dolph-Munroe Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Barker Munroe, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Charles F. Munroe and Harold W. Dolph, of Scranton, Pa., was solemnized yesterday at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Forest Glen, Md. The wedding was simple and yet charming in detail and was attended by a small company of relatives and friends.

The Rev. Dr. George Williamson Smith, of Washington, officiated, the ceremony taking place before an improvised altar in the living room which was sweet with spring flowers. Clusters of snapdragons and larkspur were used as decorations.

Dr. Munroe gave his daughter in marriage and was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Charles H. Matthews, jr., of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Horace D. Rouzer, of Washington. Stanley E. Dolph was best man for his brother.

The bride wore a gown of ivory white satin combined with georgette and trimmed about the bodice and on the graceful skirt with duchesse lace. The square cut train was hung from the shoulders. Her tulle veil was arranged in cap effect and caught with clusters of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Matthews wore an orchid-colored georgette and Mrs. Rouzer, in green, the two gowns being fashioned exactly alike on new and modish lines. Their hats were of georgette matching their costumes, and both carried clusters of pink snapdragons and larkspur. Mrs. Munroe's gown was of printed georgette in tones of lavender and orchid built over flesh-colored satin.

Mr. Dolph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dolph, of Scranton, Pa., were here for the wedding, and other out-of-town guests at the ceremony and the informal reception which followed were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carroll, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. William McIntyre, of Moynan, Pa.; and Mrs. George Kennedy, of Massachusetts. After a brief wedding trip Mr. Dolph will take his bride to Springfield, Ohio, where they will make their home. She will travel in a smart Oxford gray suit with which she will wear a becoming small hat of black straw and feathers.

Major Ormsby McCammon has gone to Hot Springs, Va., for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Everett, who are at their home in Sheridan circle for the spring season, expect to Elkins, Miss Lown, Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Wells Goodykowitz, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Leonard S. Echols, and Mrs. Harry Woodyard.

Mrs. Frank Mebane, of North Carolina, entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham, with Mrs. Albert Sidney Hurlstone as the guest of honor. There were ten in the company.

All friends of Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey are invited to attend the reception which is to be given tonight at the Women's City Club by ten important women's organizations of which she is a member. It will be a touching tribute to a woman who has done a splendid work in Washington along legal, educational and patriotic lines. The reception is arranged as a celebration of the seventieth birthday of the guest of honor.

Miss Katherine Letterman has returned to Washington after an absence of some years in France and Italy. She went to Paris before the late war broke out, and was active in canteen work at Calais throughout the conflict. She is now a guest of her cousin, Miss Sarah Lee, and will be a guest of the Misses Patten before leaving in July to return to Paris. Miss Letterman will be remembered here as social secretary at the White House in the Taft Administration.

Miss Janet Richards will hold an open "questionnaire" on "Public Questions, Home and Foreign" in the ball-room of the Hotel Lafayette on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, for the benefit of the endowment fund of Mills College, California. Her guests will be Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, Mrs. Amy N. Talbot, Mrs. John Lindsay Morehead, Mrs. Thomas O. Seifridge, Mrs. Alvin T. Fuller, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. DeWitt Talmage, Mrs. John G. Blair, Mrs. Frank Mebane, and Mrs. Julius Kahn.

Colombian Secretary Entertainers. Don Carlos Uribe, jr., secretary of the Colombian legation, entertained a small party at dinner last evening at the Cafe St. Marks, taking his guests later to the theater.

Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet, wife of the Assistant Secretary of Commerce, will return tomorrow from a visit in Canandaigua, N. Y.

Mrs. Carl Vrooman, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, will leave here shortly for Illinois.

Mrs. James Carroll Fraser entertained at a reception yesterday afternoon at her home. Her guests included a number of chaplains of the army and navy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Temple Graves have returned to their apartment at the Burlington, where they will spend some weeks before going to their cottage at Elizabethtown.

