COX FOR FEDERAL AID FOR SCHOOLS

Believes Illiteracy, Pay for Teachers, and Other Problems Need Attention.
BALTIMORE, Sept. 16.—James M. Cox, of Ohio, Democratic nominee for President, yesterday made plain his stand on education. In a letter to George H. Reavis, assistant State superintendent of education, he unequivocally indorses Federal aid in all lines of education, the Americanization of immigrants, sufficient pay for teachers, and the equalization of educational opportunities so that every boy and girl in the country shall be guaranteed the chance of a complete and practical education.
