A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

Capital Folk Will Open Play At Annapolis

THE Washington Theater Productions Company, Inc., twin sister to the Washington Producing Theater Company—will begin its career by launching a sparkling and colorful revue, "High-Ho," which will have its premier in Annapolis on Saturday evening, November 13. A week in Richmond and perhaps another week elsewhere, and then the production will come to Washington, opening at the Shubert-Garrick Theater on the evening of November 29.

mysteries of play reading, several other productions are already "on the fire" and plans are being made for the building up of a corking permanent company, making Washington its headquarters, which will have developed a loyal following by the time the actual theater building is completed.

MRS. LIVINGSTON FARRAND, Wife of Dr. Farrand, with her favorite West Highland terrier.

29 and after to support a movement which answers a crying need—and to see what promises to be an amazingly tuneful, clever and beautiful production. I know whereof I speak, for I was privileged to have a peep behind the scenes when first the scenario, if one may use a movie term, was read to the members of the Founders' Association of the Washington Theater Company.

DINNER FOR GEDDESSES. The British Ambassador and Lady Geddes and Sir Roderick and Lady Jones, of London, will be the guests of honor at a dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brett Noyes are giving tonight.

On Saturday evening the Ambassador and Lady Geddes will dine with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller, who will have a distinguished company of guests to meet them.

Mrs. Bainbridge Colby, wife of the Secretary of State, will return to town this evening after a brief stay in New York.

MINISTER BIANCHI ARRIVES. Julio Bianchi, newly appointed minister of Guatemala, and Mme. Bianchi, accompanied by their nine children and Mme. Bianchi's sister, have arrived in Washington and taken an apartment at the Hotel Dewey.

Maj. General H. K. Bethell, military attache of the British embassy, entertained at dinner last evening at the Cafe St. Marks. There were six in the party.

Miss Mary Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Johnson, will be the guest of honor at an informal tea which Miss Ann Wickes Craven is giving this afternoon at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. T. T. Craven. The guests will be limited to a few of this season's debutantes and a group of young naval officers. Mrs. Goldsborough Adams will preside at the tea table.

ROOSEVELT-MINOR WEDDING. The wedding of Miss Virginia Lee Minor, daughter of Mrs. Tucker K. Sands, of Washington, and Richmond, Va., and Robert B. Roosevelt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Roosevelt, of Washington, D. C., and Sayville, L. I., was quietly celebrated at noon yesterday in a private suite at the Hotel Lorraine, New York city. The Rev. Dr. John H. Prescott, rec-

Mrs. T. Q. Donaldson, Jr., born there on October 4, before coming home.

Mrs. Frederick H. Brooks will go to Nonquitt, Mass., Saturday for a visit.

Senator and Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry are in New York and are staying with his sister, Miss Mabel Gerry.

General Payolle, of the French army, who has been staying at the Ritz-Carlton for the last ten days, is sailing Friday for France after being entertained in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Lindsay of New York are spending a few days at the Hotel Washington.

Rev. and Mrs. John Compton Ball has issued announcements of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ruth Loder Ball to Dr. Thomas David Mills, of Harrisburg, Pa.

The wedding took place yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which the bride's father is pastor.

The Rev. Dr. Ball performed the ceremony in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimates. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with autumn foliage and white and yellow blossoms. The bride was attended by Miss Eleanor Parke Gustis, of this city, and William J. Carnahan, of Pittsburgh, was the best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother. She wore her traveling suit of dark blue tulle with dark blue hat and corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses. Dr. Mills and his bride left immediately afterward for a wedding trip, and will be at home at 1312 North Third street, Harrisburg, after the first of November.

The bride is a graduate from the Eastern High School, class of 1915, and later graduated as a nurse from the Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Ohio Northern University, and of the Hahnemann Medical College, where he first met his bride. During the war he was a commissioned officer in the medical corps, stationed at Fort Oglethorpe.

MISS POLLOCK A GUEST. Miss Beatrice Pollock will arrive today from Jamestown, R. I., to be the guest of Miss Rose Rockwell, whose marriage to Mr. James Hill Littlehales will take place on Saturday. Mrs. Pollock will entertain as luncheon tomorrow for the bride, and Mrs. C. H. Gill, mother of the bride, will entertain the wedding party on Friday at luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conrad Reid have leased the suburban home of Dr. and Mrs. Larkin W. Glazebrook at Bethesda, Md., for the winter, and will take possession at the end of the week when Dr. and Mrs. Glazebrook will open their residence in F street.

The first formal meeting of the National Pen League and the International Literary Association, headed by Mrs. Florence Jackson Stoddard, president, working of the League of Nations, in a non-partisan way.

Representatives from foreign countries who spoke were Carlos Manuel de Cepedea, Minister from Cuba; Sebastian Sampaio, representative from Brasil, and Michael Tsamados, chargé d'affaires of Greece. Miss Minna Niemann featured the musical part of the program.

Dr. Clarence J. Owen spoke. The league will meet once a month. Mrs. Stoddard and the members of the executive board received the guests.

Count de Sails of the British embassy staff, will spend the week-end with Col. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., at Oyster Bay.

Lieut. Col. Frank J. Griffin, U. S. A., of the Signal Corp office in Washington, and Mrs. Griffin, who are on a month's leave, are spending part of their time in New York at the Hotel Astor. They will later motor through Maine and from there will tour to Buffalo.

Mrs. John J. Moorhead, of New York City, is at the Hotel LaFayette for a few days.

CARD PARTY SATURDAY. There will be a card party at the College Women's Club Saturday afternoon, October 16, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. DuFour, of 1652 Mintwood Place, is in charge of the arrangements.

Pretty New Effects in Camisole Top Laces

—This new effect consists in the bit of color that is introduced. There are medallions set in the lace at intervals, and these are embroidered in pink and blue. All are finished with a lace edge and a row of beading for ribbon. We also save some camisole top lace with the lower edge in a deep pointed effect. These are $1.00 not in colors. A yard 35c to...

—We also have the narrow laces to match the colored embroidered camisole handings. These have pink and blue embroidered medallions also. A yard... 45c

—Wash Laces, in ecru and white, majority edgings, but a few insertions included. All about one inch wide; desirable for trimming curtains, bureau and dresser scarfs, centerpieces and for children's undergarments. They closely resemble the real hand crocheted laces. A yard... 19c

—Cluny Laces, insertions and edges, and in many cases the insertions match the edges. These are about 2 or 2 1/2 inches wide. A yard... 29c

—Wider Cluny Laces, for many trimming purposes, curtains, etc., edges and insertions, in ecru. A yard... 69c