Dr. James B. Bell, of Greenville, Tenn., is in Washington for a few days. He was entertained at dinner last evening by Dr. and Mrs. Everett M. Ellison, at their home in M street.

Mrs. Henry F. Dimock will entertain the Political Study Club in her Scott circle home on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. W. M. Stone, will preside and Miss Margaret Ripps has charge of a program of music.

Mrs. Ross Thompson was hostess at a luncheon yesterday at the Purple Iris tea house in honor of Mrs. L. L. Heamey, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Burton, of London, who spent the last winter here, have taken a house for the summer months at Southampton, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector Leonard entertained a company of twenty-eight last evening at the dinner-dance at the Chevy Chase Club in compliment to Capt. Carlo Tappi, of the Italian legation staff, who is leaving shortly for Italy.

Mrs. Cromwell Brooks returned from Philadelphia, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Edward T. Stotenburg.

The marriage of Miss Edna A. Wilcox and John C. Chevallier will take place next Wednesday evening at St. Paul's Church.

Wednesday evening by her sister, Mrs. Helen McMahon, who will be her matron of honor.

The Glee Club of Chevy Chase Seminary will sing at Lafayette Square at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the benefit of the Salvation Army drive by arrangement with the Junior League companies of the Salvation Army "Beauty Regiment."

Miss Blinckhorn Weds.

The marriage of Miss Edith Blinckhorn, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Blinckhorn, to Lieut. William F. Hill, U. S. M. C., took place yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed at 10:30 in the rectory of the Church of the Sacred Heart, by the Rev. Paul Gavan in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends. The bride wore a traveling gown of dark blue tricotine with a small hat to match, a wrap of dark blue velour and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Edwin Hillier, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and the best man was Lieut. G. W. Kirkman, U. S. M. C. Mrs. Hillier wore a gown of dark blue with a picture hat of black and a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Lieut. and Mrs. Hill left immediately after the ceremony for Alaska, where the former has been ordered for duty with the Navy Alaskan Coal Commission. They will stop in the large cities on their way West. Lieutenant Hill has been stationed in Washington for the last year on duty as assistant to the officer in charge of aviation of the marine corps.

Elect Club Dance.

The Elect Club will hold its regular weekly dance Saturday night in the ballroom of 2400 Sixteenth street. Dancing will begin at 8:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Eugene C. Hall, formerly Miss Ruth Mason, is visiting her parents, Congressman and Mrs. William E. Mason of Illinois at the Congress Hall Hotel.

As a tribute to the memory of Florence Nightingale and her work, a monster celebration will be held at the Central High School tonight, the centenary of her birth. Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British Ambassador, will be the guest of honor and will make an address. Dr. Arthur Worcester, who knew her personally, will tell of his reminiscences of the famous Englishwoman, and then Washington society will step in and do homage to the heroine of Scutary.

Following the speaking there will be a presentation of seven tableaux, under the management of Mrs. John L. Newbold, depicting the life and work of the noted nurse.

Mrs. Mabel T. Boardman, chairman of the committee on nursing activities of the District of Columbia Chapter, American Red Cross, and Mrs. Whitman Cross, president of the Instructive Visiting Nurse Society, are acting as joint chairmen of the committee on the celebration. It is under the auspices of these two organizations, the Child Welfare Society, and the Ladies' Boards of the City Hospital that the celebration will be conducted. Miss Boardman will preside.

Other well-known Washington women on the committee are Miss Elizabeth C. Adams, Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, and Mrs. William Holland Wilmer, of the L. V. N. S.; Mrs. Clarence Perley, Columbia Hospital; Mrs. Reginald S. Hurd, Hospital for Children; Mrs. A. P. Gardner, Garfield Hospital; Mrs. William Cline Borden, George Washington University; Mrs. Isaac Gans, Georgetown Hospital; and Mrs. Henry Leonard, Child Welfare Society.
